$25 REWARD.—Will be paid to the person or persons who will stop the negro man named AMOS, about 35 years old, about 5 feet 8 inches high, rather stout, with a thin yellowish face, has a scar on one eye brow; he had on part roundjean pantaloons and black jacket of the same stuff, but he had plenty of other clothes which he took with him. He absented himself from our plantation in St. James, on the 29th ult. As a skiff was stolen from one of the neighbors on the following night it is supposed he may have come to the city, to try to get on board of some steamboat. Captains of vessels are forwarned not to take him, at their perils. Amos is very intelligent, and has been employed formerly on steaming vessels as a seaman,—no doubt he will try to pass himself off as a free man. The above reward will be paid to whoever will lodge him in any of the jails of the city there, or Mrs. Mary Ann Bell, in Lafayette, or to
