EXTRACT of a Letter from a Medical Gentleman in MADRAS, to HIS BROTHER, in WORCESTER, May 1851.
"Tell LEA & PERRINS that their WORCESTERSHIRE SAUCE is highly esteemed in this country. In my opinion, the most palatable, and wholesome Sauce that is made."

The only Medal awarded by the Jury of the New York Exhibition for Foreign Sauces, was obtained by LEA & PERRINS for their WORCESTERSHIRE SAUCE, the world-wide fame of which having led to numerous IMITATIONS, purchasers are earnestly requested to see that the names of "LEA & PERRINS" are impressed upon the Bottle and Stopper, and printed upon the labels.

Testimonials, the gorgeous emblems of happy days they be realized; for did remedy not duly reserve, but fresh additions come from the public, that not one week will surely prove the test. Dr. Wistar has taken an early opportunity to place this unrivalled remedy before the public, and refined substitution to benefit both himself and the community, by introducing it to the Druggists, Merchants, and Storekeepers, throughout the United States, Canada, and Europe, and has succeeded beyond the most sanguine expectations of his friends, and has received orders from all parts of the country, including Europe, and testimonials of the most unbounded and unsolicited character, from the highest sources, and from persons in
