OUR WASHINGTON CORRESPONDENCE.

Washington, July 27, 1854.
The Senate today passed the bill for the relief of the Texas Indians, which was introduced by Mr. Seward. The bill was passed by a large majority, and will now pass to the President for his signature.

THE BARGE HULL.

The Barge hull which was burnt on the 17th inst., has been raised and is now lying on the stocks. The hull is in a very bad state of repair, and it is doubtful whether it will ever be able to perform its duty.

COMMERCIAL.

THE MARKET.
TUESDAY EVENING, JULY 27, 1854.
There was some business done today, but it was not very brisk. The market for cotton was steady, and for sugar it was a little better.
