Mr. Clay, - "Sir, no one is more sensible, than I am, of ounduty to take care of the agricultural interests; and it was because he believed the success of manufactures essential to the propertly of agriculture, that he had endeavored from Levy's Prices Current, Saturday, Jan. 21 to promote the interest of manufactures. The prescrity of agriculture, that he had endeavored to promote the interest of manufactures. The gentleman from Missofri had argue 1 the question at it was vertain that salt would be rendered cheep by the reduction or abol tion of the duty. He wishes to make it cheaper, so do I. We repealed the duty, is part, it May, and what has been the effect! The price of salt is now high than it has been for fifteen years past. In this case then these fuction of duty was, not followed by a reduction of price.
