

PRINTED DAILY, BY F. DELAUF. St. Peter Street, between Bayou & Royal. FRIDAY, JULY 18, 1828.

COMMERCIAL RECORD.

By a late act of Parliament, called the Customs Act, that part of the act to regulate the British possessions abroad, which prohibits the importation into any of the British possessions in America, of Beef, Pork, or Cocoa Nuts, is repealed, and also that part of the same act which prohibits the importation of Coffee, Sugar, Molasses, and Rum, into the free warehousing ports in those possessions, for the purpose of being warehoused for exportation only.

By the same act it is provided that all masts, masts, staves, wood hoops, shingles, lathwood, and cordwood for fuel, imported from the Canadas into any other British possession in America, or in the United Kingdom, shall be deemed the produce of the Canadas.

Adams Gaining Ground in Georgia.—A gentleman of this city has politely favored us with the perusal of several letters recently received from gentlemen in the up-country. By these letters we learn that "a reaction is rapidly gaining ground in this State in favour of the present Administration."

LONDON, May 14.—According to a letter from Constantinople of the 10th ult. a new manifesto against Russia was every moment expected to be issued by the Porte, and a temporary embargo had been put on all foreign vessels in the harbour.

From the Boston Patriot. British Influence.—A British Judge, who, from his residence, it is fair to presume, had just fined an American citizen for celebrating the 4th of July as a National Jubilee, and a British Priest, were invited guests to the late apologetical anti-tariff Websterian dinner in Boston; and yet the puffers and blowers of Mr. Webster in Boston, and his English pander in this city, accuse General Jackson and his friends of British influence!!

From the Liverpool Mercury of May 15th. We can state, upon the authority of a gentleman now in France, and who has good means of information, that the French and English Cabinets are generally considered to have a good understanding as to the Affairs of Greece and Turkey; but that there are some bickerings on the score of the want of reciprocity in the commercial policy of the French government, as it respects the late liberal concessions of Mr. Huskisson.

PROCLAMATION. To the inhabitants of Moldavia and Valachia. "His Majesty the Emperor, my august Sovereign, has commanded me to take possession of your country with the army, the chief command of which he has confided to me.

Singular effect of Lightning.—The ship New-York, on a late voyage from N. York to London, encountered a severe storm of thunder and lightning. There was a passenger on board, very old and very corpulent, whose legs were so paralyzed, that for three years he had not walked half a mile, and who, since his embarkation, had not been able even to stand.

There was a passenger on board, very old and very corpulent, whose legs were so paralyzed, that for three years he had not walked half a mile, and who, since his embarkation, had not been able even to stand. After the discharge of the lightning, which passed close to the place where this poor cripple was lying, every body was astonished to see him rise, pace up and down the deck, and walk about for a long time, as if nothing had ever ailed him.

Profane Hoax.—A gentleman, passing by the name of the Rev. R. B. Piniger, but who is said to be an officer in the army, has been residing some weeks in Leeds, under the disguise of a clergyman, and has preached and read prayers several times in St. Paul's and St. James' churches, in consequence of a wager of 2000l., the conditions of which were, that he would perform duty and preach seven times in the churches of Yorkshire, within a limited period, and it is said that he has won his wager.

Among the ridiculous spectacles exhibited in the world, next to that of a rod with a worm at one end and a fool at the other" moved up and down the sunny brooks or silver ponds, to beguile the giant minnow or the whalelike skinner of the streams, is that of a gun on the shoulders of a huge boy of thirty, accompanied by a powder flask and shot pouch destined for the slaughter of the poor robin.
