NEWS OF THE DAY.

Mexican News.—The National Intelligencer of the 9th contains the accounts of the capture of the Americans and the re-capture of Matamoras, and of the subsequent confusion and fight. Read how the City of Mexico received those news two weeks ago. In the meantime, Commodore Conner, in a proclamation to the Mexican people, informed them that he had been superseded by Commodore Kennedy. Paying and encouraging of the Army and Navy, which emanated from the Mexican Congress, is to be carried into effect. Commodore Conner, in his proclamation, says that he has been superseded by Commodore Kennedy, because the latter has been longer in the service.
