THE WORTHINESS OF OUR POLICE

The frequent hold and strictly planned demonstrations have been a constant reminder to the police force of the necessity of being prepared for any emergency. In this city during the last few years, the police force has been subjected to a series of trials which have tested its mettle to the utmost. It has been called upon to suppress riots, to quell insurrections, and to maintain order in the most turbulent times. The result has been a police force that is well trained, well equipped, and well organized. It is a force that is worthy of the confidence of the people.
