TO RENT.

The store No 18, Chartres street, lately occupied by Messrs Dwight & Trowbridge, as a clothing & carpet store, and that is simply rectified is gifted with the power of solving the delicate and intricate question of self-defence. It is time to restrict—within proper limits this pretended right of person al protection; it is time to teach our population to ab stain from mutual murder upon slight provocation.—Duelling, Heaven knows, is dreadful enough, and quite a sufficient means of gratifying private aversion, and avenging insult. Frequent and serious brawls in our cafes, srests and houses, every where attest the insufficiency or misapplication of our legal code, or the weakness of its organs. To say that our unbounded license is the result of liberty is folly. Liberty is the consequence of well regulated laws—without those, Freedom can exist only in name, and the law which favors the escape of the opulent and aris, trocratic from the penalties of retribution, but consigns the poor and friendless to the chain gang or the gallows, is in fact the very essence of slavery.
