MODE DE TIRAGE.

POUR déterminer les lots gagnans, on emploie 4 roues ; dans la première pour ce tirage, on place cinque paquets numérotés 0, 1, 2, 3, 4, 5, 6, 7, 8, 9, 10, 11, 12, 13, 14, dont six seulement sont tirés. Dans chacune des autres roues on placera dix paquets, numérotés 0, 1, 2, 3, 4, 5, 6, 7, 8, 9. Alors on tirera successivement un paquet de chacune des roues, en commençant par la gauche, ce qui formera des series correspondant aux numéros de quelque billet pris dans cette Loterie. Après cela on tirera encore un autre paquet de chaque roue, et ainsi de suite jusqu'à ce que tous les paquets soient tirés, ce qui formera dix series.

Le billet dont les numéros correspondront à ceux de la première série, dans l'ordre de tirage, gagnera $ 3000

PRINTED DAILY, BY P. Dal[illegible]
St. Peter-Street, between Bourbon [illegible]

FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 7, 1828.

☞ A gentleman who arrived here last evening in the steamboat Columbia, informs us that the election returns of the parishes of Pointe-Coupee, East and West Baton-Rouge, Iberville, and St. James, gives a majority of one hundred and forty votes in favor of Jackson.

We cannot ascertain the facts, however it cannot astonish, the parishes of St. James, Iberville and Pointe-Coupee were in favor of Jackson in July last.

Latest from FRANCE.

[illegible]ship Cleon, [illegible] arrived from [illegible] Paris papers up to the 13th Sept[illegible] inclusive, from which [illegible] following [illegible]

Arrival of the French Fleet from Portugal.

A telegraphic dispatch from Toulon of the 24th, at one o'clock P. M. announces the following intelligence :

"The Languedoc has just [illegible] the squadron of Navarin [illegible] August. The first division of [illegible] arrived on this day, steering for the Gulf of Salamata.

"The Languedoc left on the 30th ult. 20 leagues from Navarin, the thirty-three transports under the escort of the Hussard, which have arrived on the first, the wind being favourable."

The telegraphic dispatch announces the arrival of the second convoy on the 26th of August, in the evening, and that the troops were all [illegible] at Coron.

The armed transport Gunnation, has on board, besides the colonel Fabvier, his aid-de-camp M. Morlies, and Mr. Richard Perinz, the same gentleman who made a present of four pieces to the Greeks.

They are clustering at Marseilles. [illegible] for the 2nd division of troops, which [illegible] will [illegible] the [illegible] month.

[illegible] the retreat of the Russians and Arabs, the last few Turks [illegible] remaining [illegible] occupy the fortresses of Modon, Coron [illegible] in the Morea, [illegible] they are [illegible] which will be fiercely besieged by the Greeks.

Admiral [illegible] having concluded at Alexandria [illegible] convention for the return to Egypt, of Ibrahim Pacha and the troops he brought [illegible] admiral Codrington anchored [illegible] on the 24th August. [illegible] vessels, under the escort of [illegible] English vessels of war, [illegible] the admiral's ships, to come and embark the Egyptian troops. That division was expected to arrive on the coast of Morea on the 29th.

On the 25th the French and English squadrons, agreeably to an [illegible] concluded with the Kiaya [illegible] him, had entered and were [illegible] the port of Navarin to wait the arrival of the Egyptian convoy.

The Austrian Observator announces that the grand-duke Constantine, who had left Warsaw to [illegible] the army of the Lithuania, has returned in that capital.

Corfu, August 24.

It appears that the Congress which was to meet here, will not take place. The three ambassadors are preparing to go to Greece, and meet the admirals. The English consuls for the ports of Greece, have already left this place. We are now waiting for the Russian consuls.

The Globe and Travellar of London, says that news has been received [illegible] St. Petersburg, that the Russian government disapproves of the [illegible] of Don Miguel, and has declared that he only recognises Don Pedro as King of Portugal.

From the N. Y. Morning Courier.

German Commercial Confederation.—A Treaty has lately been formed by several of the German States, under the sanction, it is said, of the Emperor of Austria, the fundamental stipulations of which, are as follow :

The contracting parties engage interchangeably, not to accede to any of the Conventions already existing, or which may hereafter be made by the other States of Germany, relative to the interests of Commerce and the Customs. The time fixed for the duration of this Treaty is twelve years.

Over the territories of the Associated States, no [illegible] transit shall shackle the passage of merchandize, from what country soever it may come, and whatever may be its destination.

Each Government is at liberty to impose on its own proper domain, taxes on articles of consumption ; but the vote of the regulated entirely by the financial necessities of the moment, so that their object will never be the exclusion of foreign competition.

The contracting States reserve to themselves the right of entering into [illegible] negociations on the reciprocal [illegible] Commerce, &c. &c.

The parties signing this Treaty are, Hanover, the Kingdom of Saxe, Electoral Hesse, Weimar, and the ducal houses of Saxe, Brunswick, Oldenburg, [illegible] the principalities of Reuss and [illegible] and the free cities of Bremen and Frankfort. It is presumed that Hamburg, Lubeck, Waldeck, and the principalities of La Lippe, will also accede to the Treaty.

The authority for this information is the Gazette de Nurenburg.

Capt. Floyd, of the schr. Catharine, at East River, [illegible] from St. Pierres, Mart[illegible] that a hard blow was experienced at [illegible] on the 24th Sept. [illegible] vessels ashore, among which was the Guada[illegible] Vernon, of and from Plymouth, and an English schooner and sloop, [illegible] which were gilged, and were abandoned. [illegible] his homeward passage [illegible] 26th, he [illegible] the hull of a large schooner ; [illegible] were gone, one of which was alongside, had her mainmast under water ; supposed [illegible] found on board. There were [illegible] 7 American vessels in port [illegible] 4 of which were so [illegible] of the gale.

[illegible] Patriot.]

[illegible] the share every [illegible]

We are now [illegible] to announce to our friends [illegible] the gratifying fact, that Maryland is for the Administration by a large majority! As [illegible] returns have come in from the counties, we have learned, ten members [illegible] House of Delegates, and those [illegible] to hear from are nearly all certain to elect Administration men. So that on joint ballot in the Legislature, the Administration [illegible] and General Government [illegible] between twenty and twenty-five majority on [illegible] over the Senate, [illegible] ten Jackson and but five Administration. This secures to the Administration party, the WHOLE STATE GOVERNMENT! This statement may be relied upon.

The Jackson party have got with a most signal defeat in this State, and have not the consolation of even hoping to do better next November, they can [illegible] with all their [illegible] very worst of ground, and in many [illegible] in which [illegible] of last November, did [illegible] better they can place [illegible] when the Presidential question shall be [illegible] upon the issue [illegible]

The [illegible] of this election, so [illegible] and momentous in its consequences, [illegible] fill so many [illegible] the most important [illegible] to the United [illegible] her voice for the [illegible] present enlightened [illegible] and much abused [illegible] Administration. Accordingly [illegible] Maryland [illegible] has received a vote [illegible] which [illegible] have not the least [illegible] will there have TEN [illegible] but ONE vote [illegible] Maryland.

The Peoples of Maryland now call upon Pennsylvania, Kentucky, New York, and all [illegible] States to follow her example. She has made a great and signal effort to sustain the cause of Free Government, and the issue is gloriously triumphant!
