PREFACE

The recent genocide in Gaza has once again turned the world's attention towards the Middle East and the ingenious charade of the Jewish lobby and Zionist propaganda in facilitating the concealment of the latest 'holocaust' perpetrated against Palestinian women and children by the brutal Zionist Israeli army. In South Africa, the usual suspects are again at play. Hark at the rampant hypocrisy of professional propagandists such as David Saks and Rabbi Warren Goldstein who shamelessly defend the indefensible in the print media. Killing, mass-murder and the rape of Palestinian women by Israeli soldiers does not seem to irk the conscience of these Israeli apologists. However the recent chain of events once again places the spotlight on a troublesome people who are hell-bent on legitimizing the last remnant of an apartheid state in the Middle East (i.e. Israel). In the ongoing anguish, voices of sanity need to be brought to the fray. Groups such as the Neturai Karta (being honourable exceptions), often take the stand amidst the plethora of enraged froth emanating from fronts such as the Anti-Defamation League and the Bnai Brith rationale for the distribution of this tract. Jewish scholars such as Israel Shahak and Jewish academics such as Norman Finkelstein and Noam Chomsky have been the champions of justice and truth over the 3 decades exposing the inequity in Jewish society. And so this takes us to the current rationale for the distribution of this tract. Very few people out there are aware pertaining to the clichéd slogans and contextualization surrounding the history and development of the Jewish nation. It is critical that we unpack the terminologies causing the rampant conundrum in the world today.

The meaning of the term 'Jewish' and its cognates, including 'Judaism', thus becomes in the context of Israeli politics as important as the meaning of 'Islamic', when officially used by Iran, or 'communist' when it was officially used by the USSR. However, the meaning of the term 'Jewish' as it is popularly used is not clear, either in Hebrew or when translated into other languages, and so the term had to be defined officially. According to Israeli law a person is considered 'Jewish' if either their mother, grandmother, great-grandmother and great-great-grandmother were Jewesses by religion; or if the person was converted to Judaism in a way satisfactory to the Israeli authorities, and on condition that the person has not converted from Judaism to another religion, in which case Israel ceases to regard them as 'Jewish'. Of the three conditions, the first represents the Talmudic definition of 'who is a Jew', a definition followed by Jewish Orthodoxy.

The Talmud and post-Talmudic rabbinic law also recognise the conversion of a non-Jew to Judaism (as well as the purchase of a non-Jewish slave by a Jew followed by a different kind of conversion) as a method of becoming Jewish, provided that the conversion is performed by authorised rabbis in a proper manner. This ‘proper manner’ entails for females, their inspection by three rabbis while naked in a ‘bath of purification’, a ritual which, although notorious to all readers of the Hebrew press, is not often mentioned by the English media in spite of its undoubted interest for certain readers. I hope that this book will be the beginning of a process which will rectify this discrepancy.

But there is another urgent necessity for an official definition of who is, and who is not ‘Jewish’. The State of Israel officially discriminates in favour of Jews and against non-Jews in many domains of life, of which I regard three as being most important: residency rights, the right to work and the right to equality before the law. Discrimination in residency is based on the fact that about 92 per cent of Israel’s land is the property of the state and is administered by the Israel Land Authority according to regulations issued by the Jewish National Fund (JNF), and affiliate of the World Zionist Organization. In its regulations the JNF denies the right to reside, to open a business, and often to work, to anyone who is not Jewish, only because he is not Jewish. At the same time, Jews are not prohibited from taking residence or opening businesses anywhere in Israel. If applied in another state against the Jews, such discriminatory practice would instantly and justifiably be labeled anti-Semitism and would no doubt spark massive public protests. When applied by Israel as a part of its ‘Jewish ideology’, they are usually studiously ignored or excused when rarely mentioned. In the last 150 years, the term ‘Jew’ has acquired a dual meaning, to the great confusion of some well-meaning people, particularly in the English-speaking countries, who imagine that the Jews they meet socially are ‘representative’ of Jews ‘in general’. In the countries of east Europe as well as in the Arab world, the Jews were liberated from the tyranny of their own religion and of their own communities by outside forces, too late and in circumstances too unfavorable for genuine internalized social change. In most cases, and particularly in Israel, the old concept of society, the same ideology - especially as directed towards non-Jews - and the same utterly false conception of history have been preserved. This applies even to some of those Jews who joined ‘progressive’ or leftist movements. An examination of radical, socialist and communist parties can provide many examples of disguised Jewish chauvinists and racists, who joined these parties merely for reasons of ‘Jewish interest’ and are, in Israel, in favor of ‘anti-Gentile’ discrimination. One need only check how many Jewish ‘socialists’ have managed to write about the kibbutz without taking the trouble to mention that it is a racist institution from which non-Jewish citizens of Israel are rigorously excluded, to see that the phenomenon we are alluding to is by no means uncommon.

It is important to note that all the supposedly ‘Jewish characteristics’ attributed to Jews in 19th and 20th century popular culture are modern characteristics, quite unknown during most of Jewish history, and appeared only when the totalitarian Jewish community began to lose its power. Take, for example, the famous Jewish sense of humor. Not only is humor very rare in Hebrew literature before the 19th century (and is only found during few periods, in countries where the Jewish upper class was relatively free from the rabbinical yoke, such as Italy between the 14th and 17th centuries or Muslim Spain) but humor and jokes are strictly forbidden by the Jewish religion - except, significantly, jokes against other religions. Satire against rabbis and leaders of the community was never internalized by Judaism, not even to a small extent, as it was in Latin Christianity. There were no Jewish comedies, just as there were no comedies in Sparta, and for a similar reason. Or take the love of learning. Except for a purely religious learning, which was itself in a debased and degenerate state, the Jews of Europe (and to a somewhat lesser extent also of the Arab countries) were dominated, before about 1780, by a supreme contempt and hate for all learning (excluding the Talmud and Jewish mysticism).

Large parts of the Old Testament, all nonliturgical Hebrew poetry, most books on Jewish philosophy were not read and their very names were often anathematized. Study of all languages was strictly forbidden, as was the study of mathematics and science. Geography, history - even Jewish history - was completely unknown. The critical sense, which is supposedly so characteristic of Jews, was totally absent, and nothing was so forbidden, feared and therefore persecuted as the most modest innovation or the most innocent criticism.

This booklet then attempts to at the very least to provide some context behind the scenes and clear up the misunderstanding across the divide. It does not purport to be an academic thesis nor does it make any pretences to be one; but in simple layman’s term unravels the true history which is generally ‘dazed’ amidst the ‘designer history’ presented as the “truth” before all of us. Any labeling of the author and compiler as “anti-Semitic” will be ridiculed with the contempt that it deserves.

The writer of this preface and author would more than welcome measured critique and it is hoped that this work would generate critical debate, much lacking in our world where topics of this nature are deemed ‘taboo’. There are no sacred cows in the world today and any community regardless of its religious persuasion which cannot withstand or engage in self-critique is destined for the ‘dustbin of history’. Open your mind now before it is too late!

HELPING OUR FELLOW HUMAN BEINGS, THE JEWS, TO FIND THEIR TRUE ROOTS - BY SCHOLARS AND RESEARCHERS OF THE BIBLE!

How the Jews Came Into Existence

According to historian Paul Johnson in his book titled ‘History of the Jews’ he states that the Jews came into existence from the rapings by the Greeks and the Romans of the women of Palestine during their periods their occupation there. This claim, in our opinion is quite valid as it concurs to some degree with certain verses of the Arabic Glorious Qur’ân. We shall discuss this point later on in our analysis.

The motivation for the compilation of this evidence is that the Jews / Zionists of “Israel” claim to have a God given right to the land of Palestine through their book called Torah which they share with the Protestant Christians. They have completely manipulated the minds of the Christian world to submit to their belief that they are the true indigenous people of Palestine. This notion will be fully discussed in the following analysis of the truth.

The history of the Jews is hidden behind a great wall of confusion! Most believe without evidence that the great Prophet Ibrâhîm (Allâh is pleased with him) was the original ancestral father of the Jews. To understand from where the Jews originated, one has to go step by step to uncover the truth. It is common sense and a fact that one father does not produce different tribes or nations. The Divine Book states:

1: The name Abrahamic is a misnomer. This name was fabricated by the pagan Europeans to describe the faith of Prophet Ibrâhîm who never named his way of life as ‘Abrahamic.’ See verse 67, chapter 3 on next page. However we shall use this connotation for ease of reading for the benefit of non Muslims, but we wish to make it very clear this in no way means that we agree with the name. The belief and way of life of all prophets as mentioned in the A.G. Qur’ân is stated as Dînul Islâm, meaning: to believe in one Allâh and submit to His will.

“3:67: Ibrâhîm was neither a Yahûd (Jew) nor a Naşârâh (those that made a man from Nazareth a God), but he was (an) upright (man), a Muslim; and he was not one of the polytheists.”

Before a person makes a conclusion about a subject, especially when the subject relates to a period beyond one’s time, then a thorough investigation is required. The case of the Prophet Ibrâhîm (Arabic) is the bone of contention. The non-Muslims used a European pagan name called Abraham whom they first called A’bram only after the Greeks created what became known as the Hebrew² language; the name was then changed to Abram in Hebrew, which means ‘the Father is high’.

What one has to understand is the fact that no one has factual written or otherwise evidence from divine revelation before the advent of the Arabic Glorious about the name of the father of Ismâ’îl³ and Ishâq. Let us introduce the following verses of Chapter 6 of the divine revelation in order that one may understand better:

83. “And this was Our argument which We gave to Ibrâhîm against his people. We exalt in degrees whom We please. Surely your Rabb is Wise, Knowing.

84. And We gave him Ishâq and Ya’qûb. Each did We guide; and Nûh did We guide before, and of his descendants, Dâwûd and Sulaimân and Ayyûb and Yûsuf and Mûsâ and Hârûn. And thus do We reward those who do good (to others):

85. And Zakariyyâ and Yahyâ and ’Îsâ and Ilyâs; each one (of them) was of the righteous,

86. And Ismâ’îl and Al-Yash’a and Yûnus and Lût; and each one (of 2 : “Hebrew” is a Greek word. According to Peake the whole Hebrew language was created by the Greeks. See Peake’s Commentary on the Bible. 1919, p. 34.

3: The Europeans fabricated names for the sons of Prophet Ibrâhîm as “Ishmael” and “Isaac”.

them) We made to excel the people;

87. And some of their fathers and their descendants and their brethren.
And We chose them and guided them to the right way.

88. This is Allāh's guidance wherewith He guides whom He pleases of His servants. And if they had associated others (with Him), all that they did would have been vain.

89. These are they to whom We gave the Book and authority and prophecy. Therefore if these disbelieve in it, We have indeed entrusted it to a people who are not disbelievers in it."

Let me give an account as composed by Paul Johnson the historian:

"The Jews who worked the Bible into something approaching its present shape evidently thought that their race, though founded by Abraham, could trace forebears even further and called the ultimate human progenitor Adam. In our present state of knowledge, we must assume that the very earliest chapters of the book of Genesis are schematic and symbolic rather than factual descriptions." [our emphases in Italics].⁴

It is sad to say that in spite of the advancement of knowledge in the Twentieth century, and today in the twenty-first century, the so-called scholars use terms without investigating how a name of a people came into existence! Nowhere in the history of humankind, do we find that the two well known persons Ādam and Ibrāhīm (Allāh is pleased with them), were known to be referred to as Jews. It is also not possible to make it a fact or to claim that the Jews descended from them! The lands where the Prophet Ibrāhīm appeared were always known to be the lands of the Arabs. The Children of Isrā'īl -Banī Isrā'īl-in Arabic- are so named as they were the great-grandchildren of the Prophet Ibrāhīm. The term Jew or Jewish only appeared on the scene after the Greeks and Romans entered and caused havoc in Palestine. The pagan Greeks first⁵ raped the women of the Children of Isrā'īl, as they were not pagans, and whose offspring became known as the Sons of Darkness. Thereafter came the Romans⁶ {another pagan nation}, who raped the women of the Sons of Darkness and their offspring became known as the Jews. These facts were made known by John Allegro, a researcher of the Dead Sea Scrolls, which cost him his life! However, it was too late as he had already revealed the secret before he was murdered!

Arabic Glorious Qur'ân Chapter 17:4/8

4. "And We made known to the Children of Israel in the Book: Certainly you will make mischief in the land twice, and behave insolently with mighty arrogance.

5. So when of the two, the first warning came to pass, We raised against you Our servants, of mighty prowess, so they made havoc in (your) houses. And it was an accomplished threat.

6. Then We gave you back the turn against them, and aided you with wealth and children and made you a numerous band.

7. If you do good, you do good for your own souls. And if you do evil, it is for them. So when the second warning came, (We raised another people) that they might bring you to grief and that they might enter the Masjid as they entered it the first time, and that they might destroy, whatever they conquered, with utter destruction.

8. It may be that your Lord will have mercy on you. And if you return (to mischief), We will return (to punishment). And We have made hell a prison for the disbelievers."

Arabic Glorious Qur'ân Chapter 5 :78/79

78. Those who disbelieved from among the Banî Isrâ'îl were cursed by the tongue of Dâwûd and 'Îsâ son of Maryam. This was because they disobeyed and exceeded the limits.

79. They forbade not one another the hateful things they did. Evil indeed was what they did.

It is true what Paul Johnson said, *viz: 'The Jews who worked the Bible into something approaching its present shape...'*⁷ This fact reveals that the Bible

7 : Arabic Glorious Qur'ân - 2: v. 79: " Woe! then to those who write the Book with their hands then say, this is from Allâh; so that they may take for it a small price. So woe! to them for what their hands write and woe! to them for what they earn."

as known today is not the original divine message, but it is in accordance to what the Greeks, Romans and Jews wanted for their religion⁸. However, as a historian, Paul Johnson failed to have investigated as to why the Biblical contents do not concur with that of an intelligent Creator! Any person who carefully looks at creation must come to the conclusion that the Creator cannot be associated with irrational concepts as contained in the Bible. It is also impossible to believe that order with such meticulous functions and in perfect harmony can come into existence without an absolute knowledgeable Planner!⁹ The Greeks produced the Septuagint which must have been rejected by the Sons of Darkness {the illegitimate offspring of the Greeks}; hence it disappeared from the face of the earth.

Jerome, a smart pagan planner used a few Jewish teachers to help him secretly to produce the Vulgate¹⁰. Although it did not survive, the ideas were used to formulate the Massoretic text of 916 AD together with the new knowledge they acquired from the Muslims¹¹ in Europe. This became the 8 : Refer to “The History of the Intellectual Development of Europe” by John William Draper, M.D; LL.D; published in 1864; to understand the creation of the Catholic Church and its off-shoots, the Protestants. The author, a Christian, has a jaundiced view of Islam as can be ascertained in his writings; however he has recorded the history of the church quite truthfully, although not very comprehensively. We wish to record that we do not consider all Jews and Christians to be evil. We acknowledge that there are some very good persons in these groups, as stated in the Arabic Glorious Qur’ân. We have included some of their comments in this book.

9: Al-Rah’man is the Beneficent Being Who brought things into existence for the sustenance of man before his creation. Man has not earned them. The same Beneficent Creator, we are informed has taught the Qur’ân, which is a necessity for the guidance of humankind, and is a Divine gift for the devotional sustenance of human beings like so many uncountable gifts for his physical sustenance.

10 : “Jerome resided over the fourth monastery. Here he did most of his literary work and, throwing aside his unfinished plan for a translation from Origen’s Hexaplar text, translated the Old Testament directly from the Hebrew, with the aid of Jewish scholars. He mentions a rabbi from Lydda, a rabbi from Tiberias, and above all Rabbi Ben Anina, who came to him by night secretly for fear of the Jews. Jerome makes the synagogue responsible for the accuracy of his version: “Let him who would challenge ought in this translation,” he states, “ask the Jews.” The result of all this labour was the Latin translation of the Scriptures, which afterwards became the Vulgate or authorised version; but the Vulgate as we have it now suffered a good deal from changes made under the influence of the older translations; the text became very corrupt during the middle ages, and in particular all the apocrypha, except Tobit and Judith, which Jerome translated from the Chaldee, were added from the older versions.” (Encyclopaedia Britannica, Vol. 2, pp. 2-3).

11 : The Muslims went to Europe to preach Islâm and teach them the message of the first known document from which the Bible was constructed. One must not lose sight of the fact that after eight hundred years of Muslim Teachings in Europe, Jews and Christians had a fine opportunity to learn and copy the guidance of the Arabic Glorious Qur'ân; however instead of writing the truth they formulated it into irrational stories to coincide with their pagan ideologies, which became a well known Book called the Bible to the pagan nations in Europe. Paul Johnson summed up the manipulative work of Jews and Christians in the following words: 'In our present state of knowledge, we must assume that the very earliest chapters of the book of Genesis are schematic and symbolic rather than factual descriptions.' Consequently, the story about "Abraham's" wife was concocted because of hatred, but there exists no substance whatsoever in it to support their nonsense as it is pure rubbish. In fact the opposite is true in that the Jewish nation is an illegitimate nation as will be proved further on. [Their own invented Torah and Bible use the word 'bastard' to describe children born out of wedlock. Ref: Deut: 23/2; Zech: 9/6; Heb: 12/8]

The Bible of today was only constructed very long after the Arabic Glorious Qur'ân!¹² Therefore, the following Christian statement: "I am

Arabic Glorious Qur'ân in the 7th century Christian Era, and tried very hard to civilise the pagan Europeans, but unfortunately could not succeed.

12 : The first Bible that appeared in the world between two covers was in 1740-41. The Bible by Tyndale which is claimed to be around the 1500's is also not to be found. Even if for the sake of argument we agree that Tyndale's Bible was available in the 1500's, it was approximately 800 years after the Qur'ân was revealed, and preserved perfectly by memory and also written form. It was already in circulation in the Muslim Empire, the greater part of Europe including Spain. The English Revised Standard Version - 1980, on page iii. states: "The first English version of the Scriptures made by direct translation from the original Hebrew and Greek, and the first to be printed was the work of William Tyndale. He met bitter opposition. He was wilfully perverting the meaning of the Scriptures, and his New Testament was ordered to be burned as "untrue translations." He was finally betrayed into the hands of his enemies, and in October, 1536, he was publicly executed and burned at the stake. Yet Tyndale's work became the foundation of subsequent English version." If Tyndale's work was burnt and rejected as "untrue", the question remains what was left. Assuming the remains of his work were preserved, then, it means the English version of the New Testament is based entirely on parts of his work. Our concern is that it would be extremely difficult to ascertain what an author articulated in his research if only a section of the research was used. Hence, if the English version of the New Testament is based entirely on a piece of incomplete work, how valid can such a version be? On the other hand, if none of his "untrue translations" could be retrieved, on what is the English version of the New Testament based?

sure you are aware of the origin of Arabs, they are the offspring of Abraham, but by his servant girl!" is woefully for them a known lie which the illegitimate Jews or rather the offspring of the evil Greeks and evil Romans know so well! One ought to know that Mûsâ¹³ must have spoken in the Egyptian language with Pharaoh! Please keep in mind that the title Children of Isrâ'îl is not the name of a nation or tribe, it is an honourable title conferred by Allâh which honours the descendants of Ya'qûb.

Observing the contents of the Bible as used by the Jews, one would find that it has the same number of books as that of the Protestants! Originally the Catholics were the creators of the Bible. They decided on the names of the books and which books should formulate the teachings of the former prophets, although they had no original manuscripts of the prophets. However, it appears that there must have been something about the original manuscripts of the prophets that the Greeks did not like! Strangely, we find that the Greeks, as claimed, first produced the Septuagint which disappeared. Thereafter, as history reveals, that the Catholics under Jerome produced the Vulgate in Latin which contained more books than what the Protestants produced during the 17th century Christian Era.

Be that as it may, the main bone of contention is not the number of books which now constitute the Bible, but what was the language used by the prophets of the Children of Isrâ'îl? Can it be a coincidence that all the Biblical prophets all belong virtually to the same geographical area? Can it also be an additional coincidence that even today Arabic is the spoken language by Christians and Muslims in all of these lands?

Let us look a little further into this aspect. We are told in the Arabic Glorious Qur'ân that "Allâh sent Prophets to all the tribes and nations of the world!"¹⁴ The origins of their periods seem far beyond in time than that 13: Mûsâ is the only divine supportive name of the prophet who brought the Children of Isrâ'îl out of Egypt. The pagans renamed him Moses, just as they created the pagan name Jesus for Nabi 'Îsâ, David for Dâwûd, Jonah for Yûnus, Solomon for Sulaimân and so on. Muslims should only accept the Qur'ânic names for all the prophets and not the pagan names as stated in the man made book called the Bible. It is a sin to call them by any other names, as Allâh has informed us in the Arabic Glorious Qur'ân of their correct names [Allâh is pleased with them all].

14: Chap 10 v. 47- "And for every nation there is a messenger." Chap 35verse 24: "And of the Prophets in the Arab lands! If we take Prophet Mûsâ, (Allâh is pleased with him) his period is close to our time, relatively speaking, although it is a few thousand years ago, as we have evidence of the Pharaoh of his time. Pharaoh's people are still in existence, and they are still speaking Arabic even today! In the lands to which the Prophet Mûsâ went to after leaving Egypt, people there also are still speaking Arabic! All the lands around them are also still speaking Arabic! Consequently, the only logical conclusion one can come to is that the revelations to all the Biblical Prophets must have all been in the Arabic language! It seems that for this reason the Scriptures were conveniently destroyed! No one can argue that Pharaoh would have spoken with Prophet Mûsâ in his language which must have been the Egyptian language! Pharaoh, the ruler of Egypt would never have spoken to Mûsâ in any other language, least of all a slave language! After all Mûsâ was brought up in Pharaoh's house from an infant and learnt the Egyptian language.

Before we go to the next stage of the argument, it is very important to point out that the first human being whom Allâh created must have been in existence for a very long time before the period of the Biblical Prophets! All the verses related to Âdam in the first few chapters of the Arabic Glorious Qur'ân concerns the development of human beings in a general sense, but in the *Mutashâbihât*¹⁵ phraseology.

there never were a people, without a warner having lived among them (in the past)." A similar message is repeated in Chap. 13 v. 7: "And sent to every people a guide." 15 : The English term allegorical is inadequate to explain what Mutashâbihât actually means. Sûrah Al-Imrân, Chapter 3 verse 7: "He it is Who has revealed the Book to you, some of its verses are Muḥkamât (absolutely clear and lucid, decisive); they are Ummul-Kitâb (the core of the original foundation of all revelation; the Essence of Allâh's Will and Law. The basis of the Book and also its protector, hence the 'mother of the Book'); and others are Mutashâbihât (allegorical). Then those in whose hearts is perversity follow the part of it, which is allegorical, seeking to mislead and seeking to give it (their own) interpretation. (What it means is that one is not searching for its hidden meanings). And mâ ya'lamu (none can exhaust its): ta'wîlahu 'illallâh (ta'wîlahu = the discovering, detecting, revealing, developing or disclosing or the explaining, expounding or interpreting of which a thing is or may be reduced or that which it may come to be, [within the framework of the Qur'ânic teachings]), save Allâh. And those firmly rooted in knowledge, they say- 'We believe in it, it is all from our Rabb. And none will grasp the message except people of understanding."

Ponder over the following verse of the Arabic Glorious Qur'ân in which Âdam is been qualified as a Prophet:

Chapter 3: verses 33-34: "Truly Allâh chose Âdam and Nûh and the descendants of Ibrâhîm and the descendents of 'Imrân above the nations - offspring, one of the other. And Allâh is Hearing, Knowing."

We strongly believe and understand that this verse actually reveals that all the Prophets mentioned in the Bible were one nation. And that they all spoke Arabic! What one must take note of and understand is that the lands wherein they lived and preached, the people till today still speak Arabic! When the Muslims went to Europe, there were hardly any Jews in the Arab speaking lands. Practically all the Jews were in Europe and in some parts of Asia trying to find their real fathers who disowned and threw them away like animals! The Europeans enslaved the Jews to show that they were not their offspring! In other words they rejected them. It was the Muslims that had to reinstate them as human beings; otherwise they would have been extinct like rare animals!!! Yet, the Jews loved their barbarian pagan ancestors so much that they accepted their Bible to be the word of "God". In spite of the fact that the Biblical ideology is based on an idea which today appears as if Paul introduced the idea to keep people ignorant, it was also included in the Old Testament which reveals that Paul only followed blindly:

"¹⁸For the message of the cross is foolishness to those who are perishing, but to us who are being saved it is the power of God. ¹⁹For it is written: "I will destroy the wisdom of the wise; the intelligence of the intelligent I will frustrate."^[s] (1 Corinthians 1: 18-19) [c] 1 Corinthians 1:19 Isaiah 29:14

The only alternative for the intelligent Jews and Christians who could not condone ignorance was to become atheists. Hence, atheists and agnostics came into existence which resulted in that most of the Jews in occupied Palestine eat pig¹⁶! The hatred for the Bible became so great that today one cannot distinguish between a believing Jew and an atheist Jew

16 : The pig eats its own excreta to nourish its body. In reality people eating pig meat are eating second hand shit! In case anyone takes offence at this word, kindly take note that the word shit is mentioned in the Bible. Ref: Ezekiel 4:12/13; 2 Kings 18:27

as they are both trading and indulging in Pork! Look at the Christians today, they are lovers of pork and most of them reveal their original pagan belief when they let their bodies be cremated instead of being buried in a grave! One must not misunderstand the above quotation of 1 Corinthians, as it is in camouflaging language, so that most of the other nations, who have come under their thralldom, became followers of the Bible, though they may not realise how ignorant and stupid they became!

One must realise that the Jews, although born from the raping of two pagan-European nations, their innate instinct of one Creator originates from their original mothers who were from the Children of Isrá'íl. This could be the main reason that although most of them have become Zionists, meaning Pork eating Jews, dealers in interest and usury and rejecters of the Creator, they became bloodthirsty people, just like their pagan-European barbarian ancestors, from whom they descended, as been proven in Palestine today, so much so that no one can deny the fact that the Jews are the worse kind of barbarian killers the world has ever known!!! The decent great Adolf Hitler of Germany never killed in the manner as the Jews!!! Surely only mad people or those who love killing infants, pregnant women and the infirm will think differently. That is why they have put in the Torah verses like:

“Happy shall he be, that taketh and dasheth thy little ones against the stones.” (Psalms 137:9, KJV)

“How blessed will be the one who seizes and dashes your little ones Against the rock.” (Psalms 137:9. New American Bible)

Bible orders that a wife's hand must be cut off by her own husband if she helps to save his life:

“When men strive together one with another and the wife of the one draweth near for to deliver her husband out of the hand of him that smiteth him, and putteth forth her hand, and taketh him by the secrets: then thou shalt cut off her hand, thine eye shall not pity her.” (Deuteronomy 25:11-12)

Some Muslims or /and non Muslims may argue that what is being said above is not true, but such a statement will only emerge from the ignorant. The Arabic Glorious Qur'ân makes one to investigate the origin of the Jews by introducing the term hâdû هَادُوا, meaning 'those who became Jews'¹⁷. If it was not for John Allegro who gave his life to reveal some parts of the truth relating to the Dead Sea Scrolls, we would not have seen and understood the true meaning of this Arabic term in the Arabic Glorious Qur'ân, which most translators simply translate as Jews. Please bear in mind: Before the discovery of the Dead Sea Scrolls, there was no state called "Israel"!

Before we continue with the infamous role the Dead Sea Scrolls played, there is one very important point which must be mentioned. And that is the Latin term 'Gentile'¹⁸, although it is used in the first book of the Pentateuch, Genesis 10:5, it does not mean that it was used by Moses! This term was first created by the pagan Romans! Now why did they create this term when it is supposed to mean '1. not Jewish; heathen. 2. of or relating to a nation or tribe'? How was it then possible to have crept into the Pentateuch and other books of the Old Testament? Any truthful person must realise that something is very sinister about this term! What have the pagan Romans to do with the Pentateuch?¹⁹ Seeing that the term was coined by those responsible for the creation of the Jews, is it not rational to come to the conclusion that they may have called their illegitimate offspring Gentiles initially, which was later changed?

An undeniable fact! At the time of the discovery of the Dead Sea Scrolls, there was no state of 'Israel'! The Infamous Dead Sea Scrolls, and how it forced the Christian Nations to support the creation of this Satanic Monster called 'Israel' to save their Religion called Christianity!

Be that as it may, in 1947, when the Dead Sea Scrolls were discovered, the Jews on examining them realised that they now had unprecedented power over the Christian Nations as the Scrolls was a trump card against the Christians! Why was it a trump card? It was a trump card because the Jews understood that these Scrolls were a death blow to Christianity and it was kaput /dead /over and done with if the Dead Sea Scrolls must be made public knowledge without any changes! When the Christian nations realised the unprecedented power and iron hold the Jews had over them they must have thought back how the Jews had “killed through crucifixion” their man-God Jesus, according to their belief, and called him accursed, and now could kill off Christianity too.

17 : Arabic Glorious Qur'ân: Chapter 4. V. 46 refer to hâdû هَادُوا for example.

19 : This fact challenges the authenticity of the Bible!

Suddenly, in spite of the great relationship the Christian nations had with the Arab world, (which is still continuing with the ignorant leadership they have put in place) they became so terrified of the Jews, knowing what they did to their ‘God’, and now could do to the same to their religion that they were forced onto their knees to submit to the Jewish demands and bring into existence a new country to save Christianity from the powerful dangerous Jewish onslaught! The trade-off was to create Israel. However Textual Criticism,²⁰ had to first take place irrespective if it was going to take a 100 years or more as Christianity had to be ‘saved’. [1947 to 2009 = 62 years since the discovery of the Scrolls]. Why 100 years to make changes to a few dozen scrolls? The answer is quite simple: All those who were alive when the Scrolls were initially discovered will be dead, so there will be no witnesses to declare what was written in the discovered ones. The same deception is 20 :Textual Criticism: “The science that seeks to determine as nearly as possible the original biblical text as it was written by the authors themselves. This science applies to other literature besides the Bible, for example, to the Latin classics such as the works of Horace or Cicero, or to the plays of Shakespeare. In each case, all the available evidence is gathered to determine the history of the transmission of the text, and then compared to establish what seems to be the original text. There are two kinds of evidence which the textual critic uses in order to determine the text: external (documents) and internal (conjecture). As regards external evidence for both the Old and New Testaments, there are thousands of Hebrew and Greek manuscripts which have been preserved through the centuries. Besides, there are many copies of the old translations of the Bible, such as the Greek Septuagint, the Latin Vulgate, and the Syriac Peshitto. ...” [My emphases] (J. P. O’Connell, et al. The Holy Family Bible Holy Family Edition of the Catholic Bible, from a Practical Dictionary of Biblical and General Catholic Information, Virtue and Company Limited: London, 1959, p. 30). Our comment: The above statement carries no factual evidence to support the authenticity of the Bible to be original. rather it condemns the Bible as (1) it says the language in which the manuscripts are preserved-Greek, Latin and Hebrew- as this destroys any credibility of it being original, because the prophets that were sent to this region never spoke these languages. More of that later. (2) Of what use are copies if there is no original to verify.

being played over as was done by Constantine the great Pagan Murderer who created the first Bible.

To save Christianity the changes had to be done before releasing the Scrolls and to accede to the Jewish demands because the stakes are too high for Christianity. The Jewish demands were: First, the creation of Israel. Next the big lie of the six million Jews killed by Hitler. The Jews had to fabricate and falsify the number of Jews killed by Hitler, as this is one of the cornerstones of their ideologies. The reason: To trick the world into believing that the Jews were a great number of people who were expelled from their 'homeland.' The truth is that they never had a homeland of their own, and they numbered about 2 to 3 million in all of Europe according to historians, before the Second World War²¹. Thereafter, under the supervision of their slaves, the Christian nations, millions of indigenous peoples in the Arab lands had to be displaced, and millions had to be killed, [we can see these killings taking place in Iraq, Palestine Somalia, Pakistan, Sudan and Afghanistan] and their true numbers has to be stated as only a few thousand people, so all true statistics must be manipulated / destroyed; and anyone that tries to refute the numbers must be forced into submission.. As for the forced submission, that is evident in the legislative laws passed in France, Germany, Austria, and the UK etc that makes it a punishable crime (!) to dispute the magical number of six million Jews killed by Hitler, and whoever does not believe and disputes this number, must be imprisoned. This is a most stupid law, to force a belief that is not provable, yet the Christians nations had to submit and pass the law at the behest of the all powerful Jews who have the Dead Sea Scrolls, or shall we say The Sword of Damocles Scrolls!

The Jews went so far that they made the present day Pope Benedict XVI to become a liar in the eyes of the world, although the Pope is supposed to have been guided by God the Father, and the Mother of God, and the Son of God, and the Holy Ghost and all the Holy Dead Saints, who all must help to guide the Pope so that the Pope may do his job in accordance with “divine” help! But the all-dangerous powerful onslaught of the Jews forced the Pope’s God, and the Holy Ghost, and the Son, and the Mother of God, and all the Holy Dead saints to be disgraced by a handful of Jews and more than a billion stupid Catholic followers who could only look in shame at what the Jews have done with their God-guided Master (the Pope)!!! I think this must be some food for thought for the intelligent in order to understand how “Israel” came into existence and the power they wield over the Christians!

21: Refer to: "When And How the Jewish People Was Invented" by Professor Shlomo Sand, an Israeli historian.

However, they did not reckon on the only truthful Roman Catholic Bishop, Richard Williamson who must have been guided to tell the truth by the Holy Ghost and who submitted to the guidance of many previous guided Popes! The Bishop refutes this number of six million and is now in the firing line of the all powerful Jews.

Nevertheless, illegitimate “Israel” will never last even if today’s whole ignorant Muslim world, and the stupid Christian world agree for “Israel” to exist, the time will come when they will be no more, just like all evil empires have come and gone!

Reading the Arabic Glorious Qur’ân, it must become clear to the reader that the Jews are always associated with transgression against Allâh! Study their evil activities²² like usury and killings, anywhere in the world, past and present and see the harm they have caused to other people.

It is reported: The good²³ “Helen Suzman was born on 7 November 1917 to Lithuanian-Jewish immigrants. She studied as an economist and 22 : Observing the wanton killings, violence and destruction against the Palestinians for over 60 years and one will understand their innate natural qualities that emanate from their scripture. They show no remorse, no mercy, and no compassion for the elderly, infirm, children and babies. Kill Man, Woman, Infant & even animals they say: “Thus saith the LORD of hosts, I remember that which Amalek did to Israel, how he laid wait for him in the way, when he came up from Egypt. Now go and smite Amalek, and utterly destroy all that they have, and spare them not; but slay both man and woman, infant and suckling, ox and sheep, camel and ass.” (I Samuel 15:2-3). What harm did the infants, ox, sheep, camel and ass do that they also had to be killed?

23 : To call any Jew “good” is only when they have passed on from this life as they cannot do harm again to innocent people, including babies, women and the infirm as the statistician at Witwatersrand University. At age 19, she married Dr. Moses Suzman (d. 1994), who was considerably older than his wife. She had two daughters with him before returning to university as a lecturer in 1944. She gave up teaching for politics, being elected to Parliament in 1953 as a member of the United Party. She switched to the liberal Progressive Party in 1959, and represented the Houghton constituency as that party's sole Member of Parliament, and the sole parliamentarian unequivocally opposed to apartheid, from 1961 to 1974."

The so-called background history of the late Helen (died 1 January 2009) may appear to be good in the minds of evil people and the ignorant. How can I make the above claim? Study her total history; see if you can find where she made an open public appeal to all Jews to give up the stolen lands and stolen properties of the indigenous people of South Africa, or even in Palestine? She joined the United Party as claimed, but did that Party practice justice when they were in power? Did they not take the indigenous people of South Africa to war, and made false promises to them and gave them absolutely bad for the good they have done for them? When the Europeans discovered that it was impossible to defeat the Christian Crusader National Party consisting of the offspring of the first Christian Crusader Invaders who forcefully took Khoisan women and raped them, thereafter, two new nations came into existence called the Afrikaners and their brothers and sisters of darker skin were branded as Coloureds! It is similar to the Jews that came into existence from the pagan Greeks and Romans. Hence, we find that similar kinds of atrocities are committed by such evil illegal offspring. However, we must reveal that something strange happened after the Coloureds married with the pure Khoisan, behavioural changes took place; the barbaric nature vanished from their offspring!

world witnessed in Gaza, December 2008! Remember also the missile strike against the wheel chair bound Sheik Yaseen who was in his late 70's? And the almost daily attacks by F16's, drones and helicopter gunships in Gaza and the West Bank killing innocent Palestinians. Not forgetting the blockade of food and essential supplies to the people of Gaza who are in the biggest prison in the world. If any Muslim state had done a similar action against any other nation, the whole Christian world would have attacked it! Yet they see nothing, hear nothing and do nothing, just like the 3 little monkeys.

We strongly believe, if the Children of Isrâ'îl had not left Palestine, and the Jews could have intermarried with them, then they also could have been saved! Unfortunately, there are no more Children of Isrâ'îl in the world as they intermarried with other nations of the East!

The sad state is the fact that even under the accepted new Biblical law, illegitimate offspring is condemned as a curse. There is an alternate, if the Jews could become Muslim and thereafter intermarry with them, and then there might be a slight possibility that their offspring could become normal human beings without the brutal barbaric tendencies they have! One can only hope that there might be a chance for their offspring to change for the better. The reason as to why we make this suggestion is because Islâm does not hold a child responsible for the evil of their parents²⁴ as the Bible does!

Let us now analyze the authenticity of the five books of Moses, which is called the Pentateuch. The first point which we must make absolutely clear is the fact that (the) At-Taurât mentioned in the Arabic Glorious Qur'ân has no relation whatsoever with the five books of Moses. The so-called Pentateuch or the five books of Moses only came into existence after the Greeks caused the havoc in Palestine. Not even the Dead Sea Scrolls can contain parts of (the) At-Taurât! The language dilemma - the language spoken by the Prophet Mûsâ destroys the idea of an original Scripture of the Prophet Mûsâ (Allâh is pleased with him) as he must have spoken Egyptian Arabic. The reason as to why the world witnesses such a dilemma that the Jews are disconnected from the Scriptures of the Prophet Mûsâ, is simply because none of the Prophets of the Children of Isrâ'îl is related to them. Whether they accept it or not, the facts point to the Jews being descendants of two pagan European nations. When their killing expertise is examined in relation with that of the Europeans, then one can clearly see and understand they are one people!

One cannot deny the fact that brothers of one father will never kill their own blood brothers knowingly in the manner that they are doing!

24 : "A bastard shall not enter into the congregation of the LORD; even to his tenth generation shall he not enter into the congregation of the LORD." Deut 23:2.

Even a fool must submit to this fact! Never mind the historical factual evidence that the Jews are Europeans, the mere fact that they are killing the offspring of Prophet Ibrâhîm (Allâh is pleased with him) is sufficient to reject any claim that they are from the offspring of Prophet Ibrâhîm (Allâh is pleased with him); as such a ludicrous claim can never be near the truth! This is the reason that their illegitimate fathers must have played a major role in destroying the Scriptures!

Besides that, they had a wonderful opportunity to make the contents of the Dead Sea Scrolls known and available to the world, as a Jew was one of the first owners of it! On examining the Scrolls they must have realised that these Scrolls can cause the worst setback to their own Religion which they created and named Judaism, as well as to the foundation of the Christian Religion! But why must they be concerned with the truth? The Jews know better than anyone as to who destroyed the original Scriptures!

Should one study the Arabic Glorious Qur'ân in order to establish if there is any relation with (the) At-Taurât and even (the) al-Injîl, as Nabî 'Îsâ (Allâh is pleased with him) was the last Prophet from the Children of Isrâ'îl, then one will find that the two Books mentioned in the Arabic Glorious Qur'ân do not refer to the message of the Jews specifically. Allâh ordered the Prophets that existed during the period of their messengership, to judge the Jews according to the law of the At-Taurât, even though they were illegitimate and to give them the status of normal people and not to deprive from the rights given to them by the Creator. This was because they were not responsible for their being illegitimate {Greeks through raping caused Sons of Darkness, and the Romans through raping caused them to become known as Jews}. But though they were given this position of normal people in the sight of Creator through the Prophets, they rebelled again and again and sadly for them they became the true transgressors against Allâh!

Today, no Christian nation can stop them from committing the worst kinds of atrocities against the Palestinians, who are the true offspring of Prophet Ibrâhîm (Allâh is pleased with him). Everyone knows that what the Jews are doing is immoral and wrong, and are worse than War Crimes, and they would never allow Muslims to commit such acts against Christians or any other people; but their reply is 'we act in accordance with the Pentateuch',²⁵ that is the books that their pagan Greek fathers first put together and called the Septuagint!

The saddest part of the Pentateuch is the undisputed fact that it is fabricated. In support of our bold claim are the following submissions: Exact Quote from the Catholic Church records:

"Bible, Manuscripts of the. Copies of the biblical text, written by hand. The text of the Bible has been handed down to us through handwritten and printed copies of the original writings and through translations into various ancient and modern languages. None of the original manuscripts written by the inspired authors themselves (autographs) is known to exist, but there are many ancient copies of the originals" [Our emphases].²⁶

The mainstream Protestant Churches had no option but to support the Catholics, as they do not own or have any manuscripts in their possession, but rely on the Greek manuscripts of the Catholics. They state:

"Since no autograph of any book of the Bible has survived, textual criticism plays an important part in Bible study. The material on which textual critics of the Bible work includes not only manuscript copies of the books of the Bible in their original languages but also ancient translations into other languages and quotations of biblical passages by ancient authors" [Our emphases].²⁷

The fact that the Jews agreed and went along with the contents of the Protestant Bible, and accepted it as their divine guidance, further proves that they silently accepted and acknowledged their ancestry bloodlines and brotherhood to the Europeans.

After all, the pagan Greeks and Romans are their forefathers; the name Jews is another way of saying that they are illegitimate. Is it not wonderful to witness that the Jewish activities and their European family activities are the same? Let us be more specific: Invading and taking over other peoples lands, stealing the natural resources and killing the indigenous people are some of the most horrific activities of their forefathers; yet they did exactly the same, but with the help of their families. When the nature of a peoples activities is examined, then one can establish from where it originates. Is it not wonderful that the Jewish activities and with whom they associate brings out that they are truly Europeans? Any truth-loving person knows that Palestine belongs to the Arabs.

One must understand that the so-called countries which today constitute Arab countries are in fact illegal. The Arab lands had no boundaries. It was the evil barbaric murderers called Europeans who invaded the Arab lands and cut them up according to their whims and made into nation-states as they deemed fit and drew boundaries. The Jews have no part in the history of the Arabs. They are Europeans and their rightful place is Europe! One must understand that this culture of killing and taking lands illegally originated from the founder of the Bible, who was known as Constantine the great! The world knows that he was a pagan and that cremation of the dead formed a major part of his way of life. However, the Jews are scared to be cremated when they are dead although when cremation takes place they are dead corpses. But all the other characteristics of Constantine are strictly being followed by them.

Ask any Christian if God is one; they will say that they believe in one God, and the Jews will say the same. However, there is a great difference between the Muslims and their counter parts, the Christians and Jews²⁸, as

28: (a) We mean no disrespect when we say that the Christians belief according to the Bible is: 'The Holy Ghost came upon Mary' and through this union [meaning sexual intercourse] between a Ghost and a human being, a baby by the name of Jesus was born who became God's son. Furthermore, according to the Bible, the Holy Ghost always descended in the form of a DOVE, so what this means in reality is that there was a union between a Dove and a woman who gave birth to a baby boy who became God's son, and far as believing in The One Creator! Muslims are not allowed to take other peoples lands and kill them to become the so-called owners by such evil activities! To easily distinguish between the Muslims and the Christians and Jews, is to ask them the name of The One Creator? Only the Muslims know the name of The One Creator who is known as Allâh - none of the others know even His name! This is another way of proving the family-ship of the Jews and their family, the Europeans! Another undisputed characteristic is the taking of usury which is totally forbidden in Islâm. Both Christians and Jews base their monetary system on taking money from other people, which they did not earn, but call it interest and usury! This is one of the worse evils of the Christians and Jews! However, this is their main trade mark in order to establish their family connections!

This brief exposé is enough to disprove the false claim of the illegitimate nation of the Jews to the land of Palestine through the man-made Torah. It is high time that the Christian world opened its eyes to this fact then who became God according to some Christian sects! What a nice fable! When one observes the type of children's films that are made one can see the indoctrination is done from an early age to make children believe in nonsense-e.g.- Animals like rats, donkeys, pigs, rabbits, elephants, dogs, birds, etc talking. This is done to subtly brainwash them into accepting 'miracles' that appear in the Bible like Balaam talking to his donkey [Numbers 22: 27/30], a ghost becoming a dove- Luke: 3:22 -"And the Holy Ghost descended in a bodily shape like a dove upon him, and a voice came from heaven, which said, Thou art my beloved Son; in thee I am well pleased." Matthew: 3:16- "And Jesus, when he was baptized, went up straightway out of the water: and, lo, the heavens were opened unto him, and he saw the Spirit of God descending like a dove, and lighting upon him." Devils entering into swine: Luke 8/33 & Mark: 5:12- "And all the devils besought him, saying, send us into the swine, that we may enter into them." Jesus turning water into wine- John 4:46: "So Jesus came again into Cana of Galilee, where he made the water wine." And bringing the dead to life. Matthew 10:8 - "Heal the sick, cleanse the lepers, raise the dead, cast out devils..." It seems the people of those times could actually see with their own eyes physical devils as there are many verses in the Bible relating to devils coming out, or going into something. No wonder so many films have the devil in their stories and people believe and accept them as normal because of the Bible. However, in this process of witnessing devils, the Bible has conferred the title of DEVIL to Jesus as LUCIFER, in Revelation 22/16. (b) The Jews believe they are the 'chosen or special people of God' and all other people are low and likened to animals. Also, the God they worship is their own special God, in other words He is a God for Jews only. What a narrow view of God these illegitimate off spring of the Greeks and Romans have that they believe in a God especially for Jews. This is another fable for children because what they are insinuating is that there must be another [inferior] God who created the other nations.

and embraced truth and justice and to restore the land of Palestine²⁹ to its rightful owners, the Arabs, who are the Palestinians who have suffered so much pain and untold suffering wrongfully at the hands of the Jews and their supporters, the pagan European nations who gave birth to them. And more importantly, to bring back the pure unadulterated teachings of the last prophet of Banī Isrāʾīl, Nabī ʾĪsā, so that on the Day of Judgement they will not be held accountable for leading the people astray³⁰.

“Whenever we read the obscene stories, the voluptuous debaucheries, the cruel and tortuous executions, the unrelenting vindictiveness with which more than half the Bible is filled, it would be more consistent that we call it the word of a demon than the word of God. It is a history of wickedness that has served to corrupt and brutalize humankind.” Thomas Paine

The historical facts about the Jewish population in different countries before 1940 were never more than about twenty to thirty thousand people in one country! The main reason as to why they were always so few during the early periods were due to the fact that they married only amongst themselves, and so the genes was very weak, which lead to many dying as a result of this bad selfish-Jewish habit! One must realize that they would have been wiped out as a people, if it was not for the Muslims that had mercy for them. They guided them by informing them that they must start marrying other people or they will destroy themselves. This guidance saved them otherwise they would have become extinct.

Muslims in times gone by were colonised by the Christian nations, yet lived in harmony with civilised human beings and with the Jews, in spite of the fact that they are the descendants of the Barbarian pagan Europeans. One can see from what they have done and are still doing with 29 : Palestine was originally known as part of the Arabian Peninsula.

30 : (1) A.G. Qurʾān: 16:25 : “That they may bear their burdens in full on the day of Resurrection, and also of the burdens of those whom they lead astray without knowledge. Ah! Evil is what they bear.” (2) A.G. Qurʾān: 17:15 : “Whoever goes aright, for his own soul does he go aright; and whoever goes astray, to its detriment only does he go astray. And no bearer of a burden can bear the burden of another. Nor do We chastise until We raise a messenger.”

the Palestinians and with other peoples in the world, that they have actually become worse, which proves and supports the most well accepted reason, that their own actions forced what happened to them in Germany.

The book 'Jewish History, Jewish Religion' by Prof. Israel Shahak further brings out the truth of what has been said thus far!

A very important observation made by Gore Vidal is the following:

"...I will say that the hasty invention of Israel has poisoned the political and intellectual life of the USA ... because no other minority in American history has ever hijacked so much money from the American taxpayers in order to invest in a 'homeland'. (The meaning of a homeland is best understood if an effortless investigation is done about the barbaric Apartheid regime in South Africa) It is as if the American taxpayer had been obliged to support the Pope in his re-conquest of the Papal States simply because one third of our people are Roman Catholic. Had this been attempted, there would have been a great uproar and Congress would have said no. But a religious minority of less than two per cent has bought or intimidated seventy senators (the necessary two thirds to overcome an unlikely presidential veto) while enjoying support of the media." (Foreword to the Book: 'Jewish History, Jewish Religion' by Professor Israel Shahak)

Read again and ponder deeply on the words: 'the hasty invention of Israel', which lends support to our reasoning that the discovery of the Dead Sea Scrolls and the creation of the illegitimate state of Israel in haste, and the midnight recognition by the USA's President Harry Truman are perfectly correct!

In simple words what Gore Vidal actually means is that the Roman Catholic Church, though that it supposed to have been the greatest driving force in the United States of America, and that the majority of the vast population which run into hundreds of millions are ardent followers of the Church, yet they were like millions of small sick ignorant monkeys against the most powerful handful of about thirty thousand Jews of America that made all of them to submit to their demands! To prove that the deduction is correct I again quote Gore Vidal:

“In 1948, Harry S. Truman had been pretty much abandoned by everyone when he came to run for president. Then an American Zionist brought him two million dollars in cash, in a suitcase, aboard his whistle-stop campaign train.” (Ibid)

Let me translate this powerful evidence into layman’s language. What he means is that the Christian forces in the United States of America were made bankrupt by the most powerful destroyer of the evil colonialism, the Saviour of the people of colour, Adolf Hitler the great, though himself a Christian, just as the decent truthful historian Israel Shahak was a Jew! When the Dead Sea Scrolls became the bargaining chip, Israel came suddenly into existence-‘the hasty invention of Israel’. Shame on the millions of Christians who could not help their fellow Christian leader to become president. Hooray !- for the American Zionist, the illegitimate offspring of the Greeks and Romans- who bought all the millions of small sick ignorant monkey Christians of the United States of America for a miserable two million dollars, cash in a suit case, from his small change pocket! This he had done in order for them to be the slaves of Israel perpetually! In other words all the denomination of Christians running into hundreds of millions in the United States of America were bought as slaves for the Jews, for a lousy two million dollars! The poor! Harry S. Truman, the Christian Leader of the world, caused his people to become the slaves of the Jews since his presidency till today in the twenty first century! When the president of Israel blows his whistle³¹ in Tel Aviv, the slaves in the United States of America and Europe must run and obey!

The decent Gore Vidal further comments in the foreword:

“...I rather admire the way that the Israel lobby has gone about its business of seeing that billions of dollars, year after year, go to make Israel...” the 31 : More aptly in Bible language: “Wherefore my bowels shall sound like a Harp for Moab, and mine inward parts for Kirharesh.” (Isaiah 16:11) This passage refers to the flatulent passing of gas in musical fashion from the bowels of a prophet. When the Prime Minister of Israel passes wind then the USA President has to run and obey his master!

masters of the Christian world! To substantiate the power of the Jews against a supposed Godly guided person called the Pope, the world has witnessed the truthful courageous Roman Catholic Bishop, Richard Williamson who must have understood that he was guided to tell the truth by the Holy Ghost, and that he believed he followed and submitted to the guidance of the many previously guided Popes! So, the so-called guided Pope reinstated Bishop Richard Williamson, not taking into account the Masters of Christians, the most powerful Jews, who put their God (God's son), Jesus onto the Cross and killed him according to their belief! The Pope was under the impression that he was the Supreme ruler of the Catholic Church! After all he was chosen by the Cardinals who were assisted by the Holy Ghost! He must have had some notion that what he is doing is also supported by God, but not realising that his "God" could not save him from the powerful Jews, just as his Christian "God" could not save his only begotten Son from being killed on their Cross³²! Alas! Alas! The all-dangerous powerful onslaught of the Jews forced the Pope's "God" to be disgraced by a handful of Jews, and more than a billion stupid Catholic followers could only look in shame at what the Jews have done with their "God-guided" Master (the Pope)! Thanks to that American Zionist who bought the whole of the Christian American people through their President for all time at a time when a dollar was worth only five South African shillings!

The next masterful observation by Gore Vidal is the following:

"Meanwhile, the misinformation about what is going on in the Middle East has got even greater and the principal victim of these gaudy lies - the American taxpayer to one side - is American Jewry, as it is constantly bullied by such professional terrorists as Begin and Shamir. Worse, with a few honorable exceptions, Jewish-American intellectuals abandoned liberalism for a series of demented alliances with the Christian (anti-Semitic) right and with the Pentagon-industrial complex." (Ibid)

32 : According to the Jewish Torah, they crucified the God of the Christians – Jesus – because he was 'accursed' and had to be killed, so they carried out the crucifixion. Ref: Deut 21:23: "for he that is hanged is accursed of God...."

What the great observer is revealing is that the world's Christians are not people guided by God! If they were religiously guided people, then it would not have been possible to be misled by those whom Gore Vidal calls 'professional terrorists as Begin and Shamir' - this function has become a trade mark of the Jews as revealed by Israel Shahak further on in his great book!

Another frank observation by Gore Vidal is the following:

"Fortunately, the voice of reason is alive and well, and in Israel, of all places. From Jerusalem, Israel Shahak never ceases to analyse not only the dismal politics of Israel today but the Talmud itself, and the effect of the entire rabbinical tradition on a small state that the right-wing rabbinate means to turn into a theocracy for Jews only. I have been reading Shahak for years. He has a satirist's eye for the confusions to be found in any religion that tries to rationalise the irrational. He has a scholar's sharp eye for textual contradictions. He is a joy to read on the great Gentile-hating Dr Maimonides." (Ibid)

In the light of what was done by the Jews with the Pope as said above, the situation becomes even more shocking! One must understand that the Bible which includes the Old Testament, which the Jews are also using, means that they actually do not respect it to be divine information! The history of the Old Testament irrespective how one translates it brings home the fact its main ingredients was created by the Christians. Let me give supporting evidence in order to understand the facts:

John William Draper states in Chapter 2 page 31 of his book, 'A History of the Intellectual Development of Europe' 2nd Edition, 1864:

"...The rapes³³ of Europe and Helen, of the abduction of woman. The dinner in which Itys was served up assures us that cannibalism was practiced; the threat of Laomedon that he would sell Poseidon and Apollo for slaves shows how compulsory labor might be obtained. The polygamy of many heroes often appears in its worst form under 33 : These types of atrocities are even today committed by these Christian nations. Remember what the Christian Serbs did to the Muslim Bosnians in the 1990's?

the practice of sister-marriage, a crime indulged in from the King of Olympus downward. Upon the whole, then, we must admit that Greek mythology indicates a barbaric social state, man-stealing, piracy, human sacrifice, polygamy, cannibalism, and crimes of revenge that are unmentionable."

Understanding the European culture as revealed by Draper, which forms the basis of Biblical guidance as extracted from the European culture, and which has not been fully abolished, in spite of the fact that the Muslims tried for eight hundred years to change them, and could not succeed as the innate culture is too deep rooted. In support of my claim I present the present day guidance of the Holy Bible:

Eating of human dung and drinking of piss as stated in the Bible:

“ And thou shalt eat it as barley cakes, and thou shalt bake it with dung that cometh out of man, in their sight. And the LORD said, Even thus shall the children of Israel eat their defiled bread among the Gentiles, whither I will drive them.” (Ezekiel 4:12-13)

“ But Rabshakeh said unto them, Hath my master sent me to thy master, and to thee, to speak these words? hath he not sent me to the men which sit on the wall, that they may eat their own dung, and drink their own piss with you?” (II Kings 18:27)

Cannibalism:

“ And the king said unto her, What aileth thee?” And she answered, “This woman said unto me, Give thy son, that we may eat him to day, and we will eat my son tomorrow. So we boiled my son, and did eat him: and I said unto her on the next day, Give thy son, that we may eat him: and she hath hid her son....” (II Kings 6:28-29)

Slavery:

“ Leviticus: 25:44: “Both thy bondmen, and thy bondmaids, which thou shalt have, shall be of the heathen that are round about you; of them shall ye buy bondmen and bondmaids.”

Crimes of revenge that are horrific:

“Hosea: 13:16: “Samaria shall become desolate; for she hath rebelled against her God: they shall fall by the sword: their infants shall be dashed in pieces, and their women with child shall be ripped up.” [Remember Gaza in December 2008, and the T-shirts proudly depicting these crimes?]

Human Sacrifice:

“Thou shalt not delay to offer the first of thy ripe fruits, and of thy liquors: the firstborn of thy sons shalt thou give unto me.” (Exodus 22:29)

These are only a few of the verses that bring out the fact that what Draper has revealed, somehow, the cultural habits of the barbarians found its way into the Holy Bible. In simple words, the cultural habits as expounded by Draper still forms the basis of the present day Christian and Jewish people’s life-style!

Consequently, the Pope derives his understanding from the very same³⁴ book! The so-called Jewish believers also derive their understanding from the same book! I do understand that the Zionists do not believe in God as claimed by many Jews – that does not mean that they developed a new culture! However, what they did with the Pope reveals that the Zionists do not respect the Christian’s belief nor do they respect the so-called “believing Jews of Israel”! What makes matters worse is the fact that the Christians of the world condone the disrespect of the Zionists for the religious status of the Christians in the world! But never mind them, the Zionists by their very actions have condemned the Bible as a whole, which no Christian seems able to refute or even defend even with all the 24,000 manuscripts the Vatican has in its possession!

What Israel Shahak has done by revealing that the state of ‘the dismal politics of Israel today but the Talmud itself, and the effect of the entire rabbinical tradition on a small state that the right-wing rabbinate means to turn into a theocracy for Jews only' means that the Zionists actually supports the accusation that their actions against the Pope was as a result of the modus operandi of the Zionist state and the condemnation of any other people's theocracy! The following report brings out the truth of the Jewish belief system, and what it considers others , including Christians to be:

“I had personally witnessed an ultra-religious Jew refuse to allow his phone to be used on the Sabbath in order to call an ambulance for a non-Jew who happened to have collapsed in his Jerusalem neighbourhood. Instead of simply publishing the incident in the press, I asked for a meeting which is composed of rabbis nominated by the State of Israel. I asked them whether such behaviour was consistent with their interpretation of the Jewish religion. They answered that the Jew in question had behaved correctly, indeed piously, and backed their statement by referring me to a passage in an authoritative compendium of Talmudic laws, written in this century³⁵. I reported the incident to the main Hebrew daily, Ha'aretz, whose publication of the story caused a media scandal. The results of the scandal were, for me, rather negative. Neither the Israeli, nor the diaspora, rabbinical authorities ever reversed their ruling that a Jew should not violate the Sabbath in order to save the life of a Gentile.” (Chapter 1 of Jewish History, Jewish Religion by Israel Shahak)

No Christian Gentile in the world can claim that they do not know about what the Jewish religion (in the authoritative compendium of Talmudic laws) commands of its followers to meet out to them! If most do not know then surely the Crusaders George W. Bush and his father and his informers knew! But do they give it any thought or are they even concerned about the Christians and Christianity as a whole? The Jews are dangerous, but taking all the world's Christians denominations together, and their Pope can they not do something? Do they all accept that Christian Gentiles are rubbish? Do they enjoy and are happy with the treatment given to them by the Jews?

35 : Kindly note: 'Written in this century' - i.e. - 20th Century! Not at the time of Moses whom they claim to follow, but in this century, which means that they are continually adding or deleting their Holy Books as it pleases them. Refer again to: Arabic Glorious Qur'ân - Ch. 2: v. 79:

On the other hand the self-righteous Jews claim:

“They added much sanctimonious twaddle to the effect that if the consequence of such an act puts Jews in danger, the violation of the Sabbath is permitted, for their sake.” (Chapter 1 of Jewish History, Jewish Religion by Israel Shahak)

In other words only Jews are human beings, according to the authoritative compendium of Talmudic laws! Israel Shahak makes the following indirect warning:

“It became apparent to me, as drawing on Talmudic laws governing the relations between Jews and non-Jews, that neither Zionism, including its seemingly secular part, nor Israeli politics since the inception of the State of Israel, nor particularly the policies of the Jewish supporters of Israel in the diaspora, could be understood unless the deeper influence of those laws, and the worldview which they both create and express is taken into account. The actual policies Israel pursued after the Six Day War, and in particular the apartheid character of the Israeli regime in the Occupied Territories and the attitude of the majority of Jews to the issue of the rights of the Palestinians, even in the abstract, have merely strengthened this conviction.” (Chapter 1 of Jewish History, Jewish Religion by Israel Shahak)

In other words, it appears that the Jews do not really believe the Bible as they believe in their self-made Talmudic laws! In other words the Jews have developed into a monstrous evil people in the world! This fact is brought out by them using cluster bombs, chemical poison, and phosphorous bombs in their weapons against defenceless people! Killing of children became their main target in their barbaric wars! Is it not strange that Israel Shahak detected the Jewish ‘apartheid character of the Israeli regime’ which is also brought out by the Israeli manner of killing people, like in the time of the apartheid South Africa? This is one of the effects of being an illegitimate offspring that came into existence through raping! The evil genes are evident! Another important observation about the political state of the Jews:

“Any form of racism, discrimination and xenophobia becomes more potent and politically influential if it is taken for granted by the society which indulges in it.” (Chapter 1 of Jewish History, Jewish Religion by Israel Shahak)

In the effort to become part of the human race, which of course the Jews have failed to become, is mostly due to their discrimination and xenophobia attitude! We think the reason for their xenophobia attitude is mainly because by the fact that they know that their fathers have rejected them, which made them a nation-less people and this in turn created bitter hatred for everything non Jewish!

Israel Shahak has summed up the Jewish real situation:

“This is especially so if its discussion is prohibited, either formally or by tacit agreement. When racism, discrimination and xenophobia are prevalent among Jews, and directed against non-Jews, being fuelled by religious motivations, it is like its opposite case, that of anti-Semitism and its religious motivations. Today, however, while the second is being discussed, the very existence of the first is generally ignored, more outside Israel than within it.” (Chapter 1 of Jewish History, Jewish Religion by Israel Shahak)

The Jewish hatred for Christians has become so great that its religion has been degraded by the Jewish movie industries, so much so that it has become a joke that even Christians themselves began to abandon their religion in droves! One will notice that most of the films have such types of violence and insane type of killings it is mind boggling. Sex out of wedlock is portrayed as good. Women are treated worse than animals by parading around almost nude in adverts and nude in films.

“A shameless woman shall be counted as a dog; but she that is shamefaced will fear the Lord.” (Eccles.26:25)³⁶

“For from garments cometh a moth, and from women wickedness. Better is the churlishness of a man than a courteous woman, a woman, I say, which bringeth shame and reproach.” (Eccles. 42:13-14)

36:It is well known that most of the film makers in Hollywood are Jews. They have made the Christian women into ‘shameless dogs’ in the films they produce.

“Give me any plague, but the plague of the heart: and any wickedness, but the wickedness of a woman.” (Eccles. 25:13)

The following indirect appeal for justice, says at the same time that the Jews do not love peace nor do they respect other people in the world. In another way one should understand the appeal as a warning to other people, especially the Muslim neighbours of the illegal Jewish apartheid Homeland to mobilise themselves against the Jews – nay, every Muslim in the world must begin to mobilise themselves to free the Muslim world of the Jewish thralldom:

“Without a discussion of the prevalent Jewish attitudes to non-Jews, even the concept of Israel as ‘a Jewish state’, as Israel formally defines itself, cannot be understood. The widespread misconception that Israel, even without considering its regime in the Occupied Territories, is a true democracy arises from the refusal to confront the significance of the term ‘a Jewish state’ for non-Jews. In my view, Israel as a Jewish state constitutes a danger not only to itself and its inhabitants, but to all Jews and to all other peoples and states in the Middle East and beyond. I also consider that other Middle Eastern states or entities which define themselves as ‘Arab’ or ‘Muslim’, like the Israeli self-definition as being ‘Jewish’, likewise constitute a danger. However, while this danger is widely discussed, the danger inherent in the Jewish character of the State of Israel is not.” (Ibid)

They have already driven peace loving Muslims to become “suicide-bombers,” which Islâm forbids! In the light of the indiscriminate killings by the Jews, Muslims must find a better effective with greater killing power to stop this dangerous destruction of innocent lives being brutally executed by the illegal Jewish apartheid Homeland! Muslims must begin to understand that their survival depends on their reaction to this dangerous onslaught of Jewish aggression! The slaves of the Jews-the Christians- will attack Muslim countries at the command of the owners – the Jews! Muslims think it is the Christian nations who give the command; nay - they are only the slaves! Muslims must heed the warning made by Israel Shahak, although he was a Jew himself!

Anyone who thinks that what I have said above is wrong, must seriously analyse the following warning by Israel Shahak:

“By this law no party whose programme openly opposes the principle of ‘a Jewish state’ or proposes to change it by democratic means, is allowed to participate in the elections to the Knesset. I myself strongly oppose this constitutional principle. The legal consequence for me is that I cannot belong, in the state of which I am a citizen, to a party having principles with which I would agree and which is allowed to participate in Knesset elections. Even this example shows that the State of Israel is not a democracy due to the application of a Jewish ideology directed against all non-Jews and those Jews who oppose this ideology. But the danger which this dominant ideology represents is not limited to domestic affairs. It also influences Israeli foreign policies. This danger will continue to grow, as long as two currently operating developments are being strengthened: the increase in the Jewish character of Israel and the increase in its power, particularly in nuclear power. Another ominous factor is that Israeli influence in the USA political establishment is also increasing. Hence accurate information about Judaism, and especially about the treatment of non-Jews by Israel, is now not only important, but politically vital as well.” (Ibid)

The warning is so powerful, that I fear that I can forecast that by hook or crook the future suicide-bombers will use the most dangerous ingredients of power known to maximise killing the maximum number of people in the world, as part of their destruction in the illegal Jewish apartheid Homeland and in the Jewish fatherland, the United States of America! This any fool ought to be able to predict! Suicide-bombers have become as if it is part of normal life today, greater killing power seems to be in the pipeline for the future! The Jews are now thirsting for Iranian Blood and are urging their slaves –the Americans, British, German and French to attack Iran. Let us try and discover the reason as to why they are so blood-thirsty people:

“Let me begin with the official Israeli definition of the term ‘Jewish’, illustrating the crucial difference between Israel as ‘a Jewish state’ and the majority of other states. By this official definition, Israel ‘belongs’ to persons who are defined by the Israeli authorities as 'Jewish', irrespective of where they live, and to them alone. On the other hand, Israel doesn't officially 'belong' to its non-Jewish citizens, whose status is considered even officially as inferior. This means in practice that if members of a Peruvian tribe are converted to Judaism, and thus regarded as Jewish, they are entitled at once to become Israeli citizens and benefit from the approximately 70 per cent of the West Bank land (and the 92 per cent of the area of Israel proper), officially designated only for the benefit of Jews. All non-Jews (not only all Palestinians) are prohibited from benefiting from those lands. (The prohibition applies even to Israeli Arabs who served in the Israeli army and reached a high rank.) The case involving Peruvian converts to Judaism actually occurred a few years ago. The newly-created Jews were settled in the West Bank, near Nablus, on land from which non-Jews are officially excluded. All Israeli governments are taking enormous political risks, including the risk of war, so that such settlements, composed exclusively of persons who are defined as 'Jewish' (and not 'Israeli' as most of the media mendaciously claims) would be subject to only 'Jewish' authority." (Ibid)

Looking at the life style it is a known fact that the Christian nations seems not to be God-fearing people, hence they do not mind to kill people indiscriminately! Examples abound as in Iraq, Pakistan, Afghanistan, Somalia etc. However, a Muslim cannot be a Muslim if he or she is not Allâh conscious and fear not His punishment should they violate His commands! Consequently I ask, are the Muslim leaders who condone the evil illegal Apartheid Homeland of the evil "Jewish state", obeying Allâh's commands? Muslims, leaders or ordinary people, even if they are ignorant cannot say that they can condone such an un-Godly people's evil illegal Apartheid Homeland to exist! That is against the Islamic principles!

The answer is given by a decent truthful Jew who has realised the extreme evilness of the Jewish evil illegal Apartheid Homeland, when he composed the following:

"I suspect that the Jews of the USA or of Britain would regard it as anti-Semitic if Christians would propose that the USA or the United Kingdom should become a 'Christian state', belonging only to citizens officially defined as 'Christians'. The consequence of such doctrine is that Jews converting to Christianity would become full citizens because of their conversion. It should be recalled that the benefits of conversions are well known to Jews from their own history. When the Christian and the Islamic states used to discriminate against all persons not belonging to the religion of the state, including the Jews, the discrimination against Jews was at once removed by their conversion. But a non-Jew discriminated against by the State of Israel will cease to be so treated the moment he or she converts to Judaism. This simply shows that the same kind of exclusivity that is regarded by a majority of the diaspora Jews as anti-Semitic is regarded by the majority of all Jews as Jewish. To oppose both anti-Semitism and Jewish chauvinism is widely regarded among Jews as a 'self-hatred', a concept which I regard as nonsensical." (Ibid)

In spite of the fact that a Jew has revealed the Jewish secret, all the Christians Nations of the world are too scared to take up the challenge!

The following Holy Jewish Religious Laws are interesting:

"According to Israeli law a person is considered 'Jewish' if either their mother, grandmother, great-grandmother and great-great-grandmother were Jewesses by religion; or if the person was converted to Judaism in a way satisfactory to the Israeli authorities, and on condition that the person has not converted from Judaism to another religion, in which case Israel ceases to regard them as 'Jewish'. Of the three conditions, the first represents the Talmudic definition of 'who is a Jew', a definition followed by Jewish Orthodoxy. The Talmud and post-Talmudic rabbinic law also recognise the conversion of a non-Jew to Judaism (as well as the purchase of a non-Jewish slave by a Jew followed by a different kind of conversion) as a method of becoming Jewish, provided that the conversion is performed by authorised rabbis in a proper manner. This 'proper manner' entails for females, their inspection by three rabbis while naked in a 'bath of purification', a ritual which, although notorious to all readers of the Hebrew press, is not often mentioned by the English media in spite of its undoubted interest for certain readers. I hope that this book will be the beginning of a process which will rectify this discrepancy."

The challenge for the Christian world is to apply the same conditions for Jews to become citizens of their countries! In South Africa the Apartheid Christians copied some of their Jewish descendants way of life, which formed part of the Apartheid laws which is still practiced in the Jewish evil illegal Apartheid Homeland!

Here follows another Holy Jewish law:

"But there is another urgent necessity for an official definition of who is, and who is not 'Jewish'. The State of Israel officially discriminates in favour of Jews and against non-Jews in many domains of life, of which I regard three as being most important: residency rights, the right to work and the right to equality before the law. Discrimination in residency is based on the fact that about 92 per cent of Israel's land is the property of the state and is administered by the Israel Land Authority according to regulations issued by the Jewish National Fund (JNF), and affiliate of the World Zionist Organization. In its regulations the JNF denies the right to reside, to open a business, and often to work, to anyone who is not Jewish, only because he is not Jewish. At the same time, Jews are not prohibited from taking residence or opening businesses anywhere in Israel. If applied in another state against the Jews, such discriminatory practice would instantly and justifiably be labelled anti-Semitism and would no doubt spark massive public protests. When applied by Israel as a part of its 'Jewish ideology', they are usually studiously ignored or excused when rarely mentioned." (Ibid)

The above is the law of the Jewish God. It is these laws that seem to make the Christians love them! Studying the book 'Jewish History, Jewish Religion' by Professor Israel Shahak, forces one to ask the question, is it sane to regard the Jewish subjects as part of the human race? The life-style as expounded by Jewish law as revealed by Professor Israel Shahak demands that civilised people need to do something to stop this poisonous Jewish contamination of evil activities in the world!

Muslims salute and thank you sincerely Professor Israel Shahak!

Quotes by Jewish Personalities

We now introduce a secular point of view: "The Wandering Who?"

By Gilad Atzmon

02/09/08 "ICH" --University historian, Professor Shlomo Sand, opens his remarkable study of Jewish nationalism quoting Karl W. Deutsch:

*"A nation is a group of people united by a common mistake regarding its origin and a collective hostility towards its neighbours"*³⁷

As simple or even simplistic as it may sound, the quote above eloquently summarises the figment of reality entangled with modern Jewish nationalism and especially within the concept of Jewish identity. It obviously points the finger at the collective mistake Jews tend to make whenever referring to their 'illusionary collective past' and 'collective origin'. Yet, in the same breath, Deutsch's reading of nationalism throws light upon the hostility that is unfortunately coupled with almost every Jewish group towards its surrounding reality, whether it is human or takes the shape of land. While the brutality of the Israelis towards the Palestinians has already become rather common knowledge, the rough treatment Israelis reserve for their 'promised soil' and landscape is just starting to reveal itself. The ecological disaster the Israelis are going to leave behind them will be the cause of suffering for many generations to come. Leave aside the megalomaniac wall that shreds the Holy land into enclaves of deprivation and starvation, Israel has managed to pollute its main rivers and streams with nuclear and chemical waste.

"When And How the Jewish People Was Invented" is a very serious study written by Professor Shlomo Sand, an Israeli historian. It is the most serious study of Jewish nationalism and by far, the most courageous elaboration on the Jewish historical narrative.

In his book, Sand manages to prove beyond any reasonable doubt that the Jewish people never existed as a 'nation-race', they never shared a common origin. Instead they are a colourful mix of groups that at various stages in history adopted the Jewish religion.

37 : 'When And How The Jewish People Was Invented?' by Shlomo Sand, Resling 2008, pg 11

In case you follow Sand's line of thinking and happen to ask yourself, "when was the Jewish People invented?" Sand's answer is rather simple. "At a certain stage in the 19th century, intellectuals of Jewish origin in Germany, influenced by the folk character of German nationalism, took upon themselves the task of inventing a people 'retrospectively,' out of a thirst to create a modern Jewish people."³⁸

Accordingly, the 'Jewish people' is a 'made up' notion consisting of a fictional and imaginary past with very little to back it up forensically, historically or textually. Furthermore, Sand - who elaborated on early sources of antiquity - comes to the conclusion that Jewish exile is also a myth, and that the present-day Palestinians are far more likely to be the descendants of the ancient Semitic people in Judea/Canaan than the current predominantly Khazarian-origin Ashkenazi crowd to which he himself admittedly belongs. Khalid Amayreh and many others regard the Jews as the "Nazis of our time". Astonishingly enough, in spite of the fact that Sand manages to dismantle the notion of 'Jewish people', crush the notion of 'Jewish collective past' and ridicule the Jewish chauvinist national impetus, his book is a best seller in Israel. This fact alone may suggest that those who call themselves 'people of the book' are now starting to learn about the misleading and devastating philosophies and ideologies that made them into the worst kind of human beings.

There Is No Jewish History

It is an established fact that not a single Jewish history text had been written between the 1st century and early 19th century.

The New Israelite, the Bible and Archaeology

In Palestine, the new Jews and later the Israelis were determined to recruit³⁹ the Old Testament and to transform it into the amalgamate code of the future Jew. The 'nationalisation' of the Bible was there to plant in young Jews the idea that they are the direct followers of their great ancient ancestors. Bearing in mind the fact that nationalisation was largely a secular movement; the Bible was stripped of its spiritual and religious meaning.

38: For the full article go to: <http://www.haaretz.com/hasen/spages/966952.html>

39 : In other words to exploit their Holy man made Torah for untruthful ends.

Instead, it was viewed as an historical text describing a real chain of events in the past. The Jews who had now managed to kill their God learned to believe in themselves. Massada, Samson and Bar Kochva became suicidal master narratives. In the light of their heroic ancestors, Jews learned to love themselves as much as they hate others, except that this time they possessed the military might to inflict real pain on their neighbours. More concerning was the fact that instead of a supernatural entity - namely God - who command them to invade the land and execute a genocide and to rob their 'promised land' of its indigenous habitants, within their national revival project it was them as themselves, Herzl, Jabotinsky, Weitzman, Ben Gurion, Sharon, Peres, Barak who decided to expel, destroy and kill. Instead of God, it was then the Jews killing in the name of Jewish people. They are doing it while holy Jewish symbols decorate their planes and tanks.

Surprisingly enough, Sand who is no doubt a striking scholar, fails to mention that the Zionist hijacking of the Bible was in fact a desperate Jewish answer to German Early Romanticism.

German intellectuals during the 19th century were also fully aware of the distinction between Athens and Jerusalem. For them, Athens stood for universal, the epic chapter of humanity and humanism. Jerusalem was, on the contrary, the grand chapter of tribal barbarism. Jerusalem was a representation of the banal, non-universal, monotheistic merciless God, the one who kills the elder and the infant.

In their effort to resurrect 'Jerusalem', archaeology was recruited to provide the Zionist epos with its necessary 'scientific' ground. Archaeology was there to unify the Biblical time with the moment of revival. Probably the most astonishing moment of this bizarre trend was the 1982 'military burial ceremony' of the bones of Shimon Bar Kochva, a Jew rebel who died 2000 years earlier. Executed by the chief military Rabbi, a televised military burial was given to some sporadic bones found in a cave near the Dead Sea. In practice suspected remains of a 1st century Jew rebel was treated as an IDF casualty. Clearly, archaeology had a national role; it was recruited to cement the past and the present while leaving the Galut out.

Astonishingly enough, it didn't take long before things turned the other way around. As archaeological research become more and more independent of the Zionist dogma, the embarrassing truth filtered out. It would be impossible to ground the truthfulness of the Biblical tale on forensic facts. If anything, archaeology refutes the historicity of the Biblical plot. Excavation revealed the embarrassing fact. The Bible is a collection of innovative fictitious literature.

As Sand points out, the Early Biblical story is soaked with Philistines, Aramaeans and camels. Embarrassingly enough, as far as excavations are there to enlighten us, Philistine didn't appear in the region before the 12th century BC, the Aramaeans appears a century later and camels didn't show their cheerful faces before the 8th century. These scientific facts lead Zionist researchers into some severe confusion. However, for non-Jewish scholars such as Thomas Thompson, it was rather clear that the Biblical is a "late collection of innovative literature written by a gifted theologian."⁴⁰ The Bible appears to be an ideological text that was there to serve a social and political cause. Embarrassingly enough, not much was found in Sinai to prove the story of the legendary Egyptian Exodus, seemingly 3 million Hebraic men, women and children were marching in the desert for 40 years without leaving a thing behind. Not even a single matzo ball, very non-Jewish one may say.

The story of the Biblical resettlement and the genocide of the Canaanite which the contemporary Israelite imitates to such success is another myth. Jericho, the guarded city that was flattened to the sounds of horns and almighty supernatural intervention was just a tiny village during the 13th century BC. As much as Israel regards itself as the resurrection of the monumental Kingdom of David and Solomon, excavation that took place in the Old City of Jerusalem in the 1970's revealed that David's kingdom was no more than a tiny tribal setting. Evidence that was referred by Yigal Yadin to King Solomon had been refuted later by forensic tests made with Carbon 14. The discomfoting fact has been scientifically established. The Bible is a fictional tale, and not much there can ground any glorifying existence of Hebraic people in Palestine at any stage.

Who invented the Jews?

Though most contemporary Jews are utterly convinced that their ancestors are the Biblical Israelites who happened to be exiled brutally by the Romans, truth must be said. Contemporary Jews have nothing to do with ancient Israelites, who have never been sent to exile because such an expulsion has never taken place. The Roman Exile is just another Jewish myth.

“I started looking in research studies about the exile from the land” says Sand in a Haaretz interview,⁴¹ “but to my astonishment I discovered that it has no literature. The reason is that no one exiled the people of the country. The Romans did not exile peoples and they could not have done so even if they had wanted to. They did not have trains and trucks to deport entire populations. That kind of logistics did not exist until the 20th century. From this, in effect, the whole book was born: in the realization that Judaic society was not dispersed and was not exiled.”

Indeed, in the light of Sand’s simple insight, the idea of Jewish exile is amusing. The thought of Roman Imperial navy was working 24/7 schlepping Moishe’le and Yanka’le to Cordova and Toledo may help Jews to feel important as well as schleppable, but common sense would suggest that the Roman armada had far more important things to do.

However, far more interesting is the logical outcome: If the people of Israel were not expelled, then the real descendants of the inhabitants of the Kingdom of Judah must be the Palestinians.

“No population remains pure over a period of thousands of years” says Sand.⁴² “But the chances that the Palestinians are descendants of the ancient Judaic people are much greater than the chances that you or I are its descendents. The first Zionists, up until the Arab Revolt [1936-9], knew that there had been no exiling, and that the Palestinians were descended from the inhabitants of the land. They knew that farmers don't leave until they are expelled. Even Yitzhak Ben-Zvi, the second president of the State of Israel, wrote in 1929 that, 'the vast majority of the peasant farmers do not have their origins in the Arab conquerors, but rather, before then, in the Jewish farmers who were numerous and a majority in the building of the land.'"

41 : <http://www.haaretz.com/hasen/spages/966952.html>

One may wonder if the Palestinians are the real Jews, who are those who insist upon calling themselves Jews?

Sand's answer is rather simple, yet it makes a lot of sense. "The people did not spread, but the Jewish religion spread. Judaism was a converting religion. Contrary to popular opinion, in early Judaism there was a great thirst to convert others."⁴³ The Jews of Spain, whom we believed to be blood related to the Early Israelites seem to be converted Berbers. "I asked myself," says Sand, "how such large Jewish communities appeared in Spain. And then I saw that Tariq ibn Ziyad, the supreme commander of the Muslims who conquered Spain, was a Berber, and most of his soldiers were Berbers. Dahia al-Kahina's Jewish Berber Kingdom had been defeated only 15 years earlier."

As one would expect, Sand approves the largely accepted assumption that the Judaicised Khazars constituted the main origins of the Jewish communities in Eastern Europe, which he calls the Yiddish Nation. When asked how come they happen to speak Yiddish, which is largely regarded as a German medieval dialect, he answers, "the Jews were a class of people dependent on the German bourgeoisie in the east, and thus they adopted German words."

What Next?

Professor Sand leaves us with the inevitable conclusion. Contemporary Jews do not have a common origin and their Semitic origin is a myth. Jews have no origin in Palestine whatsoever and therefore, their act of so-called 'return' to their 'promised land' must be realised as an invasion executed by a tribal-ideological clan.

43 : Ibid.

Sand is no doubt a major intellectual, probably the most advanced leftist Israeli thinker. He represents the highest form of thought a secular Israeli can achieve before flipping over or even defecting to the Palestinian side (something that happened to just a few, me included). Haaretz interviewer Ofri Ilani said about Sand that unlike other 'new historians' who have tried to undermine the assumptions of Zionist historiography, "Sand does not content himself with going back to 1948 or to the beginnings of Zionism, but rather goes back thousands of years." This is indeed the case, unlike the 'new historians' who 'unveil' a truth that is known to every Palestinian toddler i.e., the truth of being ethnically cleansed, Sand erects a body of work and thought that is aiming at the understanding of the meaning of Jewish nationalism and Jewish identity. This is indeed the true essence of scholarship. Rather than collecting some sporadic historical fragments, Sand searches for the meaning of history. Rather than a 'new historian' who searches for a new fragment, he is a real historian motivated by a humanist task. Most crucially, unlike some of the Jewish historians who happen to contribute to the so-called left discourse, Sand's credibility and success is grounded on his argument rather than his family background. He avoids peppering his argument with his holocaust survivor relatives. Reading Sand's ferocious argument, one may have to admit that Zionism in all its faults has managed to erect within itself a proud and autonomous dissident discourse that is far more eloquent and brutal than the entire anti-Zionist movement around the world.

If Sand is correct, and I myself am convinced by the strength of his argument, then Jews are not a race but rather a collective of very many people who are largely hijacked by a late phantasmic national movement. If Jews are not a race, do not form a racial continuum and have nothing to do with Semitism, then 'anti-Semitism' is, categorically, an empty signifier. It obviously refers to a signifier that doesn't exist. In other words, our criticism of Jewish nationalism, Jewish lobbying and Jewish power can only be realised as a legitimate critique of ideology and practice.

Once again I may say that we are not and have never been against Jews (the people) neither are we against Judaism (the religion). Yet, we are against a collective philosophy with some clear global interests. Some would like to call it Zionism but I prefer not to. Zionism is a vague signifier that is far too narrow to capture the complexity of Jewish nationalism, its brutality, ideology and practice.

As far as the Palestinian cause is concerned, the message is rather devastating. Our Palestinian brothers and sisters are at the forefront of a struggle against a very devastating philosophy. Yet, it is clearly not just the Israelis whom they fight with rather a fierce pragmatic philosophy that initiates global conflicts on some gigantic scale. It is a tribal practice that seeks influence within corridors of power and super powers in particular. The American Jewish Committee is pushing for a war against Iran. Just to be on the safe side David Abrahams, a 'Labour Friend of Israel' donates money to the Labour Party by proxy. More or less at the same time two million Iraqis die in an illegal war designed by one called Wolfowitz. While all the above is taking place, millions of Palestinians are starved in concentration camps and Gaza is on the brink of a humanitarian crisis. As it all happens, 'anti-Zionist' Jews and Jews in the left (Chomsky included) insist upon dismantling the eloquent criticism of AIPAC, Jewish lobbying and Jewish power posed by Mearsheimer and Walt.⁴⁴

Is it just Israel? Is it really Zionism? Or shall we admit that it is something far greater than we are entitled even to contemplate within the intellectual boundaries we imposed upon ourselves? As things stand, we lack the intellectual courage to confront the Jewish national project and its many messengers around the world. However, since it is all a matter of consciousness-shift, things are going to change soon. In fact, this very text is there to prove that they are changing already.

To stand by the Palestinians is to save the world, but in order to do so we have to be courageous enough to stand up and admit that it is not merely a political battle. It is not just Israel, its army or its leadership; it isn't even Dershowitz, Foxman and their silencing leagues. It is actually a war against a cancerous spirit that hijacked the West and, at least momentarily, diverted it from its humanist inclination and Athenian aspirations. To fight a spirit is far more difficult than fighting people, just because one may have to first fight its traces within oneself. If we want to fight Jerusalem, we may have to first confront Jerusalem within. We may have to stand in front of the mirror, look around us. We may have to trace for empathy in ourselves in case there is anything left.

What Jesus said about the Jews according to the New Testament! "The Children of the Devil"

John 8: 42 Jesus said to them, "If God were your Father, you would love me, for I came from God and now am here. I have not come on my own; but he sent me. 43Why is my language not clear to you? Because you are unable to hear what I say. 44You belong to your father, the devil, and you want to carry out your father's desire. He was a murderer from the beginning, not holding to the truth, for there is no truth in him. When he lies, he speaks his native language, for he is a liar and the father of lies. 45Yet because I tell the truth, you do not believe me! 46Can any of you prove me guilty of sin? If I am telling the truth, why don't you believe me? 47He who belongs to God hears what God says. The reason you do not hear is that you do not belong to God."

See Jesus' warning in Matt. 23:38: "Behold, your house is left unto you desolate," and Luke 21:24: "And Jerusalem shall be trodden down of the Gentiles," and various other like references. The Psalms are also replete with warnings.

The Claims of Jesus About Himself

JOHN 8:48 The Jews answered him, "Aren't we right in saying that you are a Samaritan and demon-possessed?" 49 "I am not possessed by a demon," said Jesus, "but I honor my Father and you dishonor me. 50 I am not seeking glory for myself; but there is one who seeks it, and he is the judge. 51 I tell you the truth, if anyone keeps my word, he will never see death." 52 At this the Jews exclaimed, "Now we know that you are demon-possessed!"

There are a few important points emerging from the above quotation. The first is that although it is a known fact that his name was not Jesus, which is a Greek name given to the last Isrâ'îlite Prophet. However, the second point is that the last Isrâ'îlite Prophet was not a Jew! The words: "If God were your Father, you would love me, for I came from God and now am here. I have not come on my own; but he sent me..." brings out the fact that those to whom he was speaking to were not from where he came. This means that he was not a Jew! The last Isrâ'îlite Prophet qualifies it by stating: "You belong to your father, the devil" which clearly indicates that the Jews are evil people! The last Isrâ'îlite Prophet also brings out their activities in the world by stating: "...you want to carry out your father's desire. He was a murderer from the beginning, not holding to the truth, for there is no truth in him. When he lies, he speaks his native language, for he is a liar and the father of lies..." in a nut-shell the last Isrâ'îlite Prophet made clear what one can expect from the Jews! No one has hit the Jews as hard as these words: "The reason you (Jews) do not hear is that you (Jews) do not belong to God." The last Isrâ'îlite Prophet was attacked by the Jews in the following words: "The Jews answered him, "Aren't we right in saying that you are a Samaritan and demon-possessed?" One could clearly see that great hatred existed between the last Isrâ'îlite Prophet and the Jews!

ST. JOHN, Gospel of St. John VII: 1

"After these things Jesus walked in Galilee: for he would not walk in Jewry because the Jews sought to kill him."

QUOTES BY POPES; STATEMENTS BY THE HOLY POPES THAT SEEMS TO HAVE BEEN WELL GUIDED:

GREGORY VIII. (1187) Forbade Jews to have power over Christians, in a letter to Alfonso VI of Castile.

GREGORY IX. (1227-1241). Condemned the TALMUD as containing “every kind of vileness and blasphemy against Christian doctrine.”

JULIUS III. Contra Hebreos retinentes libros (1554) ordered the TALMUD burned “everywhere” and established a strict censorship over Jewish genocidal writings - an order that has never been rescinded and which presumably is still binding upon Catholics. Was a powerful condemnation of Jewish usury? It embodies a model legal code to curb Jewish power that was recommended to all communities.

PIUS IV. Condemned Jewish genocidal writings.

PIUS V. Hebraeorum gens (1569) expelled all Jews from the Papal States.

GREGORY XIII. Declared that Jews “continue to plot horrible crimes” against Christians “with daily increasing audacity.”

POPE CLEMENT VIII (1592-1605)

“All people of the world suffer from the usury of the Jews, their monopolies and deceit. They have brought many unfortunate people into a state of poverty, especially the farmers, working class people and the very poor. Then as now Jews have to be reminded intermittently anew that they were enjoying rights in any country since they left Palestine and the Arabian Desert, and subsequently their ethical and moral doctrines as well as their deeds rightly deserve to be exposed to criticism in whatever country they happen to live.”

BENEDICT XV. Warned in 1920 against “the advent of a Universal Republic, which is longed for by all the worst elements of disorder.”

This is resented by some Jews because of their active sponsorship and direction of such projects as the League of Nations and United Nations. -

And in effect, all Popes who have issued editions of the Index Expurgatorius, in which Jewish genocidal and anti-Christian writings are condemned, according to the instructions of the Council of Trent.

(b). "They think they're bringing heaven, but actually they are messengers of the devil." (Israeli Prime Minister, Shimon Peres, talking about Orthodox Jewish Rabbis on CNN, November 14, 1995)

<http://www.stormfront.org/jewish/antisemite.html> !

The Jews are the only people in the world who have found hostility in every country in which they settled in any numbers. The big question is - WHY?

Today it is taught in the schools that "Anti-Semitism" began in Germany in the 1930s after which they were deported. What is not studied is the fact that at one time or other the Jews have been expelled from every nation in Europe! When the Jews first began to immigrate to America the early colonialists in New York, Charleston and Savannah tried to ban their entry. Benjamin Franklin pleaded with the members of the Continental Congress to enter a specific ban against Jewish immigration into the U. S. Constitution to bar them for all time to come.

The Jews claim that they are "only" a religion. The truth is that the Jews are a RACE. Less than 30% are members of any Synagogue. Whether they are Orthodox religious, atheists, capitalists or communists - they still claim to be Jews - members of the Jewish race! Every race has inherited traits. In the case of the Jews they include trading, money-changing, usury, and a loathing for "productive labour" which is scorned as beneath the dignity of the Jews in their "bible" called "THE TALMUD." The Jews have not changed since the days when Jesus Christ took up a whip and drove "the money changers out of the Temple." Jews have always united to form monopolies. Today they control all the department store chains and speciality shops along with the lucrative jewellery and animal fur trade. Jews dominate the fields of all precious metals such as diamonds, gold, silver, platinum, tin, lead, etc. They will always ban together to drive Gentile competitors out of business.

Today America is being flooded with Jewish immigrants from Russia and even 20,000 per year leave Israel for the U. S. - all with dollar signs in their eyes. Jews have used their vaunted money-power to seize control of the Democratic Party and constitute over 50% of all its financial contributions. Today they are buying up more and more major U. S. companies. While only 3% of the population, the Jews control over 25% of the nation's wealth and this percentage rises every year. They are the only racial group totally organized to work for political domination over America.

Opposition to the Jews did not begin in Germany but dates back before the birth of Christ over 2,000 years ago! Study the statements made by "The world's greatest men." They reveal why the "wandering Jews" have made enemies out of every host country that ever accepted them."

QUOTES BY WORLD FAMOUS PERSONALITIES; WHAT WORLD FAMOUS MEN SAID ABOUT THE JEWS?

(1) CICERO (Marcus Tullius Cicero)

The First century B.C. Roman statesman and writer stated:

"... Softly! ... Softly! I want none but the judges to hear me. The Jews have already gotten me into a fine mess, as they have many other gentlemen. I have no desire to furnish further grist for their mills." (Oration in Defense of Flaccus)

Cicero was serving as defense counsel at the trial of Flaccus, a Roman official who interfered with Jewish gold shipments to their international headquarters (then, as now) in Jerusalem. Cicero himself certainly was not a no-body, and for one of these statures to have to "speak softly" shows that he was in the presence of a dangerously powerful sphere of influence.

And on another occasion Cicero wrote:

"The Jews belong to a dark and repulsive force. One knows how numerous this cliques is, how they stick together and what power they exercise through their unions. They are a nation of rascals and deceivers." (Our corrections)

(2) DIO CASSIUS. Second century Roman historian. Describing the savage Jewish uprising against the Roman Empire that has been acknowledged as the turning point downward in the course of that great state-form:

“The Jews were destroying both Greeks and Romans. They ate the flesh of their victims, made belts for themselves out of their entrails, and daubed themselves with their blood... In all, 220,000 men perished in Cyrene and 240,000 in Cyprus, and for this reason no Jew may set foot in Cyprus today.” (Roman History)

(3) DIODORUS SICULUS. First century Greek historian

Observed that Jews treated other people as enemies and inferiors: “Usury” is the practice of lending money at excessive interest rates. This has for centuries caused great misery and poverty for Gentiles. It has brought strong condemnation of the Jews!

(4) H. H. BEAMISH, in New York Speech, October 30, 1937

“The Boer War occurred 37 years ago. Boer means farmer. Many criticized a great power like Britain for trying to wipe out the Boers. Upon making inquiry, I found all the gold and diamond mines of South Africa were owned by Jews; that Rothschild controlled gold; Samuels controlled silver, Baum controlled other mining, and Moses controlled base metals. Anything these people touch they inevitably pollute.”

(5) MARTIN LUTHER, 16th century German religious reformer who became famous for his opposition to the Vatican says: (Table Talk of Martin Luther, translated by William Hazlet)

“But the Jews are so hardened that they listen to nothing; though overcome by testimonies they yield not an inch. It is a pernicious race, oppressing all men by their usury and rapine. If they give a prince or magistrate a thousand florins, they extort twenty thousand from the subjects in payment. We must ever keep on guard against them.”

“They [Jews] are the real liars and bloodhounds, who have not only perverted and falsified the entire Scriptures from beginning to end and without ceasing with their interpretations. And all of the anxious sighing, longing and hoping of their hearts is directed to the time when some day they would like to deal with us heathen as they dealt with the heathen in Persia at the time of Esther... how they love the book of Esther, which so nicely agrees with their bloodthirsty, revengeful and murderous desire and hope.

(1) The sun never did shine on a more bloodthirsty and revengeful people as they, who imagine to be the people of God, and who desire to and think they must murder and crush the heathen. And the foremost undertaking which they expect of their Messiah is that he should slay and murder the whole world with the sword. As they at first demonstrated against us Christians and would like to do now, if they only could; have also tried it often and have been repeatedly struck on their snouts... Their breath stinks for the gold and silver of the heathen; since no people under the sun always have been, still are, and always will remain more avaricious than they, as can be noticed in their cursed usury. They also find comfort with this: "When the Messiah comes, He shall take all the gold and silver in the world and distribute it among the Jews.

(2) Thus, wherever they can direct Scripture to their insatiable avarice, they wickedly do so. Therefore know, my dear Christians, that next to the Devil; you have no more bitter, more poisonous, more vehement and enemy than a real Jew who earnestly desires to be a Jew. There may be some among them who believe what the cow or the goose believes. But all of them are surrounded with their blood and circumcision. In history, therefore, they are often accused of poisoning wells, stealing children and mutilating them; as in Trent, Wessensee and the like. Of course they deny this. Be it so or not, however, I know full well that the ready will is not lacking with them if they could only transform it into deeds, in secret or openly.

(3) A person who does not know the Devil, might wonder why they are so at enmity with the Christians above all others; for which they have no reason, since we only do good to them. They live among us in our homes, under our protection, use land and highways, market and streets. Princes and government sit by, snore and have their maws open, let the Jews take from their purse and chest, steal and rob whatever they will. That is, they permit themselves and their subjects to be abused and sucked dry and reduced to beggars with their own money, through the usury of the Jews. For the Jews, as foreigners, certainly should have nothing from us; and what they have certainly must be ours. They do not work, do not earn anything from us, neither do we donate or give it to them. Yet they have our money and goods and are lords in our land where they are supposed to be in exile!

If a thief steals ten gulden he must hang; if he robs people on the highway, his head is gone. But a Jew, when he steals ten tons of gold through his usury is dearer than God himself!

Do not their TALMUD and rabbis write that it is no sin to kill if a Jew kills a heathen, but it is a sin if he kills a brother in Israel? It is no sin if he does not keep his oath to a heathen. Therefore, to steal and rob (as they do with their money-lending) from a heathen is a divine service... And they are the masters of the world and we are their servants - yea, their cattle! I maintain that in three fables of Aesop there is more wisdom to be found than in all the books of the Talmudists and rabbis and more than ever could come into the hearts of the Jews... Should someone think I am saying too much - I am saying much too little! For I see in [their] writings how they curse us Goyim and wish as all evil in their schools and prayers. They rob us of our money through usury, and wherever they are able, they play us all manner of mean tricks... No heathen has done such things and none would do so except the Devil himself and those whom he possesses - as he possesses the Jews.

Burgensis, who was a very learned rabbi among them and by the grace of God became a Christian (which seldom occurs), is much moved that in their schools they so horribly curse us Christians (as Lyra also writes) and from that draws the conclusion that they must not be the people of God.

Now behold what a nice, thick, fat lie it is when they complain about being captives among us! Jerusalem was destroyed more than 1,400 years ago during that time we Christians have been tortured and persecuted by the Jews in all the world. On top of that, we do not know to this day what Devil brought them into our country. We did not fetch them from Jerusalem! ... Yes, we have and hold them captive, as I would like to keep my rheumatism, and all other diseases and misfortunes, who must wait as a poor servant, with money and property and everything I have! I wish they were in Jerusalem with the other Jews and whomsoever they would like to have with them.

Now what are we going to do with these rejected, condemned Jewish people? ... Let us apply the ordinary wisdom of other nations like France, Spain, Bohemia, et al., who made them give an account of what they had stolen through usury, and divided it evenly; but expelled them from their country; for as heard before, God's wrath is so great over them that through soft mercy they only become wicked, through hard treatment, however, only a little better. Therefore, away with them! How much more unbearable it is that we should permit the entire Christendom and all of us to be bought with our own money, be slandered and cursed by the Jews, who on top of all that be made rich and our lords, who laugh us to scorn and are tickled by their audacity!

What a joyful affair that would be for the Devil and his angels, and cause them to laugh through their snouts like a sow grinning at her little pigs, but deserving real wrath before God. (From THE JEWS AND THEIR LIES)

Maybe mild-hearted and gentle Christians will believe that I am too rigorous and drastic against the poor, afflicted Jews, believing that I ridicule them and treat them with much sarcasm. By my word, I am far too weak to be able to ridicule such a satanic brood. I would fain to do so, but they are far greater adepts at mockery than I and possess a god who is master in this art. It is the Evil One himself. Even with no further evidence than the Old Testament, I would maintain, and no person on earth could alter my opinion, that the Jews as they are today are veritably a mixture of all the depraved and malevolent knaves of the whole world over, who have then been dispersed in all countries, similarly to the Tartars, Gypsies and such folk."

(6) ERNEST RENAN, French historian

“The Jews are not merely a different religious community, but - and this is the most important factor - ethnically an altogether different race. The European felt instinctively that the Jew is a stranger, who emigrated from Asia. The so-called prejudice is natural sentiment. Civilization will overcome antipathy against the Israelite who merely professes another religion, but never against the racially different Jew... In Eastern Europe the Jew is the cancer slowly eating into the flesh of other nations. Exploitation of the people is his only aim. Selfishness and a lack of personal courage are his chief characteristics; self-sacrifice and patriotism are altogether foreign to him.”

(7) GOLDWIN SMITH, Professor of Modern History at Oxford, wrote in Nineteenth Century, October 1881

“The Jew alone regard his race as superior to humanity, and looks forward not to its ultimate union with other races, but to its triumph over them all and to its final ascendancy under the leadership of a tribal Messiah.”

(8) SHAW, GEORGE BERNARD. A genius of the 20th century and British dramatist.

“This is the real enemy, the invader from the East, the Druze, the ruffian, the oriental parasite; in a word: the Jew.” (London Morning Post, December 3, 1925)

“This craving for bouquets by Jews is a symptom of racial degeneration. The Jews are worse than my own people. Those Jews who still want to be the chosen race (chosen by the late Lord Balfour) can go to Palestine and stew in their own juice. The rest had better stop being Jews and start being human beings.” (Literary Digest, October 12, 1932)

BY: JOHN F. MAHONEY AMERICANS FOR MIDDLE EAST UNDERSTANDING APRIL - JUNE 2009 THE LINK - VOLUME 42, ISSUE 2:

GERALD KAUFMAN

Gerald Kaufman was elected to the House of Commons in 1970. From 1987-1992 he served as Shadow Foreign Secretary under Neil McKinnock.

In 2002 he made a TV documentary "The End of the Affair" in which he recounted his early support and later disillusionment with Israel. Comparing the Jewish state to apartheid South Africa, he has called for economic sanctions and an arms embargo against Israel. The Board of Deputies of British Jews has declared him a self-hating Jew. In 2004 he was knighted for his services to Parliament. On the 15th of January 2009, Sir Gerald Kaufman delivered the following speech to the British House of Commons:

I was brought up as an orthodox Jew and a Zionist. On a shelf in our kitchen there was a tin box for the Jewish National Fund, into which we put coins to help the pioneers build a Jewish presence in Palestine. My parents came to Britain as refugees from Poland. Most of their families were subsequently murdered by the Nazis in the holocaust. My grandmother was ill in bed when the Nazis came to her home town of Staszow. A German soldier shot her dead in her bed.

My grandmother did not die to provide cover for Israeli soldiers murdering Palestinian grandmothers in Gaza. The current Israeli government ruthlessly and cynically exploits the continuing guilt among gentiles over the slaughter of Jews in the holocaust as justification for their murder of Palestinians. The implication is that Jewish lives are precious, but the lives of Palestinians do not count.

On Sky News a few days ago, the spokesman for the Israeli army, Major Leibovich, was asked about the Israeli killing of, at that time, 800 Palestinians- the total is now 1,000. She replied instantly that "500 of them were militants."

That was the reply of a Nazi. I suppose that the Jews fighting for their lives in the Warsaw ghetto could have been dismissed as militants. However many Palestinians the Israelis murder in Gaza, they cannot solve this existential problem by military means. Whenever and however the fighting ends, there will still be 1.5 million Palestinians in Gaza and 2.5 million more on the West Bank. They are treated like dirt by the Israelis, with hundreds of road blocks and with the ghastly denizens of the illegal Jewish settlements harassing them as well. The time will come, not so long from now, when they will outnumber the Jewish population in Israel. It is time for our Government to make clear to the Israeli Government that their conduct and policies are unacceptable, and to impose a total arms ban on Israel. It is time for peace, but real peace, not the solution by conquest which is the Israelis' real goal but which it is impossible for them to achieve. They are not simply war criminals; they are fools.

JEFF HALPER

Jeff Halper was aboard one of the two ships that left Cyprus on August 23 to break Israel's naval blockade and to bring humanitarian relief to the besieged population. The ships also brought 44 peace activists from 17 countries, including former British Prime Minister Tony Blair's sister-in-law, Lauren Booth. When Halper, an Israeli citizen, returned to Israel, he was arrested.

A retired anthropologist from Ben Gurion University, Dr. Halper is chairman of ICAHD, the Israeli Committee Against House Demolitions, an organization that works to block the Israeli military's demolition of Palestinian homes in the occupied territories. In 2006 he was nominated for the Nobel Peace Prize. "I can no more passively witness my government's destruction of another people than I can watch the occupation destroy the moral fabric of my own country," he said prior to defying Israel's 18-month siege of Gaza. In January, 2009, during Israel's invasion of Gaza, Halper flew to Canada, where he delivered a lecture at Dalhousie University. The room was packed, with audience members sitting in the aisles and on the stage. In a clear voice, he praised the Gazans for their resistance to the Jewish state's attempted "massacre," explaining "When you lock the Palestinians in a cage, what do you expect these people to do. Palestinians have a right to resist."

Halper concluded his talk by urging the international community to acknowledge and openly condemn Israel's furtive program of testing military weaponry and counter-insurgency tactics on the Palestinian people. The effects of Gaza are global, he charged. Israel is field testing chemical weaponry and its nanotechnology research on Palestinians for the purpose of selling its technology abroad.

Halper was also scheduled to give a talk at the Gelber Conference Center in Montreal. Sponsored by the Federation Combined Jewish Appeal, it had been scheduled months in advance, but was cancelled at the last minute because a local Jewish group, Les Amis d'Israel, had objected to the speaker. As it turned out, Halper gave his talk anyway-in the Unitarian Church of Montreal.

SARA ROY

Sara Roy is a researcher at the Center for Middle Eastern Studies at Harvard University and one of the most respected academic authorities on Gaza today. She acknowledges that the Holocaust has been the defining feature of her life. Her father was one of the two known survivors of the Chelmno extermination camp; her mother was a survivor of Holbstadt and Auschwitz. Some 100 members of her extended family did not survive. Her focus in the Arab-Israeli issue, she writes, provided several examples of parallels between Nazi treatment of Jews and the treatment by Israeli soldiers of Palestinians. Both, she claims, "were absolutely equivalent in principle, intent, and impact to humiliate and dehumanize."

Such comments by a Harvard professor have stirred controversy. The Jewish psychologist Phyllis Chesler, for whom criticism of Israel is tantamount to anti-Semitism, has called Roy one of the most savage critics of America and Israel.

On the other hand, journalist Richard Silverstein hails her as a prophet whose denunciations of Israel's militarism challenge the corrosive attempt by American Jewish organizations to impose a false unity in blind support of whatever Israel does. Dr. Roy raised her voice against Israel's most recent use of excessive military force in an article she wrote for the Christian Science Monitor, January 2, 2009. It read, in part: I hear the voices of my friends in Gaza as clearly as if we were still on the phone; their agony echoes inside me. They weep and moan over the death of their children, some, little girls like mine, taken, their bodies burned and destroyed so senselessly. One Palestinian friend asked me, "Why did Israel attack when the children were leaving school and the women were in the markets?" There are reports that some parents cannot find their dead children and are desperately roaming overflowing hospitals. As Jews celebrate the last night of Hanukkah, the Jewish festival of lights commemorating our resurgence as a people, I asked myself: How am I to celebrate my Jewishness while Palestinians are being killed?

The lucky ones in Gaza are locked in their homes living lives that have long been suspended-hungry, thirsty, and without light but their children are alive. On Nov. 5, Israel sealed all crossing points into Gaza, vastly reducing and at times denying food supplies, medicines, fuel, cooking gas, and parts for water and sanitation systems. A colleague of mine in Jerusalem said, "this siege is in a league of its own. The Israelis have not done something like this before.

In nearly 25 years of involvement with Gaza and Palestinians, I have not had to confront the horrific image of burned children - until today: It is one thing to take an individual's land, his home, his livelihood, to denigrate his claims, or ignore his emotions. It is another to destroy his child. What happens to a society where renewal is denied and all possibility has ended? And what will happen to Jews as a people whether we live in Israel or not? Why have we been unable to accept the fundamental humanity of Palestinians and include them within our moral boundaries? Rather, we reject any human connection with the people we are oppressing. Ultimately, our goal is to tribalize pain, narrowing the scope of human suffering to ourselves alone.

Jewish intellectuals oppose racism, repression, and injustice almost everywhere in the world and yet it is still unacceptable-indeed, for some, it's an act of heresy - to oppose it when Israel is the oppressor. This double standard must end. Israel's victories are pyrrhic and reveal the limits of Israeli power and our own limitations as a people: our inability to live a life without barriers. Are these the boundaries of our rebirth after the Holocaust? As Jews in a post-Holocaust world empowered by a Jewish state, how do we as a people emerge from atrocity and abjection, empowered and also humane? How do we move beyond fear to envision something different, even if uncertain? The answer will determine who we are and what, in the end, we become.

AMIRA HASS

Amira Hass is the first-and only-Israeli journalist to actually live in the occupied Palestinian territories. Since 1991, in articles in the newspaper Ha'aretz, she has borne witness to Israel's increasingly cruel military occupation and settler annexation. In 2003, she received the UNESCO/Guillermo Cano World Press Freedom Prize for her outstanding professional commitment and independence. She has been compared to a biblical prophet confronting the biblical Israelites with their moral failings. Born in Jerusalem in 1956, Amira is the daughter of two Holocaust survivors. At Hebrew University she studied the history of Nazism and the European Left's relation to the Holocaust. She has called Israel an apartheid state, with privileges reserved mostly for Jews. In 2001, a Jerusalem Magistrate Court ordered her to pay $60,000 for vilifying the Jewish settler community of Beit Hadassah in Hebron. On December 1, 2008, she was arrested by Israeli police on her return to Israel from Gaza, where she had traveled by boat with the Free Gaza Movement to demonstrate her opposition to Israel's blockade.

Here, in part, is her article from Ha'aretz of January 7, 2009:

What luck my parents are dead. Back in 1982 they could not stand the noise of the Israeli jet fighters flying over the Palestinian refugee camps in Lebanon. The shriek of a plane horrified them in their house in Tel Aviv. We don't have to see it to know, they said. Even before the language Laundromat developed to its current sophistication, my parents were nauseated by phrases like "the war for peace in Galilee" or "disturbances of public order" when the public order was the occupation and the disturbance was resistance to it. What luck that they are not alive to hear Ehud Barak and Tzipi Livni explaining that we have nothing against the Palestinian people, and the cabinet secretary explaining that there is no humanitarian crisis and this is just Hamas propaganda. To recognize lies, (my parents) did not need to know the names of the people who had not had running water for five days or more. Forget the bombardments, forget the electricity, food, even sleep. But no water? Because of the bombardments by sea, land and air, people cannot even go out to get drinking water from the city faucets. And when someone does have running water at home, it's undrinkable.

Because of my parents' history they knew what it meant to close people behind barbed-wire fences in a small area. A year, five years, 10 years. From 1991. How lucky it is that they are not alive to see how these incarcerated people are bombarded with all the glorious military technology of Israel and the United States. "We urgently invite Mohamed ElBaradei to come here and prove we do not have nuclear weapons," says Iyad-a well-known comic, even under bombardment. But Saturday night he only said "difficult, difficult," and hung up the phone.

My parents' personal history led them to despise the relaxed way the news anchors reported on a curfew. How lucky they are not here and cannot hear the crowd roaring in the coliseum.

Richard Falk - United Nations Special Rapporteur on Human Rights in the Palestinian Territories

RICHARD FALK

Richard Falk is Professor Emeritus of International Law at Princeton University. In a 2007 article, "Slouching Toward a Palestinian Holocaust," he wrote: "It is especially painful for me, as an American Jew, to feel compelled to portray the ongoing and intensifying abuse of the Palestinian people by Israel through reliance on such an inflammatory metaphor as 'holocaust'... Is it an irresponsible overstatement to associate the treatment of Palestinians with this criminalized Nazi record of collective atrocity? I think not." In March 2008, Falk was appointed United Nations Special Rapporteur on Human Rights in the Palestinian Territories. On December 14, he traveled to Israel to prepare a report on Israel's compliance with human rights standards and international humanitarian law, with special focus on the effects of Israel's blockade of Gaza. Israel had been informed of his itinerary, but when he arrived in Tel Aviv he was denied entry, put into a holding room, and subjected to an inch-by-inch body search. Then he was led to a locked room, crammed with five other detainees, where the air smelled of urine, the sheets were dirty, the food inedible, and the lights glaring. In all, the U.N. Special Rapporteur was detained for 30 hours, before being put on a flight out of the country.

Shortly after his failed attempt to reach the Palestinians under occupation, Israel invaded Gaza, In a January 2, 2009 article that appeared on The Huffington Post, Falk concluded: The people of Gaza are victims of geopolitics at its inhumane worst: producing what Israel itself calls a “total war” against an essentially defenceless society that lacks any defensive military capability whatsoever and is completely vulnerable to Israeli attacks mounted by F-16 bombers and Apache helicopters.

What this also means is that the flagrant violations of international humanitarian law, as set forth in the Geneva Conventions, is quietly set aside while the carnage continues and the bodies pile up. It additionally means that the UN is once more revealed to be impotent when its main members deprive it of the political will to protect a people subject to unlawful uses of force on a large scale.

Finally, this means that the public can shriek and march all over the world, but that the killing will go on as if nothing is happening. The picture being painted day by day in Gaza is one that begs for renewed commitment to international law and the authority of the UN Charter, starting here in the United States, especially with a new leadership that promised its citizens change, including a less militarist approach to diplomatic leadership.

AVI SHLAIM

Avi Shlaim is professor of international relations at Oxford University in England and a fellow of the British Academy. Born in Iraq, he holds dual Israeli-British citizenship. In the 1960's he served in the Israeli army and, although one of Israel's New Historians who have challenged many of the state's founding myths, he has never questioned its legal right to exist.

That state's recent assault on Gaza, however, has led him to some critical rethinking.

In an article that appeared in The Guardian on January 7, 2009, Shlaim argued that the only way to make sense of Israel's senseless war in Gaza was to go back to its founding in 1948. At the time, the British diplomat Sir John Troutbeck had claimed that the Americans were responsible for the creation of a gangster state headed by "an utterly unscrupulous set of leaders." Shlaim thought this verdict rather harsh. But in light of Israel's vicious assault on Gaza, and the Bush administration's complicity, the historian has reopened the question. Gaza, he wrote, is a classic case of colonial exploitation in the post-colonial era. In the 1980s Israel played the old colonial game of divide and rule by supporting the nascent religious organization Hamas in order to weaken Fatah, the secular nationalist movement led by Yasser Arafat.

Then, when free and fair elections in January 2006 brought Hamas to power, Israel refused to recognize it, calling it a terrorist organization. And, as if on cue, America and the European Union joined Israel in trying to bring down the Hamas government by withholding tax revenues and foreign aid. (Our comment: Once again the Sword of Damocles -The Dead Sea Scrolls- was drawn to remind the Christian nations to jump without hesitation at the behest of their masters, the Jews!)

Once in power, Hamas, like other radical movements, moderated its political agenda. In March 2007 it formed a national unity government with Fatah that was ready to negotiate a long-term ceasefire with Israel. Israel refused. Instead, it continued to divide and rule, this time by encouraging the corrupt and pliant Fatah leaders to overthrow their religious political rivals. American neoconservatives also played a major role in the collapse of the national unity government and in driving Hamas to seize power in Gaza in June 2007 in order to pre-empt a Fatah coup.

Throughout all this, the economic strangulation of Gaza continued. Militants from Hamas and Islamic Jihad protested by launching Qassam rockets at Israeli settlements near the Gaza-Israel border. Israel had the right to act in self-defense, but its response to pin-pricks of rocket attacks was totally disproportionate, as the figures show: Between 2005-2008, 11 Israelis were killed by rocket fire, while between 2005-2007 alone 1,290 Palestinian Gazans were killed by the Israeli military, including 222 children. In June 2008 a six-month ceasefire was brokered by Egypt. The assault on Gaza began on December 27. The brutality of that assault, argued Shlaim, was matched by the mendacity of its spokesmen. Eight months before launching the war, Israel established a National Information Directorate, whose core message to the media was that Hamas broke the ceasefire; that Israel's objective is the defense of its population; that Israel's forces are taking the utmost care not to hurt innocent civilians. It is all "a pack of lies," says Shlaim.

Israel, not Hamas broke the ceasefire. It did so by a raid into Gaza on November 4 that killed six Hamas men. Israel's objective is not just the defense of its people but the eventual overthrow of the Hamas government in Gaza by turning the people against it. And far from taking care to spare civilians, Israel is guilty of indiscriminate bombing and of a three-year-old blockade that has brought 1.5 million people to the brink of a humanitarian catastrophe.

Bismarck once said you can do everything with a bayonet except sit on it. Shlaim would agree. Israel can achieve security only through talks with Hamas, which has repeatedly declared its readiness to negotiate a long-term ceasefire with the Jewish state within its pre-1967 borders. Israel has rejected this because it involves concessions and compromises.

Shlaim ended his article with these words:

This brief review of Israel's record over the past four decades makes it difficult to resist the conclusion that it has become a rogue state with "an utterly unscrupulous set of leaders." A rogue state habitually violates international law, possesses weapons of mass destruction and practices terrorism-the use of violence against civilians for political purposes. Israel fulfils all of these three criteria; the cap fits and it must wear it. Israel's real aim is not peaceful coexistence with its Palestinian neighbours but military domination.

HENRY SIEGMAN

Henry Siegman is former national director of the American Jewish Congress and former executive director of the Synagogue Council of America. In 1933, when the Nazis came to power, he, with his father, pregnant mother, sisters and brothers, fled to Belgium. During the battle of Dunkirk he huddled with his family in a pitch-black cellar as the fighting raged. One morning, the door was kicked open by victorious German troops. The family next fled to Vichy France, where they had to elude the constant round-ups of Jews. Eventually they made it to Casablanca, then to America. These scenes haunt him still, but they make it easier, he says, to understand what it is like to be a Palestinian living under the “fear and humiliation” of Israeli occupation. In New York, Henry became an ordained rabbi, and served as a chaplain with combat troops in Korea, where he earned a bronze star and a purple heart. In an article that appeared in the London Review of Books, January 29, 2009, Rabbi Siegman spoke out against Israel’s assault on Gaza. The article spread across the Internet.

In it Siegman knocked down all the reasons Israelis had given for their “defensive” assault: that Hamas consistently violated the six-month truce that Israel observed and then refused to extend it; that Israel therefore had no choice but to destroy Hamas’s capacity to launch missiles into Israeli towns; that Hamas is a terrorist organization, part of a global jihadi network; and that Israel had acted not only in its own defense but on behalf of an international struggle by Western democracies against this network. Siegman then went on to ask a question few in the media had bothered to ask: Why are Israel’s leaders so intent on destroying Hamas? His answer: Because they believe Hamas’s leadership, unlike Fatah’s, cannot be intimidated into accepting a peace accord that establishes a Palestinian “state” made up of territorially disconnected entities over which the Jewish state would retain permanent control.

He concluded his article with a bit of advice for whoever would be President Obama’s Middle East envoy [former Senator George Mitchell, as it turned out]: If you leave the Israelis and Palestinians to sort out their differences, you will assure a future Palestinian resistance far more extreme than Hamas, one likely to be allied with al-Qaida. Some Israelis, including the settler leadership, might applaud you for this, since it would give them a pretext to hold on to all of Palestine. But this is a delusion that would spell the end of Israel as a Jewish state.

Our envoy, he urged, must present his own proposal for a just and sustainable peace agreement-then press the parties to accept it. There are many other Jews who have expressed similar views. Among some of them are: Michael Ratner, Greta Berlin, Brent Rosen and Randall Kuhn.

HOLOCAUST DENIED: THE LYING SILENCE OF THOSE WHO KNOW BY JOHN PILGER

“When the truth is replaced by silence,” the Soviet dissident Yevgeny Yevtushenko said, “the silence is a lie.” It may appear the silence is broken on Gaza. The cocoons of murdered children, wrapped in green, together with boxes containing their dismembered parents and the cries of grief and rage of everyone in that death camp by the sea, can be viewed on al-Jazeera and YouTube, even glimpsed on the BBC. But Russia’s incorrigible poet was not referring to the ephemeral we call news; he was asking why those who knew the why never spoke it and so denied it. Among the Anglo-American intelligentsia, this is especially striking. It is they who hold the keys to the great storehouses of knowledge: the historiographies and archives that lead us to the why.

They know that the horror now raining on Gaza has little to do with Hamas or, absurdly, “Israel’s right to exist.” They know the opposite to be true: that Palestine’s right to exist was cancelled 61 years ago and the expulsion and, if necessary, extinction of the indigenous people was planned and executed by the founders of Israel. They know, for example, that the infamous “Plan D” resulted in the murderous depopulation of 369 Palestinian towns and villages by the Haganah (Jewish army) and that massacre upon massacre of Palestinian civilians in such places as Deir Yassin, al-Dawayima, Eilaboun, Jish, Ramle and Lydda are referred to in official records as “ethnic cleansing.” Arriving at a scene of this carnage, David Ben-Gurion, Israel’s first prime minister, was asked by a general, Yigal Allon, "What shall we do with the Arabs?" Ben-Gurion, reported the Israeli historian Benny Morris, "made a dismissive, energetic gesture with his hand and said, 'Expel them'. The order to expel an entire population "without attention to age" was signed by Yitzhak Rabin, a future prime minister promoted by the world's most efficient propaganda as a peacemaker. The terrible irony of this was addressed only in passing, such as when the Mapan Party co-leader Meir Ya'ari noted "how easily" Israel's leaders spoke of how it was "possible and permissible to take women, children and old men and to fill the roads with them because such is the imperative of strategy ... who remembers who used this means against our people during the [Second World] war ... we are appalled."

Every subsequent "war" Israel has waged has had the same objective: the expulsion of the native people and the theft of more and more land.

The lie of David and Goliath, of perennial victim, reached its apogee in 1967 when the propaganda became a righteous fury that claimed the Arab states had struck first. Since then, mostly Jewish truth-tellers such as Avi Schlaim, Noam Chomsky, the late Tanya Reinhart, Neve Gordon, Tom Segev, Yuri Avnery, Ilan Pappé and Norman Finklestein have dispatched this and other myths and revealed a state shorn of the humane traditions of Judaism, whose unrelenting militarism is the sum of an expansionist, lawless and racist ideology called zionism.

"It seems," wrote the Israeli historian Ilan Pappé on 2 January 2009, "that even the most horrendous crimes, such as the genocide in Gaza, are treated as desperate events, unconnected to anything that happened in the past and not associated with any ideology or system ... Very much as the apartheid ideology explained the oppressive policies of the South African government, this ideology - in its most consensual and simplistic variety - has allowed all the Israeli governments in the past and the present to dehumanize the Palestinians wherever they are and strive to destroy them. The means altered from period to period, from location to location, as did the narrative covering up these atrocities. But there is a clear pattern [of genocide]."

In Gaza, the enforced starvation and denial of humanitarian aid, the piracy of life-giving resources such as fuel and water, the denial of medicines and treatment, the systematic destruction of infrastructure and the killing and maiming of the civilian population, 50 per cent of whom are children, meet the international standard of the Genocide Convention. “Is it an irresponsible overstatement,” asked Richard Falk, the United Nations Special Rapporteur for Human Rights in the Occupied Palestinian Territory and international law authority at Princeton University, “to associate the treatment of Palestinians with this criminalized Nazi record of collective atrocity? I think not.” In describing a “holocaust-in-the-making,” Falk was alluding to the Nazis’ establishment of Jewish ghettos in Poland. For one month in 1943, the captive Polish Jews led by Mordechaj Anielewicz fought off the German army and the SS, but their resistance was finally crushed and the Nazis exacted their final revenge. Falk is also a Jew. Today’s holocaust-in-the-making, which began with Ben-Gurion’s Plan D, is in its final stages. The difference today is that it is a joint US-Israeli project. The F-16 jet fighters, the 250-pound “smart” GBU-39 bombs supplied on the eve of the attack on Gaza, having been approved by a Congress dominated by the Democratic Party, plus the annual $2.4 billion in war-making “aid,” give Washington de facto control.

It beggars belief that President-elect Obama was not informed. Outspoken on Russia’s war in Georgia and the terrorism in Mumbai, Obama’s silence on Palestine marks his approval, which is to be expected, given his obsequiousness to the Tel Aviv regime and its lobbyists during the presidential campaign and his appointment of Zionists as his secretary of state, chief of staff and principal Middle East advisers. When Aretha Franklin sings “Think,” her wonderful 1960s anthem to freedom, at Obama’s inauguration on 21 January, I trust someone with the brave heart of Muntadar al-Zaidi, the shoe-thrower, will shout: “Gaza!”

The asymmetry of conquest and terror is clear. Plan D is now “Operation Cast Lead,” which is the unfinished “Operation Justified Vengeance.” The latter was launched by Prime Minister Ariel Sharon in 2001 when, with Bush’s approval, he used F-16s against Palestinian towns and villages for the first time. In the same year, the authoritative Jane's Foreign Report disclosed that the Blair government had given Israel the "green light" to attack the West Bank after it was shown Israel's secret designs for a bloodbath. It was typical of New Labor Party's enduring, cringing complicity in Palestine's agony. However, the 2001 Israeli plan, reported Jane's, needed the "trigger" of a suicide bombing which would cause "numerous deaths and injuries [because] the 'revenge' factor is crucial." This would "motivate Israeli soldiers to demolish the Palestinians." What alarmed Sharon and the author of the plan, General Shaul Mofaz, the Israeli Chief of Staff, was a secret agreement between Yasser Arafat and Hamas to ban suicide attacks. On 23 November, 2001, Israeli agents assassinated the Hamas leader, Mahmud Abu Hunud, and got their "trigger"; the suicide attacks resumed in response to his killing.

Something uncannily similar happened on 5 November (2008) last, when Israeli Special Forces attacked Gaza, killing six people. Once again, they got their propaganda "trigger." A ceasefire initiated and sustained by the Hamas government - which had imprisoned its violators - was shattered by the Israeli attack and homemade rockets were fired into what used to be Palestine before its Arab occupants were "cleansed." The On 23 December, Hamas offered to renew the ceasefire, but Israel's charade was such that its all-out assault on Gaza had been planned six months earlier, according to the Israeli daily Ha'aretz.

Behind this sordid game is the "Dagan Plan," named after General Meir Dagan, who served with Sharon in his bloody invasion of Lebanon in 1982. Now head of Mossad, the Israeli intelligence organization, Dagan is the author of a "solution" that has seen the imprisonment of Palestinians behind a ghetto wall snaking across the West Bank and in Gaza, effectively a concentration camp. The establishment of a quisling government in RamAllâh under Mohammed Abbas is Dagan's achievement, together with a hasbara (propaganda) campaign relayed through a mostly supine, if intimidated western media, notably in America, that says Hamas is a terrorist organization devoted to Israel's destruction and to "blame" for the massacres and siege of its own people over two generations, long before its creation. "We have never had it so good," said the Israeli Foreign Ministry spokesman Gideon Meir in 2006. "The hasbara effort is a well-oiled machine." In fact, Hamas's real threat is its example as the Arab world's only democratically elected government, drawing its popularity from its resistance to the Palestinians' oppressor and tormentor.

This was demonstrated when Hamas foiled a CIA coup in 2007, an event ordained in the western media as "Hamas's seizure of power." Likewise, Hamas is never described as a government, let alone democratic. Neither is its proposal of a ten-year truce as a historic recognition of the "reality" of Israel and support for a two-state solution with just one condition: that the Israelis obey international law and end their illegal occupation beyond the 1967 borders. As every annual vote in the UN General Assembly demonstrates, 99 per cent of humanity concurs. On 4 January 2009, the president of the General Assembly, Miguel d'Escoto, described the Israeli attack on Gaza as a "monstrosity."

When the monstrosity is done and the people of Gaza are even more stricken, the Dagan Plan foresees what Sharon called a "1948-style solution" – the destruction of all Palestinian leadership and authority followed by mass expulsions into smaller and smaller "cantonments" and perhaps finally into Jordan. This demolition of institutional and educational life in Gaza is designed to produce, wrote Karma Nabulsi, a Palestinian exile in Britain, "a Hobbesian vision of an anarchic society: truncated, violent, powerless, destroyed, cowed ... Look to the Iraq of today: that is what [Sharon] had in store for us, and he has nearly achieved it."

Dr. Dahlia Wasfi is an American writer on Palestine. She has a Jewish mother and an Iraqi Muslim father. "Holocaust denial is anti-Semitic," she wrote on 31 December. "But I'm not talking about World War Two, Mahmoud Ahmedinijad (the president of Iran) or Ashkenazi Jews. What I'm referring to is the holocaust we are all witnessing and responsible for in Gaza today and in Palestine over the past 60 years ... Since Arabs are Semites, US-Israeli policy doesn't get more anti-Semitic than this." She quoted Rachel Corrie, the young American who went to Palestine to defend Palestinians and was crushed by an Israeli bulldozer. "I am in the midst of a genocide,” wrote Corrie, “which I am also indirectly supporting and for which my government is largely responsible.”

Reading the words of both, I am struck by the use of “responsibility.” Breaking the lie of silence is not an esoteric abstraction but an urgent responsibility that falls to those with the privilege of a platform. With the BBC cowed, so too is much of journalism, merely allowing vigorous debate within unmovable invisible boundaries, ever fearful of the smear of anti-Semitism. The unreported news, meanwhile, is that the death toll in Gaza is the equivalent of 18,000 dead in Britain. Imagine, if you can.

Then there are the academics, the deans and teachers and researchers. Why are they silent as they watch a university bombed and hear the Association of University Teachers in Gaza plea for help? Are British universities now, as Terry Eagleton believes, no more than “intellectual Tescos, churning out a commodity known as graduates rather than greengroceries”?

Then there are the writers. In the dark year of 1939, the Third Writers’ Congress was held at Carnegie Hall in New York and the likes of Thomas Mann and Albert Einstein sent messages and spoke up to ensure the lie of silence was broken. By one account, 3,500 jammed the auditorium and a thousand were turned away. Today, this mighty voice of realism and morality is said to be obsolete; the literary review pages affect an ironic hauteur of irrelevance; false symbolism is all. As for the readers, their moral and political imagination is to be pacified, not primed. The anti-Muslim Martin Amis expressed this well in Visiting Mrs. Nabokov: “The dominance of the self is not a flaw, it is an evolutionary characteristic; it is just how things are.”

If that is how things are, we are diminished as a civilized society. For what happens in Gaza is the defining moment of our time, which either grants the impunity of war criminals the immunity of our silence, while we contort our own intellect and morality, or gives us the power to speak out. For the moment I prefer my own memory of Gaza: of the people’s courage and resistance and their “luminous humanity,” as Karma Nabulsi put it. On my last trip there, I was rewarded with a spectacle of Palestinian flags fluttering in unlikely places. It was dusk and children had done this. No one told them to do it. They made flagpoles out of sticks tied together, and a few of them climbed on to a wall and held the flag between them, some silently, others crying out. They do this every day when they know foreigners are leaving, believing the world will not forget them.

Barbaric Israel

A nation that has violated "every norm of civilized behavior and international law" since its founding in 1948 is held virtually blameless by the U.S. corporate media – Israel sycophants of the lowest order. "Now members of the Israeli Defense Force themselves are coming forward to admit that they committed war crimes" – but the U.S. press is censoring their confessions! Even when Israeli soldiers openly testify to committing "murder" in Gaza, as reported by the Israeli press, the U.S. corporate media "keeps the people of this country ignorant" of the crimes against humanity bankrolled by American taxpayers.

by BAR editor and senior columnist Margaret Kimberley

"Every norm of civilized behavior and international law was violated."

April 04, 2009 "BAR" -- Despite the best efforts of the American corporate media, the Israeli lobby, and compromised politicians, the true nature of Israel's barbarity towards the Palestinian people is not easily hidden. The massacres of Gaza's civilian population that were recently carried out by the Israeli Defense Force created a turning point in worldwide public opinion. Only the Israeli and American governments try to deny that war crimes were committed. The IDF barred the world's media from witnessing the killings of more than 1,400 people. Every norm of civilized behavior and international law was violated, including the Geneva Conventions prohibition of acts of revenge against civilian populations. Israel kept the borders of Gaza sealed, and would not even allow the population to flee and save their lives. The IDF takes the term "shooting fish in a barrel" very seriously.

Now members of the IDF themselves are coming forward to admit that they committed war crimes. Soldiers have told the Israeli newspaper Haaretz that they were ordered to murder civilians without provocation. Haaretz has also revealed that the IDF prepares soldiers to kill civilians by openly condoning the killing of pregnant women and little children.

“1 Shot, 2 Kills” reads one t-shirt routinely worn by IDF soldiers. It depicts a pregnant woman covered by a bulls-eye. Another t-shirt for infantry snipers depicts “the inscription ‘Better use Durex,’ next to a picture of a dead Palestinian baby, with his weeping mother and a teddy bear beside him.” Soldiers wear these shirts only with the approval of their platoon commanders. “The IDF prepares soldiers to kill civilians by openly condoning the killing of pregnant women and little children.”

The shirts are bilingual, written in Hebrew and in English too. It makes sense that the inscriptions are also in English, because were it not for American financial support, the IDF would not exist or be able to bomb Syria or the Sudan or invade Lebanon or carry out massacres in Gaza. The United States is the Israeli government’s only friend in the world. While boycotts and protests against Israel are carried out all over the globe, concerned Americans are silenced because the corporate media and the political system have turned their country into Israel’s colony. The Los Angeles Times carried the story of IDF war crimes revelations, but only after censoring the words of the soldiers themselves.

“When we entered a house, we were supposed to bust down the door and start shooting inside and just go up story by story... I call that murder. Each story, if we identify a person, we shoot them. I asked myself - how is this reasonable?” The Los Angeles Times felt that the word “murder” was too much for sensitive American eyes and left the sentence out. “‘When we entered a house, we were supposed to bust down the door and start shooting inside and just go up story by story,’ he was quoted as saying. ‘Each story, if we identify a person, we shoot them. I asked myself: ‘How is this reasonable?’” Apparently, “I call that murder,” is just not acceptable, even if the words come straight from the horse’s mouth. The Los Angeles Times knows or thinks it knows that it can go only so far when Israel is the subject of what passes for reporting in the American corporate media.

"Several cardboard boxes full of excrement were left in the house."

Not only do Israelis kill women and children and use civilians as human shields, but they also occupy Palestinian homes. They routinely desecrate them in ways that are so cruel and malicious, that they must be considered pathological. According to Amnesty International, not only did Israelis in Gaza illegally occupy Palestinian homes, but they left them in a devastated and desecrated condition.

"In one house in the Sayafa area in north Gaza several cardboard boxes full of excrement were left in the house (italics mine) - although there was a functioning toilet which the soldiers could have used. Walls were defaced with crude threats written in Hebrew, such as 'next time it will hurt more'. In every case the soldiers had smashed holes in the outer walls of the houses to use as lookout and sniper positions."

Israelis are not inherently worse than other human beings. They behave as they do because they never pay a price for their actions. The American people have paid and will continue to pay the price as targets of hatred and even of terror because their government has made them complicit in Israel's crimes. But any suffering experienced by Americans is hardly unjust. Americans do not have a greater right to live in peace than do the people of Gaza. If Gazans wore t-shirts encouraging the killing of women and little babies they would be no worse than the IDF soldiers whose actions are paid for by the American tax payer. Sadly, the Los Angeles Times and their counterparts in the rest of the media are unlikely to explain that very simple fact.

This conspiracy of silence is just one of many that keep the people of this country ignorant and incapable of making the demands and taking the necessary actions that would enable them to help themselves. Margaret Kimberley's Freedom Rider column appears weekly in BAR. Ms.
