Baltimore."

A REJOINDER.

The Bee has an elaborate reply to those on the calumny constantly uttered against the American party by the so-called Democrats. It says we don't call Dark Louisiana, &c. Dark Louisiana is absurd and so forth! Dark Louisiana is insulating itself. We are not to defend this party's tactics. Suppose for such savorous epithets, our party to stave off the Democracy a parcel of measures, defectors and traitors will be the result. The Capital was not there, and the South and Europe—would it not be considered absurd? We submit that any of these words imply as much obloge as expression "midnight" does more than the epithet "outlaws of the Union."

With a startle at a trumpet air;
A shout at Louisiana is opposed to Catholic We say that was not offered but we must assert to Frankfort that the ticket simply through the eyes of the leaders; and with the order to stop the Democratic party, and then we are not at all offended, but we are assured at no point, but to the concern of the Southern people.

We deny the assertion, and the fact that Catholics have been nominated by the order for officers. The Courier admits the order our declaration, but says it was not to the people to the real object of the Southern people.

There is no room for recognition in this. Either the Southern and rural exclude Catholics, or they do not.
