

Meet Her With A Taximeter.(DUET)

Words by
C. H. BOVILL.

Music by
JEROME D. KERN.

Moderato.

Piano.

mf

meno mosso. a tempo.

SHE: If you wished to get some at-trac-tive lit-tle pet to your-self for a -
If the girl should coo "I could drive a-long with you, Just for ev - er dear

p

while, I sup-pose you'd choose those can-a-di - an canoes? HE: No a boat cramps one's boy!" though it's kind - ly meant ev - 'ry sec-ond cost a cent, SHE: And the thought damps one's cresc.

Copyright MCMVIII by Jerome D. Kern.

3 International Copyright secured.

All Rights Reserved.

style! If you want to spoon what a - bout a big bal-loon? thats a joy! Still it is so snug and the La-dy you can hug in - sec-nice place no doubt, SHE: But if you and she don't in lu - sion pro - found, HE: Till the chauff-feur chap has some ev -'ry thing a-gree, There's risk you'd fall out! BOTH: If you sil - ly-ass mis-hap and a crowd ga - thers round! Still we rall.

 real - ly want a place for an un - dis - turbed em - brace! - know no bet - ter place for an un - dis - turbed em - brace! -

Refrain. pp 1st time ff 2nd Andante moderato.

Take her in a Tax-y that's the thing to do, You can talk in

pp

ten-der-est tone, she's there all a-lone with you, If you want a charm-ing, sto-len in-ter-view, meet her with a Ta-xi-me-ter which takes on-ly

rall.

two. two. HE: If the two.

cresc. D.S. ff