CITY INTELLIGENCE.

The Slaughter Controversy—Further Argument.—In the Sixth District Court yesterday Judge Campbell resumed his argument in favor of the Butchers' Association in their controversy with the Mississippi Slaughter Company. Judge Campbell's argument occupying the attention of the court during its session Tuesday, and much of that morning, was a masterly, eloquent and, we think, almost, if not quite, unanswerable effort. We have only room to notice it very briefly.

Judge Campbell, in resuming yesterday, gave a review of his argument previously published in full in the Bee, both documents of the Crescent City Company and the Butchers' Association may be said to be already before the public.

It involved upon Judge Campbell, the author of the document which that objected to, to answer the argument of the Crescent City Company's counsel and to justify the terms in which the grievances of the butchers had been presented to the court. We have given in our local columns an abstract of the principal points made by Judge Campbell, which, it is needless to say, were urged before Judge Cooley with a force, a wealth of illustration and learning for which that eminent jurist is so deservedly distinguished. The argument itself, as taken down from his lips, we understand, will be published in a few days. The weight of his reasoning was thrown against the unjust and unconstitutional features of the statute, in addition to which a powerful effort was made to convince the court that the act of the Legislature incorporating the company contained intrinsic evidence that it could not have been adopted by that body now approved by the Executive, unless improper means had been used by the parties in whose favor the act was passed. The object of the effort being to show that it was competent for the Court to inquire into the facts thus alleged, and if the Legislature and Governor were proved to have been bribed, that the act incorporating the Crescent City Company should be declared null and void for fraud.

Mr. Rosselius and Mr. Randall Hunt have the closing of the argument, which will probably be concluded to-day.

Should Judge Cooley determine to sustain the exceptions taken by the defendants, the suit will be dismissed without going into the trial of the merits of the case, and the whole argument will have to be repeated before the Seventh District Court, where similar suits have been instituted. Should the exceptions be overruled, the case in the Sixth District Court will then be in a shape for trial in due course.

The general public are interested in this litigation only in so far as principle is involved—the principle that mischievous monopolies being contrary to right cannot be legalized by act of the Legislature. They are also interested with the butchers so far as an abundant supply of meat in our markets is concerned. It is not to be doubted that public opinion, for these reasons, on same the butchers. From present appearance, we think it is safe to say that the usual supply of meat will be found here—also in the various markets of the city.

THE STEAMER RICHMOND FOR LOUISVILLE.—Now that warm weather is upon us, and many of our citizens doubtless contemplate making excursions to a cooler latitude, we take occasion to remind them that the superb steamer Richmond, commanded by that popular and experienced officer, Capt. J. Smut Neal, will leave this (Thursday) evening, at 5 o'clock, for Louisville. The accommodations of the Richmond, like the charms of a fine lady, speak for themselves, and you have only to be fairly introduced to her by making a trip on her once to wish you could go voyaging on her a hundred times. Messrs. Sinnott & Adams, Charnpomtal Place, are the agents for the Richmond.

The Richmond was to have left yesterday, but has been detained unavoidably till this evening.

Owing to the impossibility of unloading, the steamer Richmond has delayed her departure until to-day (Thursday) at 5 o'clock P. M.

We acknowledge receipt of an invitation to attend the celebration of the 11th anniversary of the Young Men's Benevolent Association on Sunday, June 27.

The procession will move from the Hall of the Association, corner of Customhouse street and Exchange Place, at 10 o'clock A. M., and proceed to the National Theatre, where they will receive a banner, to be presented by some of its friends. They will then march to the Hall of the Portuguese Benevolent Association, on Bayou Road, between St. Claude and Treme streets, where a collation will be served.

Messrs. Stafford & Weymouth announce, through our advertising columns to-day, that they are prepared to furnish to Butchers newly slaughtered meat at prices less than it will cost them to slaughter their own. Their stand is at the Fulton Market, corner Old Levee and St Peter street, near Jackson Square.

We invite the attention of our readers to the advertisement of S. B. Churchill and Brothers, 41 Magazine street, in this day's issue. They have on hand a large quantity of McClellan saddles at $4 each. Also, 500 rifles, 500 shot guns, and a large assortment of table and pocket cutlery and other hardware.

A highly intelligent lady, a resident of Syracuse, N Y, says that she was afflicted nearly a year, periodically, with derangement of the stomach, the blood rushing to the lungs with such force as to threaten congestion and death. This was attended with the most excruciating pain in all parts of the body. Failing to obtain relief from any of the physicians whom she consulted from time to time, she was induced to try the PLANTATION BITTERS, and to her surprise and joy they have relieved her, and she is now in good health and flesh.

MAGNOLIA WATER—Superior in the bath imported German Cologne, and sold at half the price.

SAILING OF THE TRADE WIND.—The steamship Trade Wind, Captain J. T. Merrill, sailed last evening for Belize Honduras, with a good freight and the following named passengers:

Thomas Guthrie and Family, Jose Selsse, M Jourdan, F W Tye, Louis Redenbacher, E Heine, Miss F Jourdan, F A L Estrange.

The Radical Attorney General of Indiana has given an official opinion, that the passage of laws in the Legislature of that State, after the resignation of forty-two Democratic members, was in accordance with the State Constitution, and the measures so passed are legal and valid. This is not wonderful. When did a Radical stop at a Constitutional impediment. They throw down or overlaop all such barriers.

Hear ye that there is war in Texas and martial law shall rule the State, because a white man there killed a negro. If the negroes continue their violence towards the whites in Washington City, some such plan of action may arise there. We do not doubt Hancock will be ready with an opinion; and whether he will then be nominated at the capital of the Union.

It is said that the family of Judge Monk is in the receipt of letters giving the pleasing information that the fever has left the city of Mobile entirely, and to men of ability and enterprise in all the walks of life will be opened with great confidence.

The extraordinary verdict of one hundred dollars damages in the Spencer Opera house of a jury-man will easily engender throughout the country, and yet ably produce a large crop of similar suits. The experience of the verdict is that the jury was convicted that Spencer not only violated his contract to marry Miss Craig, but had shown that he occupied against her to blast her character.—Cincinnati Commercial.

WASHINGTON ITEMS.

Washington, June 23.—Cuban affairs have become the subject of consultation, though occasionally the theme of discussion in the Cabinet, nor in the present aspect of affairs is intervention probable. The Government has no information that the crowning success in Cuba ever met in open field, but that the little fight ing that has been done amounts to nothing more than skirmishes. Reinforcements are arriving daily, and operations are confined to a few isolated points. In this view of the case no member of the Cabinet has expressed himself as inclined at recognizing the belligerent right of the Cubans.

The Spanish Minister has been informed that while the Government will enforce the neutrality laws, it favors the people sympathize with the Cubans.

The Spanish Minister has been placed in direct communication with the United States Attorneys and Marshals, so that he may furnish them information enabling them to enforce the neutrality laws. Months ago he had requested such information, and directed that it be furnished him, but it was not much done. The banks absorbed on New York at ¼ to ⅜ premium, and we note sales of $50,000, $99,000 and $50,000 New York sight at ⅜@¼ premium; $60,000 at ⅜, and $15,000 at ⅜ per cent discount. The demand for 30 days' sight is at ¼ premium; also $15,000 30 days' sight at ¼ and $5000 10 days' sight at ⅜ per cent discount.

In Senate 300 shares Ship Island Canal sold at $6 00; 700 do at $1 25 to $1 35, and 60 for Jackson Railroad at $60 50.

Metropolitan Police Warrants were declined earlier. A lot of $3000 sold this morning at 85½, but they were offered later in the day at 85.

We have very little to notice in City Treasury notes, the only sale reported being $6000 at 25⅛ per cent discount. The demand is steady at 25⅜ and sold at 25⅜ to 26 per cent discount.

COMMERCIAL.

OFFICE OF THE BEE,
THURSDAY MORNING, June 24, 1869.

COTTON.—The sales to-day reach 1,000 to 170 bales. Prices easier, but not materially lower. We continue to quote ordinary at 25½ to 27½c, low middling at 28½ to 29½c, low middling at 30 to 30½c, and middling at — to 31½c.

There was some enquiry to-day, but buyers could not find the kinds wanted, at or about the above their views, and the business was consequently confined to the amount noted above. Although prices have not been limited, the supply on sale is more liberal than it has been of late, but factors generally claim outside figures for their cotton more, and the amount actually offering at the ruling prices is inconsiderable. A vessel on the berth for New York and requiring only a few hundred bales to fill up, offers an opportunity for shipment to that extent, which it is anticipated will be soon improved.
