

Millimeter Wave Detection

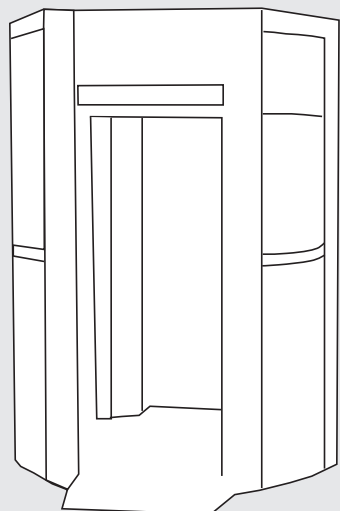

What do officers see?

Male Front and Back

Female Front and Back

What does this technology do?

Millimeter wave imaging technology provides advanced security by enabling officers to detect metallic and nonmetallic threats without physical contact.

For maximum privacy, the robotic images produced by the technology are viewed in a remote location and cannot be saved or stored. Facial features are blurred.

Use of this technology is optional.

Transportation
Security Administration

Your safety is our priority

www.tsa.gov