In this issue appears the announcement of sevent which the family and friends of Mr. Cypriou Dufour have for some mouths seen was approaching. For upwards of a year the health of the deceased had been declining, but it was not until lately that his physicians had abandoord the hope of his receivery. For some weeks he had gradually been sinking, when on Toesday last his case assumed an alarming appearance, and indicated an early closing of the scene. By this occurrence the family of Mr. Dafqur suffer a loss never to be made up, the community a worthy and moorable members. In another column will be found a notice of the funeral, which will take place to day from thelwesidence of deceased, on Explanate street, between Sixth and Sefenth streets, one square beyond Broad, at half past 4 o'clock.
