

Gujarat Common Entrance Test (GCET) is being conducted every year during the month of July. There are two examinations conducted on two consecutive Sundays for MBA and MCA. Around 50 MBA institutes give admission to their MBA programs through GCET. There are approximately 3500 seats being offered totally by all the MBA institutes through GCET.

Gujarat common entrance test (GCET) is given more importance by many MBA aspirants since it gives admission to many reputed MBA institutions throughout the state. GCET is always regarded as an option in addition to CAT by the MBA aspirants since the universities that come under GCET are the pioneers in providing excellent management courses.

The institutes that fall under Gujarat common entrance test (GCET) are spread over eleven universities in and around the state of Gujarat. Usually, the GCET exam is conducted by each of the universities in a rotational manner.

For example: The GCET 2006 was conducted by the Gujarat University. The GCET 2007 was conducted at the Saurashtra University at Rajkot which is a very famous university which provides quality education with excellent infrastructure. The GCET 2008 was conducted at the Sardar Patel University in Vallabh Vidyanagar.

From year 2009, the test went online. Total 180 questions are asked in the examination. For every correct answer +4 marks and for every wrong answer -1 mark is allotted. Exam was conducted by Gujarat Technological University (GTU).
