TO BULLETIN FOREIGN NEWS

Mr. Lansing's Newspaper To Be Posted at Postoffice

The post-office here shortly will issue bulletins containing government news, according to instructions received yesterday by the New Orleans postmaster. It is probable that this service will begin some time to-day.

The government newspaper will be posted in a conspicuous position in the postoffice each day, and the most publicized will be on the bulletins. The nature of the news which the bulletins will contain has not been announced, but it is believed here that it will be in line with the announcement by Secretary Lansing that all government news will be given out by a foreign relations bureau.

PICK JOB FOR MAJOR STEWART

Politicians are mentioning the name of Major A. Stewart, former manager of the Cosmopolitan Hotel and member of the General Assembly, as the possible man who would be named disbursing officer for the government for the Louisiana division of drafted troops. Governor Plessant has the appointment at his disposal. The duties of the office will consist in looking after the government's financial interest in enrolling troops under the conscription bill.

LOUVAIN PROFESSOR WILL DELIVER TWO ADDRESSES

Prof. Albert Van Heeke of the University of Louvain will lecture here Monday and Wednesday and tell how the Dutch attempt to 300,000 of the stricken minorities of Belgium. He will address the Louisiana Society of Engineers in the Cabildo Monday, and his other address will be at a banquet in Antoine's Wednesday.

TAKEN FROM THE RIVER

Eddy Believed To be that of Mrs. Vera Bernoit

Believed to be that of Mrs. Vera Bernoit, 3101 Annunciation street, who leaped into the river at Seventh street May 1, the body of a white woman was found in the Mississippi at Jesuits' Bend, forty miles from New Orleans, yesterday afternoon.

A man named McCurdy telephoned Police Superintendent Reynolds from Jesuits' Bend, telling of the gruesome find. McCurdy's description of the body and clothes leads the police to believe it might be the remains of Mrs. Bernoit.

DEAF NEGRO EXHAUSTS PATIENCE OF OFFICERS

Patrolmen Woolston and Daniels, of the harbor squad, lost their patience yesterday when they arrested an aged negro at Jackson Barracks on a charge of loitering. He refused to answer any questions put to him. The officers learned, some time later, that he was deaf. He gave his name as Arthur Bell, 70. The negro, being in a sick and destitute condition, was taken to the Charity hospital.

TOOK AN EXPENSIVE NAP

Charles Montz, 821 Hampson street, fell asleep while aboard the ferryboat Thomas Pickles yesterday and upon awakening instinctively sought his watch to see what time it was. The timepiece, however, was gone. Police are looking for the thief.
