P. A. Bertrand's Daphne Syrup.

A SPECIFIC FOR SCROFULOUS DISEASES.

New Orleans.

I ONLY experience and constant observation are necessary to convince the public that the Syrup of Daphne is justly recommended as a specific for diarrhœa and dysentery. Its efficacy in these cases is a very old one, and its virtues will be checked infallibly in its most acute and severe stages

LEGAL NOTICES.

MAYORALTY OF NEW ORLEANS.

City Hall, 30th July, 1848.

ORDINANCE relative to Mendicants.

Sitting of Wednesday, 19th June, 1848.

ORDINANCE supposing Dogs of the Municipality to Tax.

Be it therefore ordained, that the owner of every Dog shall pay a tax of one dollar with the owner's name inscribed thereon, and further, that every Dog shall wear a metallic ring the summer months, to wit: from the first of May to the first of November, in each year.

Be it further ordained, That from and after the 1st day of May to the first day of November, in each and every year, every person is hereby authorized and empowered to kill any animal of the Dog kind, found running at large, in contravention of the foregoing article, and such person shall be entitled to a bounty of one dollar for each and every animal of the Dog kind so killed, and presenting the said proofs, by the Municipalities on the warrant of the Mayor.

Art. 3. Be it further ordained, That it shall be and is hereby made the duty of the Commissaries of Police of the several Municipalities, to cause all animals so killed to be removed, and buried in some convenient part, in the rear of said Municipalities, and any Commissary refusing or neglecting so to do shall be removed by the Mayor.

Art. 4. Be it further ordained, That any person or persons interfering with or preventing any free person from killing and destroying any animal of the Dog kind, found in contravention to this Ordinance, shall on conviction thereof, be fined, any competent Tribunal, in a sum not exceeding fifty dollars, for the benefit of the Charity Hospital.

Art. 5. Be it further ordained, That any person or persons who shall kill or destroy any animal of the Dog kind, not in contravention to the provisions of the Ordinance, shall be fined in a sum not exceeding two hundred dollars, recoverable before any competent Tribunal, for the benefit of the owner of said animal.

Art. 6. Be it further ordained, That the Printer of the General Council, shall print and deliver to the Mayor, five hundred copies of this Ordinance, for the purpose of the same to be placarded in the most populous streets of this City.

Art. 7. Be it further ordained, That the Ordinance concerning Dogs, approved 19th of January, 1847, and all Ordinances or parts of Ordinances contrary to the provisions of this Ordinance be, and the same are hereby repealed.

AN ORDINANCE to prohibit the running at large of Animals of the Dog kind within the limits of the City of New Orleans—

Art. 1. Be it ordained by the General Council of the City of New Orleans, That from and after the first day of May, 1847, no animal of the Dog kind shall be allowed to run at large within the limits of the Municipalities of said City, unless such animal shall have around his or her neck, a collar with a metal plate on it, with the name and residence of the owner of such animal; and shall also have a good strong substantial and safe wire basket muzzle, secured and fastened as effectually to prevent him from biting or snapping. No slut when in heat, whether muzzled or not, shall be allowed to run at large in the City, any Dog or slut found in contravention, shall be destroyed as hereinafter provided.

Art. 2. Be it further ordained, That from and after the 1st day of May to the first day of November, in each year, every person is hereby authorized and empowered to kill any animal of the Dog kind, found running at large, in contravention of the foregoing article, and such person shall be entitled to a bounty of one dollar for each and every animal of the Dog kind so killed, and presenting the said proofs, by the Municipalities on the warrant of the Mayor.

Art. 3. Be it further ordained, That it shall be and is hereby made the duty of the Commissaries of Police of the several Municipalities, to cause all animals so killed to be removed, and buried in some convenient part, in the rear of said Municipalities, and any Commissary refusing or neglecting so to do shall be removed by the Mayor.

Art. 4. Be it further ordained, That any person or persons interfering with or preventing any free person from killing and destroying any animal of the Dog kind, found in contravention to this Ordinance, shall on conviction thereof, be fined, any competent Tribunal, in a sum not exceeding fifty dollars, for the benefit of the Charity Hospital.

Art. 5. Be it further ordained, That any person or persons who shall kill or destroy any animal of the Dog kind, not in contravention to the provisions of the Ordinance, shall be fined in a sum not exceeding two hundred dollars, recoverable before any competent Tribunal, for the benefit of the owner of said animal.

Art. 6. Be it further ordained, That the Printer of the General Council, shall print and deliver to the Mayor, five hundred copies of this Ordinance, for the purpose of the same to be placarded in the most populous streets of this City.

Art. 7. Be it further ordained, That the Ordinance concerning Dogs, approved 19th of January, 1847, and all Ordinances or parts of Ordinances contrary to the provisions of this Ordinance be, and the same are hereby repealed.
