

The New Orleans Bee

No. 34: VOL VII.—NEW SERIES.

NEW ORLEANS, MONDAY MORNING, FEBRUARY 17.

1845.

VOL XVIII—WHOLE NO. 4784

CITY INTELLIGENCE.

TERMS OF THE BEE.
SUBSCRIPTION.—$12
Daily Paper, one year in advance; $12
Country Paper, semi-weekly, one year in advance; $12.

No subscription is taken for less than a year. In all cases the subscription is for the paper only, or to the paper and advertising, it will not be considered as discontinued on the part of the subscriber, unless one week's notice in writing be given, reserving the right to cancel.

ADVERTISING.—One dollar per square, for each language of the first insertion, and half that price for each subsequent insertion; and one-half that price for each insertion after the third. Total charge for a square foot is $1.00. ONE IN THOUSAND, charged as a premium.

ADVERTISEMENTS not specified as to time will be published one month, and charged accordingly.

Advertisements inserted at intervals will be charged $1 per square foot, and so on, according to the time between them.

TRADE ADVERTISEMENTS.—

Advertisers of Books, French and English, good Literary works, ship and land agents,

Books, insurance offices, public institutions,
Advertisements of real estate, only, a reduction of 50 per cent will be made on the above prices,
and 10 per cent yearly in advance.

The privilege of annual advertising is limited to advices of less than $100 per year.

ADVERTISEMENTS out of the direct line of business.

Advertisers of books, and plan and place
the yearly advertisement, such as to let lease or sell, newspaper, daily news, &c., &c., will be charged for separately, and at the ordinary rates.

All notices of a political nature, &c., &c., will be charged at a rate of 10 per cent of a premium.

Advertisers of a personal nature (when admitted) will be charged $2 per square foot.

J. MAGEE & WEISSE.

NEW ORLEANS BEE

J. MAGEE & WEISSE,
PROPRIETORS.
NO. 1 CHARTER
STREET.

Official Journal of the State.

MONTGOMERY,
MONDAY MORNING.

FEBRUARY 17, 1845.

THE CONVENTION.

Mr. Bejougan offered a resolution granting authori-zations, expenses to various printing done by the appropriate authorities.

The Convention resolved
to consider the consideration of the "except a native citizen of the United States," in the qualifications for Governor.

Mr. Marigny addressed a motion to strike out, in reference to the arguments of opponents, to the resolution.

The Convention resolved
to consider the resolution of the committee on the constitution of the United States, in the
qualification of the president.

Convention in favor of the resolution.

Mr. Nease, Grymes and others, spoke in opposition to
the resolution.

The Convention resolved
to consider the resolution of
the committee on the constitution of the United States, in the
qualification of the president.

Mr. Marigny, seconded Mr. Black and led him out of the hall.

On the side of the room the speaker's stand.

There was considerable confusion on all sides, but after a moment, Mr. Griswold resumed his remarks and the confusion subsided. When he finished Mr. Black made a very few inaudible remarks, and then went out of the hall.

The hill was then reported back to the House, and a third reading and a vote were taken.

It was voted to send the resolution to the Orleans
Theatre, at 10 o'clock A.M., for the purpose of exercising in deliberation, composition, and total music.

James McGroarty, charged with stealing day pins, was remanded for further examination.

John Cox, Patrick Murphy, William Symon and
John Hoffman, were committed to the Workhouse for
three days each, under the vagrant law.

Charles Young, an old offender, was remanded on a charge
of breaking open the trunk of James H. Baldwin, to be tried before the grand jury.

James Herbert, found guilty of stealing some miniature frames, the property of James H. Baldwin, was
sentenced to one month imprisonment.

Peter Butler and John Arden, found guilty of assault
and battery, were sentenced to two weeks imprisonment.

Thomas Cooper, found guilty of assault and battery,
was sentenced to six hours imprisonment.

Theodore J. Smith, found guilty of assault and battery,
was sentenced to twenty-four hours imprisonment.

A bill of information was filed by the District Attorney, against James R. Scott, for assaulting and
wounding his wife.

Joseph Lewis, convicted of stealing a quantity of
copper rods, the property of Lacombe Lauron, was sentenced to three months imprisonment in the Parish
Prison.

James Herbert, found guilty of stealing some minia-
ture frames, the property of James H. Baldwin, was
sentenced to one month imprisonment.

Peter Butler and John Arden, found guilty of assault
and battery, were sentenced to two weeks imprisonment.

John Cox, Patrick Murphy, William Symon and
John Hoffman, were committed to the Workhouse for
three days each, under the vagrant law.

Charles Young, an old offender, was remanded on a charge
of breaking open the trunk of James H. Baldwin, to be tried before the grand jury.

James Herbert, found guilty of stealing some minia-
ture frames, the property of James H. Baldwin, was
sentenced to one month imprisonment.

Peter Butler and John Arden, found guilty of assault
and battery, were sentenced to two weeks imprisonment.

Thomas Cooper, found guilty of assault and battery,
was sentenced to six hours imprisonment.

Theodore J. Smith, found guilty of assault and battery,
was sentenced to twenty-four hours imprisonment.

A bill of information was filed by the District Attorney, against James R. Scott, for assaulting and
wounding his wife.

Joseph Lewis, convicted of stealing a quantity of
copper rods, the property of Lacombe Lauron, was sentenced to three months imprisonment in the Parish
Prison.

James Herbert, found guilty of stealing some minia-
ture frames, the property of James H. Baldwin, was
sentenced to one month imprisonment.

Peter Butler and John Arden, found guilty of assault
and battery, were sentenced to two weeks imprisonment.

John Cox, Patrick Murphy, William Symon and
John Hoffman, were committed to the Workhouse for
three days each, under the vagrant law.

Charles Young, an old offender, was remanded on a charge
of breaking open the trunk of James H. Baldwin, to be tried before the grand jury.

James Herbert, found guilty of stealing some minia-
ture frames, the property of James H. Baldwin, was
sentenced to one month imprisonment.

Peter Butler and John Arden, found guilty of assault
and battery, were sentenced to two weeks imprisonment.

Thomas Cooper, found guilty of assault and battery,
was sentenced to six hours imprisonment.

Theodore J. Smith, found guilty of assault and battery,
was sentenced to twenty-four hours imprisonment.

A bill of information was filed by the District Attorney, against James R. Scott, for assaulting and
wounding his wife.

Joseph Lewis, convicted of stealing a quantity of
copper rods, the property of Lacombe Lauron, was sentenced to three months imprisonment in the Parish
Prison.

James Herbert, found guilty of stealing some miniature frames, the property of James H. Baldwin, was
sentenced to one month imprisonment.

Peter Butler and John Arden, found guilty of assault
and battery, were sentenced to two weeks imprisonment.

John Cox, Patrick Murphy, William Symon and
John Hoffman, were committed to the Workhouse for
three days each, under the vagrant law.

Charles Young, an old offender, was remanded on a charge
of breaking open the trunk of James H. Baldwin, to be tried before the grand jury.

James Herbert, found guilty of stealing some minia-
ture frames, the property of James H. Baldwin, was
sentenced to one month imprisonment.

Peter Butler and John Arden, found guilty of assault
and battery, were sentenced to two weeks imprisonment.

Thomas Cooper, found guilty of assault and battery,
was sentenced to six hours imprisonment.

Theodore J. Smith, found guilty of assault and battery,
was sentenced to twenty-four hours imprisonment.

A bill of information was filed by the District Attorney, against James R. Scott, for assaulting and
wounding his wife.

Joseph Lewis, convicted of stealing a quantity of
copper rods, the property of Lacombe Lauron, was sentenced to three months imprisonment in the Parish
Prison.

James Herbert, found guilty of stealing some miniature frames, the property of James H. Baldwin, was
sentenced to one month imprisonment.

Peter Butler and John Arden, found guilty of assault
and battery, were sentenced to two weeks imprisonment.

John Cox, Patrick Murphy, William Symon and
John Hoffman, were committed to the Workhouse for
three days each, under the vagrant law.

Charles Young, an old offender, was remanded on a charge
of breaking open the trunk of James H. Baldwin, to be tried before the grand jury.

James Herbert, found guilty of stealing some minia-
ture frames, the property of James H. Baldwin, was
sentenced to one month imprisonment.

Peter Butler and John Arden, found guilty of assault
and battery, were sentenced to two weeks imprisonment.

Thomas Cooper, found guilty of assault and battery,
was sentenced to six hours imprisonment.

Theodore J. Smith, found guilty of assault and battery,
was sentenced to twenty-four hours imprisonment.

A bill of information was filed by the District Attorney, against James R. Scott, for assaulting and
wounding his wife.

Joseph Lewis, convicted of stealing a quantity of
copper rods, the property of Lacombe Lauron, was sentenced to three months imprisonment in the Parish
Prison.

James Herbert, found guilty of stealing some miniature frames, the property of James H. Baldwin, was
sentenced to one month imprisonment.

Peter Butler and John Arden, found guilty of assault
and battery, were sentenced to two weeks imprisonment.

John Cox, Patrick Murphy, William Symon and
John Hoffman, were committed to the Workhouse for
three days each, under the vagrant law.

Charles Young, an old offender, was remanded on a charge
of breaking open the trunk of James H. Baldwin, to be tried before the grand jury.

James Herbert, found guilty of stealing some minia-
ture frames, the property of James H. Baldwin, was
sentenced to one month imprisonment.

Peter Butler and John Arden, found guilty of assault
and battery, were sentenced to two weeks imprisonment.

Thomas Cooper, found guilty of assault and battery,
was sentenced to six hours imprisonment.

Theodore J. Smith, found guilty of assault and battery,
was sentenced to twenty-four hours imprisonment.

A bill of information was filed by the District Attorney, against James R. Scott, for assaulting and
wounding his wife.

Joseph Lewis, convicted of stealing a quantity of
copper rods, the property of Lacombe Lauron, was sentenced to three months imprisonment in the Parish
Prison.

James Herbert, found guilty of stealing some miniature frames, the property of James H. Baldwin, was
sentenced to one month imprisonment.

Peter Butler and John Arden, found guilty of assault
and battery, were sentenced to two weeks imprisonment.

John Cox, Patrick Murphy, William Symon and
John Hoffman, were committed to the Workhouse for
three days each, under the vagrant law.

Charles Young, an old offender, was remanded on a charge
of breaking open the trunk of James H. Baldwin, to be tried before the grand jury.

James Herbert, found guilty of stealing some minia-
ture frames, the property of James H. Baldwin, was
sentenced to one month imprisonment.

Peter Butler and John Arden, found guilty of assault
and battery, were sentenced to two weeks imprisonment.

Thomas Cooper, found guilty of assault and battery,
was sentenced to six hours imprisonment.

Theodore J. Smith, found guilty of assault and battery,
was sentenced to twenty-four hours imprisonment.

A bill of information was filed by the District Attorney, against James R. Scott, for assaulting and
wounding his wife.

Joseph Lewis, convicted of stealing a quantity of
copper rods, the property of Lacombe Lauron, was sentenced to three months imprisonment in the Parish
Prison.

James Herbert, found guilty of stealing some miniature frames, the property of James H. Baldwin, was
sentenced to one month imprisonment.

Peter Butler and John Arden, found guilty of assault
and battery, were sentenced to two weeks imprisonment.

John Cox, Patrick Murphy, William Symon and
John Hoffman, were committed to the Workhouse for
three days each, under the vagrant law.

Charles Young, an old offender, was remanded on a charge
of breaking open the trunk of James H. Baldwin, to be tried before the grand jury.

James Herbert, found guilty of stealing some minia-
ture frames, the property of James H. Baldwin, was
sentenced to one month imprisonment.

Peter Butler and John Arden, found guilty of assault
and battery, were sentenced to two weeks imprisonment.

Thomas Cooper, found guilty of assault and battery,
was sentenced to six hours imprisonment.

Theodore J. Smith, found guilty of assault and battery,
was sentenced to twenty-four hours imprisonment.

A bill of information was filed by the District Attorney, against James R. Scott, for assaulting and
wounding his wife.

Joseph Lewis, convicted of stealing a quantity of
copper rods, the property of Lacombe Lauron, was sentenced to three months imprisonment in the Parish
Prison.

James Herbert, found guilty of stealing some miniature frames, the property of James H. Baldwin, was
sentenced to one month imprisonment.

Peter Butler and John Arden, found guilty of assault
and battery, were sentenced to two weeks imprisonment.

John Cox, Patrick Murphy, William Symon and
John Hoffman, were committed to the Workhouse for
three days each, under the vagrant law.

Charles Young, an old offender, was remanded on a charge
of breaking open the trunk of James H. Baldwin, to be tried before the grand jury.

James Herbert, found guilty of stealing some minia-
ture frames, the property of James H. Baldwin, was
sentenced to one month imprisonment.

Peter Butler and John Arden, found guilty of assault
and battery, were sentenced to two weeks imprisonment.

Thomas Cooper, found guilty of assault and battery,
was sentenced to six hours imprisonment.

Theodore J. Smith, found guilty of assault and battery,
was sentenced to twenty-four hours imprisonment.

A bill of information was filed by the District Attorney, against James R. Scott, for assaulting and
wounding his wife.

Joseph Lewis, convicted of stealing a quantity of
copper rods, the property of Lacombe Lauron, was sentenced to three months imprisonment in the Parish Prison.