A Vindication.

Amid the sedulous attempts of the Locofoco journals to pervert the motives and vilify the conduct of the whig party on all possible occasions, it is really gratifying now and then to encounter a generous antagonist, high-minded and honest enough to do justice to political opponents. Such a journalist is he of the Charleston Mercury. We need not inform our readers that the democracy of the Mercury is of the most rigid sort—and that no paper in the country more truly represents the professed principles of the party to which it is attached. But the Mercury knows how to sustain its opinions, with descending to personal abuse, and without indulging in sweeping political diatribes. It is a dignified and an able exponent of Democratic doctrines.

Under the head of "Domestic and Foreign war," the Mercury put forth views which while they demonstrate its uprightness and manly sense of justice, will be cordially subscribed to by the whigs. That journal remarks that the administration does not seem properly to appreciate the almost unanimous support of the country in the Mexican war, and the general cessation of parties in the patriotic desire to throw no obstacle in the way of the interest and glory of the nation. It justly observes, that of all the States in the Union, that one which has exhibited the liveliest and most universal enthusiasm, is the "rank whig" State of Kentucky—and that this unanimity is the more sure and creditable, as of all things war, from the train of social evils and sufferings with which it is fraught, is most apt to deepen and embitter the dissensions of parties. The Union, says the Mercury, not only gives no prominence to this remarkable phenomenon of all parties melting together for the vigorous support of a party Administration against the foreign enemy, but it studiously exaggerates every expression of dissent from particular measures of the Administration, and charges every word of criticism as a declaration of opposition to the war.

All this is as strictly true, as it is candid and honorable. The acknowledgements of the whig party are due a democratic press for demonstrating the injustice and impolicy of the course pursued by the [illegible] ative organ. We have, in common with other presses, and again and again protested against the batch of slanderous insinuations concocted by the Union against the whigs, in the matter of this war—for no other earthly purpose than to heap exclusive glory on the administration, at the expense of every sentiment of frankness and every impulse of truth. The vindication which the whig party has received through the Charleston Mercury, being free from the suspicion of interested motives, completely overthrows these vile imputations, and shows that there is at least one Locofoco journal in the land indisposed to claim honor and credit for the executive by preferring falsehood ground less charges against its opponents.

If the Union would profit by the rebuke which it receives from a political confrère, that paper might acquire some reputation for dignity and decency.

ARRIVAL OF THE ALABAMA.

LATER FROM THE ARMY.

The steam ship Alabama, Capt. WEBB, arrived at an early hour yesterday morning, from the Brazos St. Iago, which she left on the 3d inst.

The Alabama brought as passengers, Mrs. Page and servant, Mrs. Capt. Ogden, Lieut. Torr, Lieut. Carpenter, Lieut. Holt, Lieut. Foster, Major Lyons Lieut. Buier, of the Mexican Army, taken prisoner at Matamoros—Messrs. W. H. Cobb, W. S. Hour on, R. L. Scott, Canfield, Patterson, Carpenter, A. G. Hollander, D. C. Labatt, R. F. Mitchell, Bertrand, Fitzpatrick, Hill, R. D. Spann, J. Bradley, E. Barrows, M. Miller, Capt. Wood, of the steamer Col. Harney.

The Alabama reports that the steamer Col. Harney Capt. Wood, in transporting troops from the bark H. Chapin, struck on the Brazos Bar, the night of the 22d ult., and is a total loss.

The Schr. Tarry Not, in attempting to cross the bar, the 30th ult, struck, and is also a complete loss.

The steamer Frontier, Capt. Cibbs, struck on the bar at the mouth of the Rio Grande, the 19th ult—a total loss.

The Schr. Mary Marshall, was blown ashore the 4th ult. The cargo was saved, but the vessel is a total loss. At the same time a sloop, name unknown from Galveston, for Brazos St. Iago, was cast and all hands on board perished.

The steamers Telegraph and Fashion, were off Brazos Bar on the 3d inst.

The steam schooner Florida, Capt. Butler had put into Galveston, with her wheels injured on the Brazos Bar.

Among the persons brought over by the Alabama is a Mexican in irons. His name we did not learn, but understand he was arrested in Matamoros, for some notorious scoundrel, and is suspected of having participated more than one murder on American citizens.

We subjoin the letters of our intelligent correspondent which furnish details of interest, and give a complete summary of all the intelligence which had transpired since the last mail.

MATAMORAS, June 19th—9. P. M.

A Mexican citizen of this place has arrived from San Fernando, thirty leagues west from this place, who states that Carabajal, second in command to Canales, had arrived there and taken possession of every horse and mule that could be found, and was using every other means to prevent commercial intercourse with this place. He says he will put to instant death any one who attempts to go to Matamoros. The citizens of San Fernando, are in great alarm at the [illegible] nored report of the approach of the American [illegible] were making great preparations for defence. What their minds shall have become disabused with regard to our reputed devastations, the their friends at Matamoros, they will return, and every day become more and more reconciled to us. A generous[illegible] is so little known to a Mexican, that to be treated with respect and humanity strikes them with wonder and amazement.

THE CORPORAL.

MATAMORAS, June 19th—3, P. M.

Since I wrote you this evening, I have been kindly furnished by an editor of this place, with the following information, which I think you can place implicit confidence in:

CARRABAJOL, had collected some 600 or 1800 horsemen and gone on to Camargo, intending to return to this place, he came within 50 miles of it.

Canales, operations have begun to develope themselves. The informant of my friend, asserts positively, that the Alcaldes about Reynosa, Camargo and Guerrero, had [illegible] with Canales and had pitched upon a day to declare their independence, and that the people were almost unanimous in their declarations in favor of a Northern Confederacy. By the [illegible] memory you will recollect that Carrabajol spent two months at Corpus Christi, with Gen. Taylor endeavoring to get his favor to the cause.

The Mexican Army at Monterey, is reported as in a deplorable condition, suffering from disease and hunger, and desertions are daily becoming more prevalent.

I could send you a few minor items about some of the Mexican commanders, but must close [illegible] each the mail.

THE CORPORAL.

MATAMORAS, June 22nd, 1846.

An important rumor this morning, after I crossed the river, induced me to visit immediately, all the places of public resort, to ascertain whether it was true or not, but it was not my good fortune to receive any authentic account, and I am compelled therefore, to give it to you as I received it.

A Mexican citizen of this place brought last evening the news that a number of our gun-boats and launches, from the blockading squadron at Tampico, had been captured, and that great rejoicings were had wherever the news had reached, on the route he travelled. If is a piece of information difficult of finding the particulars of, for the Mexicans here, not knowing what effect it might have upon our troops, are very careful how they speak of it, and are loth to touch upon it at all. I asked several well informed citizens how the capture was made, whether in attempting to cut out some vessel that may have remained after the day of grace, or in trying to effect a landing, but could not ascertain, for invariably an answered with "don't know how," and, "all I know is that they were taken." Nor could I find out the name of the person who came in from that quarter; he is hanging, doubtless, that he might be too closely questioned. I will not my that I fully believe the report, but this is certain—all the Mexicans place implicit confidence in it.

Mexicans are arriving here almost daily from the interior and the citizens have consequently much greater opportunities of learning things above here, than we, who depend upon scouts and spies. One of these late arrivals state that there is much disaffection in the city of Mexico, and that a large number of the people are the troops from there, are in that place, are of opinion that Gen. Taylor is making forced marches for the Capitol. That Gen. Mejia (now in command) was fortifying the Bishop's house in Monterey, which, it is said, commands the whole town and passes leading thereto, anticipating also, an attack in a short time.

I heard this morning that the 4th and 7th Infantry, with one brigade of volunteers were to proceed up the river, by slow marches. If this is incorrect, I know that one is the important movement is about being made, for we have received orders to be in readiness for marching at short notice.

The horsemen from Texas who arrived here a few days ago, left Point Isabel this morning to clear their mouths of [illegible]. In this election they are far more democratic than some of the other States—instead of commissioned officers electing the staff, every man in the regiment votes.

All is quiet here yesterday, one of the Saints in Fe pronunciados had been hanging by the neck, the same table with, himself, a Mexican meeting a duel by following suit. A recognition and plead does following in the same measure, and the Mexican fell bleeding on the floor. The man imagined that he had received such inhuman treatment whilst in Prison, that he could never live again, who was an officer there, and that he had [illegible] to kill him should ever fall into their power. The ball penetrated the arm, and through the side. He is still living and may recover.

The steamer [illegible] Reynosa last week has been [illegible]

City Intelligence.

SECOND MUNICIPALITY POLICE.—John Limeghe was arrested last evening, charged with stealing a gold chain, a pair of earrings and some money from a German [illegible] which he had just arrived here, and to whom he is [illegible], just about to be married. The [illegible] was found out in good time. Ferdinand Richardson, Joseph Hoffman, Joseph Foermuen, and Michael Walther, were all arrested for taking illegal possession of a coffee house on the Levee, known as the "Mississippi coffee house." All committed for examination.

FIRST DISTRICT COURT.—William Curran, charged with attempting to maim a man named Robert Parker, by biting his nose, was sentenced yesterday to six months imprisonment in the Parish Prison. Gordon, charged with stealing $900 dollars from Jean Victor Dartigue, to which he put in a plea of guilty, was sentenced to six months imprisonment at hard labor in the Penitentiary. This latter sentence was a mitigated one, the prisoner having been strongly recommended to the clemency of the Court. A new jury panel of one hundred names has been ordered to be summoned for Thursday next. The Court adjourned till this morning.

DOUBTFUL.—The identification of Thomas Jefferson Wilson, whom we reported yesterday as being arrested for the murder of Chauncey White in East Feliciana on the 5th June last, appeared to be an incomplete and unsatisfactory to Recorder Baldwin when the case was brought up yesterday, that he remanded Wilson for further proof.

REMANDED.—L. L. Bingamin alias Bernard Reynolds, charged with stealing a horse and buggy from Mr. Rogers of Gravier street on the 1st inst., appeared for examination before Recorder Baldwin yesterday, but the prosecutor not appearing, the case was postponed to this morning.

BREACHES OF TRUST.—Charles Bernarden, accused on the affidavit of Mr. C. Laborde, with luring a horse from him and not returning it, was brought up for examination before Recorder Genois yesterday and remanded to jail for further examination. Chas. Rehfus charged with receiving 40 francs from a fellow passenger, named Jean Jung while on their passage from Havre to New Orleans, and refusing to "fork up" the same when called on, was committed to the First District Court for trial.

INQUESTS.—The Coroner held an inquest yesterday on the body of a colored woman named Elizabeth Perret, found drowned in the Bayou St. John. Also on the body of a white man, name unknown, found floating in the river opposite the Custom House.—Verdicts accordingly in both cases.

FIRST MUNICIPALITY COUNCIL.—The Council met pursuant to adjournment. Mr. Marks presented himself and took his seat and a committee of inquiry being appointed to inquire into his qualifications for the office, an unanimous report was made in his favor. The Council then proceeded to take into consideration proposals for paving Customhouse street from Royal to Rampart. There were but two—one from [illegible] Forgay and the other from Thomas Bell. The latter was accepted.

Mr. Hagan on the part of a Special Committee submitted a resolution authorizing the Mayor to lease the sugar platform by public vendue on Saturday next, for one year. All repairs to be made at the cost of the lessor, the Council reserving to itself, the right of annulling the lease at any time they may think proper. A number of petitions were read and referred, after which, the council adjourned.

Mr. BUCHANAN, it is currently believed, will be nominated for the vacant seat in the Supreme Court. His ultimate promise of the post is believed in all quarters and denied in none.

ILLINOIS.—The whigs of Illinois held a State Convention at Peoria, on the 18th inst., and nominated Thomas M. Kilpatric, of Scott county, for Governor, and H. E. Wilcox, of Schuyler county, for Lieutenant Governor. The election comes off in August.

The rumor that Mr. SLIDELL, late Minister to Mexico, had departed from Washington for the Rio Grande, is contradicted by the fact that he was in New York a few days ago, on his way to Saratoga, where he proposes to spend the summer.

POSTAGE LAW.—It appears, says the Baltimore American, that the present Postage Law has produced a much larger aggregate than was estimated by the Postmaster General, and it is evident that in a few years the receipts will exceed the outlay of the department by a large amount.

Capt. YOUNG, of the brig Telegraph, arrived here yesterday, and confirms in every respect the report previously made us to his having seen two American vessels lying inside Cape St. Antonio, and apparently captured, and also a privateer firing upon and giving chase to an American ship. This occurred on the 20th May. Captain Young arrived at Kingston on the 6th of June.

Havana.

By the arrival of the brig T. Street, we have received our files of Havana papers to the 27th June. They contain little of interest. The town of Puerto Principe had suffered greatly from revolutionary fire, intermittent and cerebral fevers prevailed and the Yellow Fever was raging with considerable violence. On 41 cases, 12 had terminated fatally. At the last accounts the epidemic was abating.

The Royal Lottery at Havana was drawn on the 26th June. The following is a list of the principal prizes: No. 29,775, $30,000; No. 12,733, $20,000. No. 10,946, $6,000; No. 5,906, $4000; Nos. 345,16,-957 and 556, each $2,000.

It is understood, says the Intelligencer of the 29th ult, that the President of the United States on Saturday last nominated to the Senate Brevet Major General ZACHARY TAYLOR to be a Major General in the Army, under a late act of Congress, and also WILLIAM O. BUTLER, of Kentucky, to be a Major General of Volunteers under the last supplementary act of Congress making provision for such appointment.

The Correspondent of the Baltimore American confirms the statement, and adds that the names Neil, Twiggs, Barrow, and Kearney are mentioned for the office of Brigadier General.

FROM THE PACIFIC.—A correspondent of the Boston Post, writing from Valparaiso under date of April 24, says—"The elections are over, and President Bulnes is again elected. We had some excitement here the last night of the election days—some sixty wounded and nine killed. This I have from one of the medicos. There were several stores robbed, and quite an attempt to raise a revolution."

The ship Hortensia of Baltimore, bad sailed, having on board Senor Carvallio, Minister from Chili to the United States, and several young Chilenos, who were to finish their education in this country. Don Felix Kenna, one of the candidates for the Presidency, had been arrested, and was with some forty others sent as a prisoner on board the frigate Chili.

The deputation sent by the Argentine Government to Chili, to ask their neutrality in the existing war, arrived at Montevideo the 9th of March, and left again for Buenos Ayres on the 25th. Their mission was entirely successful, the President refusing to assist in the least.

☞ The following comment by the Ohio "Plain, dealer," a thorough Democratic paper, is rather "an unkind cut," considering who it is that gives it!

"PHIFTY PHOUR PHORTY OR PHIGHT.—We are among those who wonder who, early in the Oregon controversy, adopted the above motto; but as we have been despoiled of the 'Phifty Phour Phorty,' by a traitorous alliance of Southern Democrats with Tory Whigs, we have nothing left us now but 'Phight;' and this, although originally intended for the British Lion, shall now be directed to those trembling souls who lie crouching at his feet. Had the President showed 'Phight' to Great Britain as valiantly as he showed 'Phifty Phour Phorty' to the people of this country, we should have had the whole of Oregon ere now. He took the responsibility in the Mexican war, and sent our army to the Rio Grande without consulting the Senate; why did he not do so in reference to Oregon, our title to which, he declared in his inaugural, to be 'clear and unquestionable?'"

MESSRS. WEBSTER and INGERSOLL.—The reports of the Committees appointed to investigate the charges of Mr. J. Ingersoll against Mr. Webster, and Mr. Ingersoll's conduct in violating the secrets of the State Department, are thus referred to by the Correspondent of the Baltimore American:

"I have read the testimony of both reports. The report of the Select Committee appointed to examine the charges against Mr. Webster is made up of the testimony of Mr. Tyler and P. O. J. Smith, the former as President of the United States who directed Mr. Webster to make the use of the secret service fund which was made of it, and the latter as one of the Agents of the Department of State in preparing the public mind for the result.

The important witnesses of the second Committee were Messrs J. Q. Adams, Tyler, Buchanan, Trist, Stubbs and Tassaro. Now, as in all this testimony there is not one word to sanction the charges of Mr. Ingersoll nearly, remotely or in any manner whatever, it is due that the public should know it. Mr. Tyler's evidence before both Committees was a complete requital of Mr. Webster, and in his answers to the interrogatories of the Committee designed to impeach Mr. Webster, his answers are complete enough to cover the whole case. I know not whether Mr. Ingersoll will be considerate enough to apologise for, what he has said, but it is due from me to make the most public retraction, and the honest world would esteem him all the more if he should do so."

Appointments by the President.

By and with the advice and consent of the Senate.

THOMAS Tenny, Surveyor and Inspector of the revenue for the port of St. Louis.

Charles Oberseyer, Consul of the United States for the city of Augsburg, in the kingdom of Bavaria.

J. George Harris, to be Purser in the navy, to fill the vacancy occasioned by the death of Purser Cox.

John D. Clark, Justice of the Peace for the county of Washington.

Elijah Snowden and Charles W. P. Custis, Justices of the Peace for the county of Alexandria.

NAVAL.—The U. S. brig Porpoise, Wm. S. Hood Lieut. Commanding, sailed from Norfolk on the 29th ult. from on cruise.

HUMBUG.—Every body, even the Savannah Republican, is not acquainted with the origin of the word humbug. It is a corruption of Hamburgh, and originated in the following manner:—During the period when war prevailed on the continent, the latter place requent and long residence there, [illegible] Hamburgh, that, on [illegible] which they could depend for the [illegible] of a document, the [illegible] find them from Hamburgh, and [illegible] humbugs, or Hamburghs, [illegible] of them.

WHOOPING-COUGH.—A letter dated at Milwaukie, June 27th, says:

"The remarkable of the different counties are taking the census of the Territory, and from present appearances our population will very but little from 150,000. Having an increase of over one hundred thousand within five years. The population of this city will not vary fifty from 9,500—an increase of 5,000 in two years. The population of the county of Milwaukie, embracing the city and seven townships, will be about 17,000. The county of Wakesha, which was set off from this county last winter, will not vary much from 20,000; making 37,000 inhabitants in a district of country thirty-three miles in length by thirty in width, which ten years ago was an unbroken wilderness. And yet the immigration to Wisconsin is larger the present than it ever has been any previous season."

DIED—On Sunday 5th inst., RHODA, youngest daughter of Wm. C. and Mary A. Taylor.

Jone's Coral Hair Restorative.

NOTE—Among the educated, there are few who will doubt but that by forcing the roots and scalp of the hair, luxuriant growth. The roots being healthy, a sediment called dandruff or scurf is discharged from the scalp; the hair now becomes soft and silky. Thus the roots strongly fastened in their native soil, proudly and [illegible] display their beauty, as a specimen of diseased nature, raised from death by the powerful aid of Science.

Having stated as above the actual, true, and real qualities of Jone's Coral Restorative, I leave the intelligent portion of the public to judge of the truth of its possessing these qualities, by the testimony of the following highly respectable editor.

(From the New York Sun, December, 1841.)

"A young gentleman, a friend of ours, living in Bleecker street, and well known in the 6th ward, was attacked with fever; the hair on the top of his head was dried off, the strands were covered with red, rusty, dry hair, filled with dandruff. He has now a beautiful head of hair, from the use of Jone's Coral Hair Restorative."
