HUMAN HAIR.—It is certainly true, although not generally understood, that the roots of the hair always remain in the most abundant profusion past sight; hence one is not more so in the skin of other individual than hairs appear from their roots in the worst cases of baldness, that they neither perish nor are destroyed, and unless by accident or disease there should be complete derangement, or destruction of the parts to which nourishment is furnished through the vein that they (the roots) continue vigorous, and are not destroyed, or even injured, when the hair has fallen, from fevers, or from constitutional causes, either in the old or young. Richard Evans & J. Beals & Co's treatise on preserving, beautifying and restoring the hair.

MESSRS. R. J. BEALS & Co. invite those who are bald (in any degree) or who are losing their hair, to come to their office, 164 Broadway, up stairs, and have their hair Restorative exported without charge until the hair be restored.

They further offer to enter into a contract with any party to restore the hair under the penalty of a forfeit of from two to five hundred dollars, and party being bound in a like sum, to be paid when the hair shall have been restored.

The original certificates of gentlemen of the highest standing in the city, may be seen at the office 164 Broadway, showing into terribly that Beals' Hair Restorative has restored and will restore the human hair, and if there are those who continue to unfortunately be incredulous, we cannot enter into an analysis of this inestimable cordial here, or publish many of the documents which have been received as vouchers of the blessings it has conferred on numbers of despairing individuals. Let those who are doubtful remember that it has been demonstrated beyond a doubt that however, if any such thing exist, as natural barrenness, or as natural imbecility of the procreant functions, in either sex; and therefore, that those evils are the effects of artificial causes, and may be speedily subdued and removed by the use of "Le Cordial de Lucine."

The Lucine cordial is also an indubitable cure for the gleet, and for the four ulcus, obstructed, difficult, or painful menstruation; also for the incontinence of urine, or the involuntary discharge thereof. It is likewise an invaluable and unrivalled medicine in cases of chronic affections of the skin, and in the decpaired affections of the head.

For sale wholesale or retail, at 45 Poydras street. Price $3 per bottle. m14 6m

COUNTERFEIT.—The public is respectfully informed that one of the basest and most dangerous counterfeits ever attempted has lately been brought to light in the city of New York; we mean an imitation of the genuine and justly popular medicine known as "Rowand's Tonic Mixture," for fever and ague.

We had but just put down an imitation called "Rowand's Tonic Mixture," by L. S. Comstock & Co., when another, still more dangerous, makes its appearance from the shop of "Samson & Brandreth," No. 189 Water street, N. Y., in which the fac Simile of the preparation has been counterfeited—his copy rights infringed upon—his certificates copied—and, in fact, imitated in such a manner, that from its outward appearance, it can scarcely be detected. We would observe, that we have commenced a suit, in the United States Court, for this "piracy," upon our rights, and request dealers to be very careful of whom they purchase the article, unless its source can be directly traced, to the proprietor, or some one of his general agents, whom he has endeavored to select, as most enjoying the utmost respect and confidence of the communities in which they reside, and who, we trust, would blush to offer any other than the true and original "Rowand's Tonic Mixture," for the paltry gain of a few dollars, thereby endangering the lives of their fellow citizens.
