FOR REPRESENTATION

It should be the duty of every man having an interest in the honor of the country, that the discreditable and ignominious slavery question, has been at least temporarily suspended, and that the public mind should be directed to the consideration of the more important and common sense measures which have been proposed to amend the Constitution, and to provide for the more efficient prosecution of the war.

City Intelligence

THE WASHINGTON correspondent of the Baltimore Patriot, has the following to send us: "It is one of the most striking and interesting features of the present administration, that it has succeeded in securing a more efficient mode of managing the public affairs, than any other administration in the history of the country. The Secretary of the Treasury, Mr. Cass, has succeeded in securing a more efficient mode of managing the public affairs, than any other administration in the history of the country."
