BEETHOVEN ON BICYCLE PUMP
English Madame Discovers New Inventions

New York—Anna Maria Klassi, a New York native of the north and south, has been working on the bicycle of the past time, the first women's bicycle pump, as a modern invention. She claims that her pump will be a great improve-ment in the field of sanitary work.

Mrs. Klassi made her debut, with the bicycle pump, at a recent exhibition held in New York. Her pump consists of a simple valve and a handle. The valve is attached to the bicycle pump and is operated by the handle. The pump is said to be simple and easy to use, and is claimed to be a great improvement in the field of sanitary work.

HE WITHDREW HIS REMARKS
Congressmen of the Old South

Washington, D.C.—Congressmen of the Old South have withdrawn their remarks regarding the secession movement.

Senator Robert Toombs of Georgia, in a speech on the floor of the Senate, accused the Congressmen of the Old South of being traitors. He said that the secession movement was a traitorous move and that the Congressmen of the Old South should be punished.

NOT MUCH INCOME IN GOTHAM New York—New York City's income tax revenue is not much, according to the New York City tax commissioner. He said that the income tax revenue is not much because of the high cost of living in the city.
