NEW-ORLEANS BEE.

OFFICIAL GAZETTE OF THE STATE, GENERAL COUNCIL, OF THE FIRST AND THIRD MUNICIPALITIES, PRINTED BY JEROME BAYON, No. 110, CHARTRES.

No 226. NEW ORLEANS, THURSDAY MORNING, JUNE 15, 1837. Vol. X

TERMS OF THE BEE.

SUBSCRIPTION.—Twelve $ Mare for the Daily paper, per month, payable every month in advance. Ten dollars for the tri-weekly country paper, payable one year in advance, where no city reference is given. No subscription will be discontinued until arrearages are settled. In case of discontinuance, one week's notice, in writing, must be invariably given, previous to the expiration of subscription.

ADVERTISING.—One dollar per square, for the first insertion, and half that price for each subsequent one; a reasonable deduction from the original advertisement will be charged as a new one. TEN lines or less constitute a square.

YEARLY ADVERTISERS.—Merchants and Traders, Auctioneers for English alone and 60 for both languages, Banks, Insurance Offices, and other similar public institutions, fifty dollars in English only, and $75 for both languages. Shop in a common Boarding House, or publication of a prospectus fifty dollars in English alone and $80 for both languages.

MARRIAGE AND OBITUARY NOTICES.—Articles call the attention of the public to sales of property, exhibitions, passengers, benefits, &c. &c. will be charged fifty cents per square, for the first insertion in each case.

SUBSCRIPTIONS or Advertisements of any personal or private nature unbecoming the character of a public paper, will be charged double, and inserted accordingly.

ALL communications free of post, will be made to the Secretaries, Registrar of Wills and Marshal, and all letters on public business to both Municipalities, must be post paid, or they will not be taken out of the Post Office.

ADVERTISEMENTS, or Notices of business, must be handed in before noon, to insure insertion the same day; and no alteration can be made in those of regular insertion, after the first publication.

ALL letters and other pieces of business or amusement, which the writer may wish to be published, must be accompanied with the name of the author, not necessarily for publication, but as a guarantee of his responsibility, and as a security for the correctness of the statements made.

ALL letters not specified as to time will be inserted in each and all the second night after the receipt of the same, unless they are published by a responsible person in person.

Letters and other pieces of amusement, advertisements, &c. must be handed in before 12 o'clock for insertion the same day, and failure to do so will be charged double the price of other advertisements.
