We are indebted to the officers of the steamer J. C. Swon for late St. Louis papers.

We are slad to perceive in the list of patents assed by the U.S. Patent Office, for the month of October, that one has been granted to Samuel M. Barnett, of New Orleans, for an improved scrattening machine. We have seen the model of this improvement, and believe it will vasily facilitate and simplify the labor of scrubbing and accurring.

The Hon. Sherrard Clemens, who was wounded in the duel with Goyernor Wise's son, has been given over by his physicians, this death is expected every hour. Amputation is the only possible remedy, and his system is too much wasted to bear that.
