EDWARD SPARROW.
NEW ORLEANS,
MONDAY MORNING, SEPT. 15, 1846.

Our readers will be interested to learn that the new Constitution of Louisiana, as it is called, has been adopted by the Convention. It is a most important and interesting document, and one that will have a great influence upon the future of our State. The Convention has acted wisely and judiciously in its proceedings, and the people of Louisiana will be benefited by the adoption of this Constitution.

LEACHES—$7,000.
The Convention has voted to grant a bounty of $7,000 upon the scalp of each of the four principal leeches. This is a most generous offer, and one that will have a great influence upon the future of our State. The Convention has acted wisely and judiciously in its proceedings, and the people of Louisiana will be benefited by the adoption of this Constitution.

LATE AND IMPORTANT FROM YUCATAN.
The people of Yucatan are in a state of great excitement and agitation. They are demanding the right of self-government, and are ready to resist any attempt to deprive them of this right. This is a most important and interesting situation, and one that will have a great influence upon the future of our State. The Convention has acted wisely and judiciously in its proceedings, and the people of Louisiana will be benefited by the adoption of this Constitution.
