

The Orleans Bee.

NEW ORLEANS, FRIDAY MORNING, SEPTEMBER 8, 1864.

BATHS OF ADVERTISING
The Office of the Bee is open for the reception of advertisements of every description. The rates are as follows: For the first insertion, one cent per line; for subsequent insertions, one-half cent per line. For long advertisements, the rates are proportionately reduced. Advertisements are inserted at the discretion of the publisher, and are not returned unless accompanied by the cash or a note payable to the order of the publisher. The office is open from 10 o'clock A. M. to 10 o'clock P. M. every day except Sunday and public holidays.

THE WAR.

By Telegraph!
The following are the latest news received by telegraph from the front. The Union army has been successful in its operations in the West, and the Confederates have been driven back. The Union army has been successful in its operations in the West, and the Confederates have been driven back. The Union army has been successful in its operations in the West, and the Confederates have been driven back.

COMMERCIAL.

RECEIPTS.
The following are the receipts for the week ending September 7, 1864. The receipts for the week ending September 7, 1864, were as follows: Cotton, 100 bales; Sugar, 500 barrels; Rice, 200 barrels; Flour, 100 barrels; and other commodities.

WANTS, LOST ETC.

WANTS.
A person is wanted for a position in the office of the Bee. The person should be a native-born American, and should have a good education. The salary is $100 per month. The person should apply to the office of the Bee, at No. 100 N. Second Street, New Orleans, Louisiana.

SHIPS & STEAMERS.

SHIPS & STEAMERS.
The following are the ships and steamers that are scheduled to depart from New Orleans for various ports. The ships are: The "Orleans," the "Louisiana," the "Mississippi," and the "Alabama." The steamers are: The "Orleans," the "Louisiana," the "Mississippi," and the "Alabama."

STATIONERY, ETC.

STATIONERY, ETC.
The following are the stationery and other goods that are available for sale. The goods are: Stationery, paper, ink, and other office supplies. The goods are available for sale at the office of the Bee, at No. 100 N. Second Street, New Orleans, Louisiana.

THE WAR.
The Union army has been successful in its operations in the West, and the Confederates have been driven back. The Union army has been successful in its operations in the West, and the Confederates have been driven back. The Union army has been successful in its operations in the West, and the Confederates have been driven back.

COMMERCIAL.
The following are the receipts for the week ending September 7, 1864. The receipts for the week ending September 7, 1864, were as follows: Cotton, 100 bales; Sugar, 500 barrels; Rice, 200 barrels; Flour, 100 barrels; and other commodities.

WANTS, LOST ETC.
A person is wanted for a position in the office of the Bee. The person should be a native-born American, and should have a good education. The salary is $100 per month. The person should apply to the office of the Bee, at No. 100 N. Second Street, New Orleans, Louisiana.

SHIPS & STEAMERS.
The following are the ships and steamers that are scheduled to depart from New Orleans for various ports. The ships are: The "Orleans," the "Louisiana," the "Mississippi," and the "Alabama." The steamers are: The "Orleans," the "Louisiana," the "Mississippi," and the "Alabama."

STATIONERY, ETC.
The following are the stationery and other goods that are available for sale. The goods are: Stationery, paper, ink, and other office supplies. The goods are available for sale at the office of the Bee, at No. 100 N. Second Street, New Orleans, Louisiana.

THE WAR.
The Union army has been successful in its operations in the West, and the Confederates have been driven back. The Union army has been successful in its operations in the West, and the Confederates have been driven back. The Union army has been successful in its operations in the West, and the Confederates have been driven back.

COMMERCIAL.
The following are the receipts for the week ending September 7, 1864. The receipts for the week ending September 7, 1864, were as follows: Cotton, 100 bales; Sugar, 500 barrels; Rice, 200 barrels; Flour, 100 barrels; and other commodities.

WANTS, LOST ETC.
A person is wanted for a position in the office of the Bee. The person should be a native-born American, and should have a good education. The salary is $100 per month. The person should apply to the office of the Bee, at No. 100 N. Second Street, New Orleans, Louisiana.

SHIPS & STEAMERS.
The following are the ships and steamers that are scheduled to depart from New Orleans for various ports. The ships are: The "Orleans," the "Louisiana," the "Mississippi," and the "Alabama." The steamers are: The "Orleans," the "Louisiana," the "Mississippi," and the "Alabama."

STATIONERY, ETC.
The following are the stationery and other goods that are available for sale. The goods are: Stationery, paper, ink, and other office supplies. The goods are available for sale at the office of the Bee, at No. 100 N. Second Street, New Orleans, Louisiana.

THE WAR.
The Union army has been successful in its operations in the West, and the Confederates have been driven back. The Union army has been successful in its operations in the West, and the Confederates have been driven back. The Union army has been successful in its operations in the West, and the Confederates have been driven back.

COMMERCIAL.
The following are the receipts for the week ending September 7, 1864. The receipts for the week ending September 7, 1864, were as follows: Cotton, 100 bales; Sugar, 500 barrels; Rice, 200 barrels; Flour, 100 barrels; and other commodities.

WANTS, LOST ETC.
A person is wanted for a position in the office of the Bee. The person should be a native-born American, and should have a good education. The salary is $100 per month. The person should apply to the office of the Bee, at No. 100 N. Second Street, New Orleans, Louisiana.

SHIPS & STEAMERS.
The following are the ships and steamers that are scheduled to depart from New Orleans for various ports. The ships are: The "Orleans," the "Louisiana," the "Mississippi," and the "Alabama." The steamers are: The "Orleans," the "Louisiana," the "Mississippi," and the "Alabama."

STATIONERY, ETC.
The following are the stationery and other goods that are available for sale. The goods are: Stationery, paper, ink, and other office supplies. The goods are available for sale at the office of the Bee, at No. 100 N. Second Street, New Orleans, Louisiana.

THE WAR.
The Union army has been successful in its operations in the West, and the Confederates have been driven back. The Union army has been successful in its operations in the West, and the Confederates have been driven back. The Union army has been successful in its operations in the West, and the Confederates have been driven back.

COMMERCIAL.
The following are the receipts for the week ending September 7, 1864. The receipts for the week ending September 7, 1864, were as follows: Cotton, 100 bales; Sugar, 500 barrels; Rice, 200 barrels; Flour, 100 barrels; and other commodities.

WANTS, LOST ETC.
A person is wanted for a position in the office of the Bee. The person should be a native-born American, and should have a good education. The salary is $100 per month. The person should apply to the office of the Bee, at No. 100 N. Second Street, New Orleans, Louisiana.

SHIPS & STEAMERS.
The following are the ships and steamers that are scheduled to depart from New Orleans for various ports. The ships are: The "Orleans," the "Louisiana," the "Mississippi," and the "Alabama." The steamers are: The "Orleans," the "Louisiana," the "Mississippi," and the "Alabama."

STATIONERY, ETC.
The following are the stationery and other goods that are available for sale. The goods are: Stationery, paper, ink, and other office supplies. The goods are available for sale at the office of the Bee, at No. 100 N. Second Street, New Orleans, Louisiana.

THE WAR.
The Union army has been successful in its operations in the West, and the Confederates have been driven back. The Union army has been successful in its operations in the West, and the Confederates have been driven back. The Union army has been successful in its operations in the West, and the Confederates have been driven back.

COMMERCIAL.
The following are the receipts for the week ending September 7, 1864. The receipts for the week ending September 7, 1864, were as follows: Cotton, 100 bales; Sugar, 500 barrels; Rice, 200 barrels; Flour, 100 barrels; and other commodities.

WANTS, LOST ETC.
A person is wanted for a position in the office of the Bee. The person should be a native-born American, and should have a good education. The salary is $100 per month. The person should apply to the office of the Bee, at No. 100 N. Second Street, New Orleans, Louisiana.

SHIPS & STEAMERS.
The following are the ships and steamers that are scheduled to depart from New Orleans for various ports. The ships are: The "Orleans," the "Louisiana," the "Mississippi," and the "Alabama." The steamers are: The "Orleans," the "Louisiana," the "Mississippi," and the "Alabama."

STATIONERY, ETC.
The following are the stationery and other goods that are available for sale. The goods are: Stationery, paper, ink, and other office supplies. The goods are available for sale at the office of the Bee, at No. 100 N. Second Street, New Orleans, Louisiana.