&ELECTIONS
From Calcutta Gazeftes to the 12 th of Nov. laft.

An Englifh paper of the 20th of haft May mentions, that about fifty gun brigs, luggers, &cc. came out of Flufhing to attack the gallant defenter of Acre, Sir Sidney Smith: after a few breadfides, however, they were obliged to fheer off: the gallant Sir Sidney dafhed in anoag-them, regardlefs of the fire of their batterius, unit his fhip took the ground, when he was obliged to theer off: the frigates, three, with the Cruifer gun brig in company, fuffered very much in fails and rigring; feven of the enemy's gun boats were luak, one take., and between 20 and 30 run on thore; the reft efcaped, fome back into Flufing, and fome to Oftend; a very heavy firing was heard here near! the whole of yeiterday, which we fuppofe was Sir Sidney following up his blow in attacking the remainder in Ottend harbour ; nothing but the fhallow aefo of the coaft faved the whole of their fanalle from deffustion. We expect the news of gefterjay's camomale every thoir.

His Majefy's fis lis, from the Eat Iadies. laft from St. Heiena, arrived at Portfmouth on the $25^{\text {th }}$ of lait April, with feveral Indiamen under convoy from liengal; befides the following fouth wrhalers, viz. the Mary, Reberca, Cyrus, and Gangzi-the twe latter prize to the Senpi on, Capzain Dagg.

The "Ship Neivs" contained in the London papers the 28.1 of laft Apri! prefented a traly melancholy account of ont outward bound Weit latia Aeet, not leis than forty fall of which veie lof upon the coaft of Portugal the 210 of the fame mosth, with part of the ciews, ad many of the cargoes. We are excmely fory to lean, that the Apolio frigate, Cupai: Dixon, convoying tue abote. yos allo lot, and the Capain, thad lict 4 m, and nearly 100 of the crew untortupase doosed. At Amferdan 1500 warehoules and magrai es are advertied to we fold or let; anjat Rotterdan, 46). The value of loufes in thefe treo cities has decreaced three eig'ts, and of comatry houfes nearly a half from within thele two years. A: Amtead $n$, of a popuiation of 202,000 , St.o30 are defceibed as reduced to bergray and in neel of reliet.-The exc ange of Anferdam, at well as that of Rotterdam, is almof emoy, fare French police agents demand paties, or arref any perfon they choofe to regand as fatpected, or to accule of tradng with Eighand.

The West India Docks. necupying a furface of thircy acres for unloading all vefiels coming from the Weft India Iflunds and Colonies, has been compleated fome tires fince, and thete is now fufficient accommodation in the lubfantial and extenfive ftacks of warehoùfes for fuch merchants as wifh to bond or to houfe their commodities within the walls, unexpoted to fire or plurder, as no lights are fuffered at any time, nor any perfon allowed to remain on board, or within the walls after dark. The excacation of the dock for loadiug, which is to o cupy $t$ wenty four acres, is proceediag in with great firit. In the meanwhile, it is highly gratifying to the Subfcribers. and encouraging to thefe grand national undertakings, to fiod that the profits warrant a dividend of ten per cent. on the fums already fubferibed, and which the fubleribers have bogun to receive.

NAIIVES.

With inexprefible concern we have to recount a feries of barbarities lately practifed by a banditti of thefe people, inhabiting the out-Rkirts of Hawkeßury.

Laft Wednedday te'nnight a fellow known by the name of Branch fack went to the farm of John Llewellyn, one of the Military fettlers, who was at dinner with his labousing fervant in a field; he was invited to partake of the fare; and after fharing in the repaft, found means to get the fettler's mufket and powder hotn ia his poffefion, with which he made off with a loud yell, which was returned by about 25 others that had beise concealed themfeives, but now came forward, and difeharged feveral fpears at the uafortuate men, two of which entered the mater's breaft, who fell imnediately, two others pifing between the fervants legs. The latter requeling to know their motive for the barbarous affault, was anfwe:ed by a Aight of tpears, one of which penetrated his fhoulder, and another one of his groins. After he ha' iallen the natives clofed upon him, and thrice fruck him on the head with a tomahawk, each blow oceafioning a dreadful wound. They then hurried the unfortunate objeg of their fury towards the bank of the river, and hurled him downwards; when he had lain fome tume half immerfed he heard the groans of his unhappy mafter, who was finortly after difpatched by fome of the affailants who returned to all appearence purpofe ly : and fuppofing the fervant dead, left the fite of horror. In this deplorable condition the poor man lay for the fpace of two whale diys; and when upon the very point of expiring, was finatched by the hand of Providence $\mathrm{f}_{\mathrm{i}}$ on imnediate death, and taken to Hawkefbury in a boat accicently pafing, where he gave the above detail to the Magiftratethere refident.

On the fane day another event of the fame horriblekind took place at the branch, within three miles of the above. The farm houfe of T. Allan was fet on fire by abody of tatives fuppoied to be the fame; a.1 afier the alarm hat been given, a fearch was made for the fettler and his man, but they had Chared a inercilefs fate, a part of their Relicks being found anong the athes, and the remainder icattered piecemeal, to become the prey of prowling animals and caraiverous birds; from which circumfance it is probably conjectured, that after the ill-fated people had been inhumanly murdered, theis limbswere fevered and wantonly fcattered.
It fince appears, that fome of the fe pitilefs barbarians had feveral weeks before intimated their detefted purpofe to leveral individuals, who treated it with levity, as nothing was vifible in their deportment that could juitify fufpicion of a hoftile change.

The above furvivor, jwhofe name is John Knight, gave the foregoing detail upon Fritay evening; and armed boats were fent from the Green Hills, to prevent any further mifehief about the Branches: and it is devoutly to be hoped that the meafures adopted by order of His Excrilency may bring the barbarities to a fpeedy crifis.

It is fometimes contended, that thele outrages are only acts of retaliation for injuries received; but fuch a perfuation muft be allowed to yield to oblervation and experience to the contrary.
Snould it at any time appear that an individual amenable to the law abufes by maltreatment any of thele people, the offence is immediately inveftigated, and the fighteft act of injuftice treated with even greater rigour than it would have been had the complaint proceeded from a European. The natives are themfelves perfectly aware of the protection they owe to the Government and its Officers; and feldom iuffer an occatfion to efcape of reprefenting the nightef grievance.

Duriug the laft Twelvemonth no complaint has been fet up by a natire, except in one ingle inftance of affaultabout four months fince: and in confequence of which the aggrefior, altho' a freeman, was commitced to the Connty Gaol from Hawkefburp; and ftill remains a labourer in the gaol gang.

Nor did the act of this delinquent extend fur ther than a blow, as he himfelf declares in his own juftification, to a native who defigned to plunder him, fo infrangible are the Regulations providing for their fecurity by indicting exemplary punifhment upon any whofe wait of humanity might fimulate them to acts of wapton yiolence againit this race of men.

The benefits they daily receive from the fettlers and other inhabitants are on the. other hand boundlefs, and fhould lay claim to every grateful return, which can extend no further than to a paffive forbearance from rapacity; but ne confideration whatever can bind them; nor even fecure from affaffination him that is in the very act of contributing to their relief from want. And notiing further need be faid to refute a no ion of their being actuated to enormity by a principle of refentment, than the bare recollection that thofe enormities are periodical in their commencement, at every ieafon when they may defpil the fettler of his crop, and reap by ftealth and open violence the produce of a tract they are themfelves too indolent to cultivate; and unleis a provoked oppofition to their doing which be deeined a provocation to the renewal of mifchiefs, certain we are that no pretence cation whatever can exift.

A burglary was on Tuefday night laft effeeted in the dwelling of Mr. Nathaniel Lucas, in Piti's Row, between the hours of II and 12; but a fmall property was taken away, owing to the villains being difturbed. They had wrenched open the back door, the noife occafioned thereby being a tributdd to the yard dojo and the neeglect of iis being properly fecured. But finortly after the door of a lower apartment in which the greater part of Mr. Lucas's property was depoited, was hiard a!fo to open. anid thorty afier the lid of a large cheft to be raifed; whereupon an alarim was given. by two perfons in an a joining room, when the vilains ruihed violently againt the door, as if determined to force it ii:wards, in order to filence the noite ; but failing in their ends preceptiately made off through the garden fence. Two perfons were on $W$ edicfday murning app:ehended on fufficion of the fact, and committed for examination.
A report prevaiis, that two of the perions employed by Mr. A. Thompron as falt boilers at Broken Bay are miffing firce Monday Jaft; and that the apprehenfion is freingthcined by the circumftance of their orms being found, it being improbable, that if they had fled for fecurity from the natives, they fiould have gone off urarmed, unlefs unfortunately cut off from the flice they were left at, and preciptately obliged to take refuge in the woods.
Meffrs. Kable and Co. intend to launch the finip King George the firtt fring tile, which will happen about the latter end of $1 . \mathrm{ext}$ week.
Late on Wedreflay night a dreadful thunder form fee in from the weftward, which 1 aifed about two hours withextreme violence, and was accomparied with a heavy fall of $x_{4}$ in, and fome very vivid light ing, fucceeded by comflant deluges of rain almoft ever fince. Happily, however, we do not underftand shat any difagreeable circumftance has been the confequence.
On Monday two millers in Government Employ recelved a corporal puniflmert for negleet of woik, and repeated difubedience of orders.

Ard on Tueflay two finiths were alfo punifled on the complaint of their overfer.

On Monday Zobn Montague, a labouring fervant of the Crown confined to the gaol qang, abfoonded from public labour at Fort Shilip; and is fuppofed to have taken to fonic of the out-fettlements. He has an impediment in his fpeech, and wore a red jacket whicn he went away.

An arimal of a truly fingular and nouvel defription was killed by dogs the 30th of March on 2 hill immediately contiguous to the fittlement at Yorkton Port Dalrymple; from the following minute deficription of which, by Lieutenant Governor Patersov, it muft he conifidered of a fpecies persealy diftina from any of he animal creation hitherto-thoven, and certainly the only powertul and terrific of the carsiverous and voracious tribe yet difoovered on anyepart of New Hoikatid or its adjacent I Aands.
-. It is very evi.e t his fpecies is deftruc. tive, and lives entirely cn animal food; as ondiffection his fromach was fuund filled with 2 quantity of kangaroo, weighing 5 ibs. the weight of the whole animal 451 bs . From its in terior ftructure it muft be a brute peculiarly quick of digeftion; the dimenfions were, from the nole to the eye $4 \frac{3}{2}$ inches : length of the eye, which is remarkably large an:d black, $1 \frac{1}{4}$ ninches; breadth of the eye $\frac{3}{4}$ of an inch; from the nole to the extent of

The fhip Myrtic, Caprain Barber, is intended to fail this day for the North-we.t Coaft.

On Tuefday failed the Surprife, Kable ix Ce. for King's-town.

The Governor King (fane owners), to fail when the weather permits, for the coatt of New Zealaud ; and the Governor Fiun$\mathrm{t}^{\mathrm{er} \text {, Nichois, for the Strai s. }}$

Tbomas Definond, a prifoner that has re. peate ly abfented nimfurf form the fectiement at Newalle, and under :lll the vicuffudes cankepant upon fo dargerous and precarious an enterprife thice male his way into this iettlement, is at the prefent monent in close cuftedy, in onder once more to be returaed to the pher from whence he fed. Theturrizude of this infexible and audacious fugitive ob?inatcly decermines hin to oppoie every authonity that may be exercifed in the lenient pu ithment of his offences, which by a perverie conduct ftill aggravated, the neceflary retribution is of courfe proportionably augmented. Having thus fiequently braved the rigours unforiunately indipenifble to the fecurity of fociecy and the maintenance of a mild fusordination, the fanguine hope of his reformation cannot be entertained; yet the m:afure judiciouly adhered to of remanding is refrastory a coaracter, will, it may be hoped, have its defired operaton upon the lefs callous mind, and by the eficacy of example inform the unfertunate who may labour under the inne fiate difpleafare of che lav, thas the participation of by angence is attainable by thole alone who by amodgent cndeavour to deferve it.

A remarkeble care, being that of incontinene, was laft weck exhaited in form of complaizt to a (jenteman of the MagiAracy at a near fettlement, which was adjufted by the male offender being difiniffed from an eli. lefervitue, and marched towards Cafte-illt-a:d masan Dcjdenonq turned adrift with contempe and deceftation: for if any whedenone ag? ravirn be conceivable to an offence chioviou; to morali y as to the laws divine and human, it was referved for this offender, whofe paramour, to perpezuate her infamy, was of a complex ron dianetrically contrafied to her own. to her own.
The fracture mentioned to have happened in the Bridge is nearly repaired by Givernment artificest and in a manner that will infure it fromaty fimilar accident in that pars, the wall cxceeding the fomer in thicprasefs in more than 2 double proportion.

Michael Connor, a fettler at Kiffing Point, had lavely the misfortune to lole a fine cow, which died while calving; a circumftance to be regretted, as well from its diminution of fo valuable a fock, as from the immediate prejudice occafioned by the weig ity lo's to the circumflances of a large but infant family.

A Lancanire paper contains the following anecdute, in confirmation of the idea entertained of the firit of the people of Ergtand:-A man with a rare-fiow fopped io exhibit on Lanca hire Bridge, Stockport. A crowd of people, as uftual, gathered about hin; amongtt the seft, a Volunteer wilked to have a peepat what vas going on infide; he paid his tialpenny, and aplic 1 his eye to the glais. The howman had thow. 1 our hero half the fine cities in the world, and at length came to Paris-"'There (aid he) is the famous city of Paris; and there You fee t'le great Bonaparte hara:gu $s$ his troope for the invafion of Englaud." the indignast fobliar could contain hivafelf no longer ; his fury was roufed at the fight of his notorious enemy: in an intiant he grafied the devoted how box. and threw ath the fine cities in the world, with Bonaparte and his troops, over the bridge-" And there you fee (cried he) Bonaparce and his troops drowning, and be d-I to them."

Infunt Voluntiers.-A party of boys, amounting in number to about fifty, on Thurfday made their appearence in the Sranl, in grand military array-colours Aying, drums beating, &c. The Commander in Chief, about ten years of age, was diflin guifhed not only by the fuperior elegance of his uniform, but by his being mounted or a noble charger in miniature (a very beautiful poney), upon which he maintained his feat with all the dignity and gravity of an experienced officer. Tie interior officers made a no lefs relpectable appearance and to do the privates juftices, they marched in flow and quick time with very great precifion. The drums and fifes were alfo excellent. The novelty of this young band of Patriots collected a vaft crowd, who followed them through various ftreets in the neighbourhood o. the strand with general marks of fatisfac: tion.
