It must be allowed in favour of Austria that abstract ug the principle of strict right, and look ing only to interest, she has strong matives to which she has no direct connection, in the consaleranon that the establishment of liberty in atev portion of that country, would, in all probability, be followed by an attempt at emancipa-Italy, we can very well conceive that Austria gents, had left them and proceeded to Ancona to tion, and proceeded to extremity, under the imcal distinction between fighting and not consent ing, she has placed herself in a position which From the Messager des Chambres of Wednesday renders the prospect of accoundation more remote then it would have been from an interventoo without any previous understanding as to its extent, mas much as the good offices of Great Britain might in the case have been interposed instant, to retire upon the approach of the enemy with great efficacy. We must bear in mind, however, that we have as yet ally the French version of the transaction.

If we assume that what the French say is correct, and that M. NEW-ORLEANS AMERICAN. T is intended to establish a new evening daily paper in the fauxbonrg St. Marie-under the bove title. - The plan was suggested by several listinguished commercial men in that vicinitywho have promised their support in the first place to the experiment—and their continued patronage should the publication be found to merit it. The undertaking has as yet no claim upon the patronage, of the American public (to whose interests and gratification it will be esperially, almost exclusively devoted) except what is founded upon the professions of its conductor. -These professions are-that, in the first place, the views and principles of the paper shall be purely American .- 2dly. That it shall contain fuller commercial intelligence than any journal already established .- 3dly. That every exertion will be made to make it a publication which may be taken up at any moment of leisure of ennui with the confidence of finding in it, both entertainment and information. 4thly. Direct and original foreign news will always be found in the columns of the "American."-Its editor having correspondents in London and other parts of England,-Ireland-and many comnercial towns on the continent of Europe .-Lastly touching its politics-it will be shackled by no party-but in all questions which should call forth the decided support or reprobation of a public press, will express firmly and conscieniously what a sense of duty shall dictate. The incation is considered advantageous-and in the course of a very short time cannot but become important:—Squae paper bught to be established there—and it shall not be the fault of negligence in it's conductor if the "New-Orleans American" be not a good one.
