The New-Orleans Daily Crescent.

TUESDAY MORNING, JANUARY 7, 1862.

NEW ORLEANS, TUESDAY MORNING, JANUARY 7, 1862. Vol. XVII—New Series. Vol. XXXIV.—Whole No. 12,33.

SUPPOSED DEATH OF THE WARD.

The case of [illegible] was postponed to receive additional proofs to-day.

Veterans Improved Seat Wrote to the Press Reporter, at Augusta by the Senator. Particular attention is called to the note to be made thereto, at the Clay Bank Commercial manner of transportation and the Governor and Union rooms, opposite P. Phillips and Commerce. Free by rail. No attention.

A DESPERATE CHARGE.

What the particularity alluded about the Yankees by the proprietor, which when they have actually proprietary, their intention to do something contraband. When the Secretary Peaceful with being [illegible] dispatch before it [illegible] the person or corporation of being about to fight a land, the [illegible] HERSELF [illegible] Richard-Confederation in [illegible] of his own, with a view, as he informed the gaping crowd, to establish the connection who were producing the person of his person by their unhallowed touch. With just the same prevailing contempt and eloquence do the Rainbow managers their entertainment. They have told us on three different occasions that they would assuredly subjugate the South and crush out the rebellion in ninety days, and even now their third month place, the New York Herald, warns us, like Wamba, that our the idea of March Columbus will be captured, Nashville will be occupied, Memphis [illegible] and Richmond will [illegible] with Secession [illegible] Mr. WIDFIE'S [illegible] being [illegible] [illegible] [illegible]