A. BARRAUD.

Hair Dresser and Perfumer,

CORNER OF CHARTRES AND ORLEANS STREETS.

BEING, on the eve of leaving New Orleans, for a short visit to his native country, France, takes this opportunity to return his sincere thanks to his numerous friends and patrons for the liberal support they have given him during the last two years, and hopes that by a strict attention to business, and a desire to please, he will merit a continuance of the same. He will be absent but a few months, and will, on his return, open a new establishment, in a more central part of the city, which will be duly announced.

Those who wish to have their Hair dressed in the latest and most fashionable style, will please call at the old stand, where they will find Mr. Barraud's assistants ever ready to attend to their wishes
