where the treaties of Vienna have been destroped, modified, or mis understood. The Emperer continues as follows.

We are threatened with a danger so muck the more formidable because the inprovement effected by civilization, which has bound the people together by an identity of material interests would render a war still marrie destroetive. Let us not wait before taking our part for adden and irresistile swants to disturb our judgment, and foraw us despite ourselves in a contrary direction. By Providence and the will off deresity, it is perhaps less allowable for me than any other to iguore the rights of averaging and the legitimate aspirations of people. These I am ready, without a preconceived system, to enter an international Congress with the spirit of moderation and judicice, ordinarily the portion of those who have endured so many various trials. It I take the initiative in this overture. I do not yield to an impulse of vanity, but because I are a sovereign, the mest credited with ambitions projects, and I have got it at heart, to prove by a frank and loy if step, that my sole object is to carrier, without a sheet, at the pacification of Surope.
