Benefit of Miss Annie Jones—We were glad to observe at the benefit of Miss Annie Jones last night, as numerous and as merited a one as it was in spontaneous applause, a fashionable audience assembling to testify their appreciation of the young lady's talents. Miss Jones is a favorite with the public, and her efforts last night were crowned with success. She very cleverly personated Lucy Ashton, in the opera of Lucia di Lammermoor, and sang with great brilliancy and effect the celebrated Mad Scene. Miss Jones has a fine voice, of great compass, and is evidently a thorough musician. She was ably assisted by Mr. Eddy, who sang the tenor part in the opera, and Mr. Eddy, who sang the tenor part in the opera, and Mr. Eddy
