

NEW ORLEANS, NOVEMBER 10, 1831.

The November mail came in yesterday, and... The first of the papers which were published...

Account of the loss of the ship Minerva, Capt. ... will be found at length in our columns.

The National has a long, and we may say, virtuous recital of the Colonial possessions of Great Britain...

LOSS OF THE SHIP MINERVA. Of Salem, sailed from New-York for New Orleans.

Nothing occurred on board, worthy of particular notice, having had favorable winds, chiefly from the N. E. and S. W. until the 12th inst. at 10 o'clock...

The sea serpent in Spain.—Some time ago it was reported at Tortosa that a monster had been seen in the Ebro, but the account was treated as fabulous.

Specimen of Chancery Proceedings.—Whether law has its pleasures, and, if it hath, what and how many they are; and, if not, why not?

It would seem that the mysterious phenomena, which have attracted curiosity in our hemisphere, have been visible on the continent of Europe.

Extract of a letter from Ombasa, dated Aug. 12. The atmosphere of the country has in the course of the present year displayed the most singular phenomenon. Rain, which we are accustomed to see in the summer season, continued to fall almost without cessation since the winter.

REPUBLIC OF HAYTI.

Act exempting building materials from importation duties in certain Ports of the Republic. The House of Commons upon the proposition of the President of Hayti, having considered the urgency of the case has passed the following Act.

The Editor of the New York Commercial Advertiser intimates that Congress may prohibit, by law, the custom of flagging the sailors of our Navy.
