POLITIQUE LITTÉRATURE

VOLUME 89

DERNIERES NOUVELLES DE LA GUERRE

True translation filed with the Postmaster, at New Orleans, La., on Saturday, March 1, 1919, as required by Act of October 6, 1917.

Plus de 200,000 personnes sont sans travail à Berlin à cause de la grève générale en Allemagne.

Les communications par chemin de fer ont été détruites entre Berlin et l'Allemagne du Sud.

La Revue du Samedi espère que les Américains et les Canadiens seront raisonnables quand les questions de paix seront traitées au Congrès de la Paix, disant qu'une alliance entre le Japon, la Russie et l'Allemagne rendrait absurde la ligne des nations.

Le Président Paderevsky, de la Pologne, dit que le bolchevisme russe est une grande menace pour la civilisation.

La loi maritime a été déclarée dans toute la Bavière.

Un décret de Berlin a annoncé que dans un meeting tenu mardi dernier par l'Union des paysans allemands, le président de cette Association a accusé de faiblesse l'ex-chef guillaume pour avoir déclaré trop tôt la guerre et avoir laissé se propager le socialisme en Allemagne. Néanmoins, le président de l'Union des paysans et d'autres orateurs ont déclaré que cette association ne cesserait d'être fidèle à la Monarchie.

La loi maritime a été déclarée à Madrid à cause de grands désordres par les révolutionnaires. Le parlement espagnol a suspendu ses réunions. La cherté des vivres causée par les accapareurs est la principale cause des désordres.

André Tardieu situe que les plans du Congrès de la Paix pour arriver à une décision des questions les plus importantes seront annoncés entre le 8 et le 15 de mars.

L'Allemagne est bouleversée par des grèves d'employés de chemins de fer.

Plusieurs sénateurs républicains continuent à critiquer les actions du Congrès de la Paix.

La situation ne s'améliore pas en Allemagne, où les révolutionnaires semblent triompher un peu partout. A Munich ils se sont emparés de tous les édifices publics et si toutes les lignes de chemins de fer, et aussi de toutes les presses qui impriment les billets de banque du gouvernement. On ne donne aux classes bourgeois que la moitié des rations fournies aux classes ouvrières. A Budapest un grand nombre de notabilités ont été emprisonnés. A Magdebourg tous les employés des chemins de fer sont en grève. Le cabinet allemand se propose de mettre fin à tous ces sécessions.

Les Italiens ont perdu 462,301 soldats tués dans la guerre; et 953,886 blessés.

Le premier Généroneau est entièrement rétabli et a repris sa lourde et délicate besogne au Congrès de la Paix.

On rapporte que le nouvel état de la Yougoslavie mobilise une armée pour faire la guerre à l'Italie, à cause de malentendus au sujet de la délimitation des frontières.

Le conseil supérieur de l'Alsace-Lorraine, à sa première réunion, se est préoccupé.
