EXECUTIVE OFFICE.

To General John S. [illegible]
Adjutant and Inspector General of the State.
Sir—I have received a communication from the General Gaines, commanding the Western Division of the United States Army, requesting that a fine Regiment of Infantry and Riflemen from the Militia of this State be organized and held ready for service in Texas, to move thither at short notice, which shall be communicated at the proper time when they will be duly summoned in the service."

In pursuance of his request you will forthwith organize two Regiments of Infantry and two Regiments of Riflemen, and equip them in the best manner for service. You will make orders to the Major Generals of the Divisions to invite Volunteers to engage in this service and to report to you, as soon as possible, now Companies, Battalions and Regiments that may be organized and tender their services. I rely with confidence on the patriotism of our citizen soldiers to complete the requisition by voluntary engagement without resorting to a draft, and I desire you would communicate to those in the vicinity of the capital the great satisfaction I feel at the ardor they have exhibited to engage in the service of their country, from the assurment it was known their service might be required.

I am, very respectfully,
Your obedient servant,
A. MOUTON.

ADJUTANT GENERAL'S OFFICE, }
Head Quarters, New Orleans, Aug. 19, 1845. }
GENERAL ORDER No. 34.

By order of the Governor and Commander in Chief, two Regiments of Infantry and two Regiments of Riflemen are forthwith to be organized in the most possible manner for service in Texas at the request of Major General Gaines, commanding the Western Division of the United States Army. The Governor has directed me to express to our Citizen Soldiers in the vicinity of the Capital, his great satisfaction at the ardor with which they have manifested a readiness, in the service of their country the moment it was known their services might be required, and that he relies with confidence on the patriotism of our citizens throughout the State to meet the requisition by voluntary engagement without resort to a draft.

The Major Generals of Divisions will, therefore, forthwith issue orders to the officers under their command to invite the services of volunteers and organize them without delay into Companies, Battalions and Regiments. As soon as a Company, Battalion or Regiment is organized the Major General will report it as ready for service to the Adjutant General.

Should the regiments or any part of them be called into service, they will be furnished by the United States with every requisite supply of subsistance, arms and ammunition and camp equipage, at the barracks and forts in the vicinity of New Orleans, together with steamers and other vessels for their transportation to Texas, and also with waggons and horses for the transportation of supplies after landing in Texas.

Nevertheless the Major Generals will report to the Adjutant General the state of the arms, munitions and other equipments of the corps they may organize, and use all their exertions to make it as complete as possible.

By order of the Commander in Chief,
J. S. ARMANT, A.G. and Ins. General.

HEAD QUARTERS—FIRST DIVISION, L. M.
New Orleans, August 20th, 1845.
GENERAL ORDERS No. 10.

1. An Election will be held on Saturday, the 6th of September next, for a Brigadier General for the 1st Brigade First Division L. M. vice Gilbert Leonard, deceased.

2. The Polls will be opened at the following places, within the different Regiments, from 10 o'clock, A. M. to 4 o'clock, P. M.

In the City of New Orleans:

For the 1st Regiment, at the Merchants' exchange, Royal street, under the superintendence of Lt Col John McHenry and Major T T Taylor.

For the 2. Regiment, at the Arsenal on the Batalion of Artillery, in 1st Precinct, under the superintendence of Major Thomas H Howard and Major Paul J Oleisse of the 4th Regiment, who is detailed on the service

For the 3rd Regiment, at the Mint Hall, opposite the Mint, under the superintendence of Col John Castellano and Lt Col J Mc Murray.

For the 30th Regiment, at the Coffeehouse, Northeast corner of Treme and Orleans street, under the superintendence of Col Hennessy and Lt Col P A Dutocat.

For the 5th Regiment, at the Coffeehouse, corner of Rampart and Bayou Road, under the superintendence of Lt Col Charles Bell and Major M Davis.

For the 40th Regiment, at Fabrique Coffeehouse, corner of Champs Elysees and Livees street, under the superintendence of Col Robert Abbott and Lt Col Henry Fort.

For the 41st Regiment, at the Franklin Hall, (Madame Caldwell's,) near the Poincheartrain Rail Road Depot, under the superintendence of Col J C Redmond and Lt Col K J Jenkins.

For the Parish of St Bernard, at the Courthouse, Terre Bonff, under the superintendence of Major J Soles of the 33 Regiment.

For the Parish of Plaquemines, at Point a la Hache, under the superintendence of Col S G Lecome of the 6th Regiment.

4th The officers above appointed Inspectors, will open the Polls and hold the Election at the time and places designated, and will in all other respects conform to the provision of an act entitled "An act for the organization and discipline of the Militia of the State, approved 16th March, 1843."

By order of
JOHN L. LEWIS,
Major General commanding First Military District L. M.
CHARLES A. LABUZAN, Aid de Camp

HEAD QUARTERS FIRST DIVISION L. M.
New Orleans, 19th August, 1845.
GENERAL ORDER No. 34.

1. Upon the requisition of Major General Gaines, commanding the Western Division of the U. S. Army, and in obedience to orders No 34 issued from the Adjutant General of the Commander in Chief, the regiments of Infantry, and two regiments of Riflemen will be organized and equipped for active service in Texas.

2. The officers of the First Division will forthwith take the most active measures to enlist men for the service, as may offer to engage, and organize them into companies, battalions and regiments.

3. As soon as organized, the commanding officer in each Brigade or Regiment will report to the Inspector of the Division.

In communicating the call to the officers and soldiers of the First Division, the Major General commanding relies with confidence on the zeal and intelligence of the officers to desire to meet promptly the requisition by voluntary engagements, without the resort to draft.

By order of
J. L. LEWIS.
Major General Commanding First Division L. M.
R. KENNEDY,
Inspector of First Division L. M.

HEAD QUARTERS LOUISIANA LEGION,
New Orleans, August 21, 1845.

CONFORMABLY to orders from Major General Lewis, commanding the First Military Division, dated the 19th instant, an order of reinforcement was issued to the Legion, in which will be inscribed, without distinction, the names of all citizens who shall have manifested offer of their services to add to swell the four regiments called for in the above mentioned orders.

The Colonel commanding the Regiment of Infantry of the Legion, will be the Inspector of Brigade, and will be duly charged with the arrangements of the present order.

The officers of the various regiments and companies are requested to cooperate by every means in their power in carrying the measure into execution.

The Brigadier General commanding the Louisiana Legion.
