HOURT VERSON.

We published yesterday an extract from a letter written by Josz A. Waszusoren, pro-prietor of the Mount Vernon estate, in which the states that it is not for sale. It seems that Wr. Waszusoren had long ago caused to be moderateed that he was willing to dispose of Mount Venon, or a part of it, and that the la-dies of America had taken deep interest in the subject, and had contributed largely by there of America and taken deep indurest to the subject, and had contributed largely by individual subscriptions towards the accumulation of a wiffictent fund to effect the purchase of the hallowed spot where the askes of the Father of his Country repose. In this noble said beautiful enterprise they found able and subscription operators—and none more sosiblen the Hon. Dowand Neurert, who has donated the handsome the control of the control of the country of the Munat Yernon fund. A large amount had been secured, and the ladies connected with the undertaking were pressing it with commendable activity, and in the well-founded hope that they would some be able to carry into affect their patricular determination, when lo! Mr. Joses A. Wastburrow reconsiders his views, and announces that Mount Vernon is not for sale.

N. worder the press echoes the astonishment of the nation; or that respectable journals regard the conduct of Mr. Wastburrow in a particularly unfavorable light. One of
