

NEW PAPER.—We forgot to mention the appearance among our files of a new French paper, called the Compatriote. It is published by M. Frank P. Bouché & Co. every Sunday morning.

THE BIRD AND THE THEATRE.—This is the heading of an article in the New York Herald, which is as follows:

Previous to the battle before Richmond great preparations were being made by managers for the fall of the rebel capital. It was thought that the capture of Richmond would be the signal for the fall of the rebel capital. It was thought that the capture of Richmond would be the signal for the fall of the rebel capital. It was thought that the capture of Richmond would be the signal for the fall of the rebel capital.

THE RECOGNITION OF ITALY.—Upon the completion of the French expedition to Rome, we had our readers advised more completely than they already had.
