New Orleans, February 13, 1836.

To the Editor of the Bee:

Sir—In compliance to orders just received in this consulate from the honorable J. M Ortiz Monasterio, acting secretary of state to the republic, it becomes my duty to give publicity to the enclosed circular, addressed by his excellency the secretary of war and marine department, on the date of the 30 h December ultimo, to all the civil and military commandants of the said republic.

I request of you, sir, to have the goodness to insert said document in your paper, as soon as convenient, and you will

MEXICO.
WAR AND NAVY DEPARTMENT.

Circular—The government has received information that, in the United States of North America, meetings are called for the avowed purpose of getting up and fitting out expeditions against the Republic of Mexico, in order to send assistance to the rebels, foster the civil war, and inflict upon our country all the calamities by which it is followed. In the United States, or in a neighboring country, all expeditions are now organized similar to that headed by the traitor Jose Antonio Mejia, and some have even set out for Texas. They have been furnished with every kind of ammunition, by means of which the revolted colonists are enabled to raise and fight it is made from which they never have received but immense benefits. The government is also positively informed that these acts, condemned by the wisdom of the laws of the United States, or also reported by the general government, with which the best intelligence and the greatest harmony still prevail. However, as these adventurers and evil disposed persons have succeeded in escaping the penalties called by the laws of their own country, it becomes necessary to adopt measures for their punishment. His excellency the president ad interim, anxious to repress these aggressions which constitute not only an offence to the sovereignty of the Mexican nation, but also to an evident violation of international laws as they are generally adopted, has ordered the following to be observed and enforced.

1st. Foreigners landing on the coast of the republic or invading its territory by land, armed and with the intention of attacking our country, will be deemed pirates and dealt with as such, being citizens of no nation presently at war with the republic, and fighting under no recognised flag.

2nd. All foreigners who will import either by sea or land, in the places occupied by the rebels, either arms or ammunition of any kind for the use of them will be deemed pirates and punished as such.

I send you these decrees, that you may cause them to be fully executed.

An act to authorise the police jury of the parish of Claiborne to divide said parish into election precincts.

An act granting farther powers to the board of police of the town of Opelousas.

The speaker laid before the house the following communication from the governor:

To the House of Representatives—

I feel myself constrained to withhold my assent to the resolution, originating in your branch, in the following words: "Be it resolved by the senate and house of representatives of the state of Louisiana in general assembly convened, that the governor of the state of Louisiana be, and is hereby authorized to pay out of the unexpended appropriation for the Florida volunteers, such sum as may be necessary to defray the expense of the corps of volunteers now in this city, under the command of colonel Leonard, up to the twentieth instant;" but what the expense to be defrayed consists in, in the ratio, the time from which it is to be computed or the number of men to be defrayed, the resolution furnishes no means of determining: nor is there any criterion, any rate or law by which it can be determined. There are no official data in regard to the corps itself There are no returns showing its nature, its strength or organization.

To give effect to the resolution would be to sanction an indefinite draft on the treasury, limited only by the amount of the appropriation for the Florida volunteers, and for objects at once undefined and undefinable—Measures of dangerous or doubtful tendency are ever prone to invoke the support of precedent. Admit the principle deducible from the resolution, and all established fiscal safeguards would be at an end.

Of all the trusts which the people have thought fit to confide to their functionaries, there is none, perhaps, more delicate and important, than that which relates to the public funds. The money in the treasury is raised by taxation, in some shape, on the people. The control that is exercised over it, on its collection and disbursements, connects itself very intimately with their dearest rights and liberties. From whence arises the obligation, never to be lost sight of, not to trench upon the public money, but according to established rules, and on principles clearly ascertained, or at least, ascertainable.

There is no point of similitude between the principle of this resolution, and those involved in the resolution relative to the Opelousas company under the command of captain Garrett, approved on the 19th of February. That was a regular company of the 16th regiment, duly reported and certified to the commander-in-chief by the colonel of the regiment. It came to head quarters in obedience to general orders, to form a part of the required quota which attached on the 3d of February.
