1.16 UNION-IT MUST HE PERSERVED. WEDNESDAY MORNING, AUGUST 6, 1834

The northern mailyesterday brought us a full supply of popers. They are barron of intelligence.

The foneral honors to the memory of Lafayette in Philadeltime must have been magnificent beyond description. The arrar gements were made to bring together a procession in hich all classes might be appropriately represented, and seeral columns of the papers are filled with a list of she order of the military, societies, as sociations, body, &c, which seemed to have turned out in great numbers.

The president, according to the Pennsylvanian of the 22d uit, was on the 15th at Greensville, Va. He was on his way to the Hermitage, accompanied by Major Donnelson and that gentleman's eldest sou.

Mrs. Donnelson, with the rest of the family had been left to pass some days with Mrs. Rives, when they would visit the Warrenton springs.

The venerable patriot is represented as being in fine health, viewing with pleasure the redundant fr its of healthful incustry, and tokens of national prosperity that distinguish the season and the fine country through which he was pas-

ANOTHER ABOLITION OUTRAGE.

The New York Commercial contains a description of scene that intely passed between Col. Stone, the editor of that paper and Mr. Lewis Tappan, the notorwus abolition fanatic. The former, it seems, demanded that the latter should publish a communication which had been sent him teeming with opprobrious epithets toth in relation to himself and his paper. The aditor very properly refused to be accessory to a deffauration of himself, and insisted as a perrequisite for the insertion of the article, that the objectionable portions should be expurgated. This the meek Mr. Tappan refused in language that would disgrace an issuate of a bro thel; and finally became so obstraperous in his commet that it became necessary to show him the door, over the toreshold of which he was made to puns with considerable alacricity, the hand of our contempory being heavy upon ana. It appears from an advertisement of this company, that they are compelled to resort to horse power, both engines being disabled at one and the same time. Had the President of the company satisfied bimsel with a simple annunciation of the fact, the stockholders might have been induced to entire into the cause—But the President has gone further and assigned a cause, to wit, accident. This attempt to micked the stockholders in out the public, ought to be exposed and the time cause given—The facts of the cause are, that the time around the drine wheels of both engines have entirely worn out from use, and up to the very moment of stopping, one of the engines from that cause, no steps were taken by the President to provide others.—The President was repeatedly advised by the engineer some months sgo, that the engines would not run much 1 nger without new tire, but so limited was the knowledge of that gentleman of the affairs of the company, that he was under the belief, until one of the engines was laid up, that extra wheels had been included in the order sent to England a year since. The President of the company was then a member of the board, and aught to have known that no drire wheels were ordered—but this is not all. Tree of the very dimensions required has for more than a year past been advertised in the Rail Road Journal, as for sale in Philadelphia; seven copies of that journal are received and paid for by our company.—Let the stockholders however, console thems, less with the fact, that set is of these true were ordered by the President, as soon as the engines of the contract PONTCHARTRAIN RAIL-ROAD.

Choicea.—Considerable alarm was excited yesterday, in consequence of a report that the Asiatic Choicea had broken out at Montreal. We have much satisfaction in being able to state, from information furnished by a respectable gentleman, who left that city on Saturday has, that the report is unfounded.

It is true that several deaths has occurred suddenly amogst the poor emigrants, who were laying about the by hundreds, destitute of evera necessary, and actually in a starving condition, exposed to the inclemency of the weather and to the intense heath. Many of these pror creatures in that condition drank freely of the liver water, and paid their rashness with their lives; but our informant assures us, that no case, bearing a resseniblance to Asiatic Cholera, had occurred.—Cour.

The selection of Mr. White as the Bank candidate, was the result of deep del beration on the part of the Bank manners, Clsy, and others; and he, we have reason to be lieve, was in a measure forced into a resignation of his local in Congress, and an acceptance of the nomination.—

With the influence that have operated so extensively on New Orleans, and through it on the whole state for months A BATCH OF KINGS FOR AMERICA.

Information has reached London from Buenes Ayres, of certain official disclosures at the latter place, indicating the existence of an European intrigue to subject the South Accretain Republics to kingly government in the person of Don Carlos of Spain and other branches of Peninsular royally.

A secret sitting of the House of Representatives was held at the best best for months past, and the individual advantages already cited, the pro-

Businos Ayres, in February, at the request of the Musister of Foreign Affairs. We quote the following:

"It is stated that at this sitting a detail was rendered (received by the last packet from korope) of a plan which is in agitation to provide monarchs for the South American Republics; that a conference for this purpose was held in Paris at which the ministers of the absolute sovereigns, and various South American agents, including Senor Bernardine Rivadavia, assisted. The latter assertion received to the influence of that corrupt the institution than any other city in the Union. The Branch institution than any other city in the Union. The Branch institution than any other city in the Union. The Branch is more dead of foreign and against its own im absurd proceeding."

The Goeta Marcantii ridiculed the project, but moneral less believed in its existence. Rivadavis, asserted. The latter assertion seems to us as institution than any other city in the Union. The Branch most improbable. Senor Rivavia must be too weil acquainted with his own country for a moment to countenance such an absurd proceeding."

The Gotetta Abreadil ridiculed the project, but nevertheless believed in its existence. The Monitor designates the papers as "official documents, relative to the project of the Court of Madrid, to establish monerchies in the South American States."
