nopoly. The course which the president has taken has been periodited by these states in the most decided manner.—

Maryland, we perceive, has followed suit, and has, through set house of delegates, embodied resolutions breathing the same spirit, and manifesting similar feelings. Great efforts were unade to defeat the expression of her sentiments. The following insolutious were offered by Edward D. Ingraham, and adopted by a large majority as the voice of the full limits.

vertible terms contrary to the plain and obvious meaning of our language; that if it be necessary to carry into effect the granted powers, it must be to enable the government to collect, keep selfe in I discusse the revenue necessary for its support.

Resolved, That in the collection and safe keeping of the public revenue, the Bank of the United States presents no advantages over well regulated State banks; that it is only in dishurang its revenue by means of its multiplied branchos throughout the Union, under the control of one head, by which idomestic exchange is facilitated, that it is advocates cannot support the plea of necessity and justify its creation under the Constitution of the United States; that however much it may facilitate by the mit they promote the general welfare by ben fit the intercantile community, it its existence by ben fit the intercantile community, it its existence by ben fit the intercantile community, it its existence by ben fit the intercantile community, it its existence by ben fit the intercantile community, it its existence by ben fit the intercantile community, it its existence be not necessary and in inspensable to the safe and regular operations of the Government, the act of Congress creating in the relation of the control of the control of one had been the control of one benefit the intercantile community, it is existence by the intercantile community it is existence by the intercantile community.

Mr. Scott, after the vote was taken, asked leave to enter on the journal his views in relation to those resolutions:

Let. They were that he believed the United States Bank constitutional.

2d. That he believed the removal of the deposites was inexpedient, but at the same time believed that their restoration would but increase the distress that now pervades the country."

The resolutions which are beld, fearless and manly, such as become freemen, are as follows, and certainly deserve the character we have bespoken for them:

The stockholders of the Girard bank-have refused to rescind the contract entered into by the directors of that institution with the accretary of the treasury. Iusteed of even the stockholders and the consequent loss of the interest which would otherwise be distursed among ourselved. We copy the following comments from the philadelphia Peassylvanian:

COMMERCIAL.

Angueta, March 21.—Cotton—Since our last review of the usurket, we have received accounts from Liverpool to January 23th. That market had undergone no material change, but prices were fully supported. During the present week there has been considerable activity in our market, and operations to some extent have been made at an advance of 1-4 a 1-3 cent from our last quotations. Sellers were fairly met by purchasers. We quote interior parcels 10 a 10 1-4c; fair to good, 10 1-2 a 11 1-4c; prime, 11 1-2 a 11 3-4c, fancy prime, 12c.

Liverpeol, Feb. 3, 1831.—We have a her vy cotton market turday, and what was gained by the operations of the early part of lait week is more than lost. The stock on hand is 188,780 bales, and every tide brings more additions, and if the sales do not increase, we must have a considerable accountation. Updands range from 9 a 8 3-4, which are said a 8 5-5. Liverpool, Feb. 7.

Corron.-About 1000 bags have been sold this week. Public sales of 2,400 hags will come on next week.
