act for the recovery of claims, approved 9 March 4827. Both amendments were adopted; and the bill was passed. Mr TENNEY moved to take up the bill from the house, giving power to parish judges in specified cases so issue writs of injunction. On his motion, the clause was smitted, which prevented the issuing of more than one writin a suit.

The bill so amended was passed. Mr Niciionas moved to take up the bill granting an exclusive privilege for 10 years, to Stephen Lee to have a ferry at a particular place across Bogue Chitto, in the parish of Washington. The bill was passed.

Mr Niomotas moved to consider the resolution appointing a joint committee of both houses to draft an uniform system of public education throughout the state, to be prerented to the legislature at its next eresion. He amended the resolution, so as to require the committee to digest a suitable plan for raising funds for the purpose designated. Messrs-Hoa, Tenney and Nicholas were appointed on the Dart of the senate

On motion of Mr Hoa, the amendments proposed by the house to the bill amending the act of 6 March 1830, for the relief of the parish of Orleans, were considered and adopted. Mr Hox moved to consider the bill incorporating, the Western Navigation steamboat company. But it appearing that the bill had not been translated into French, when sent from the house, the president of the senate decided that it would be errelevant to discuss the bill; and the senate con curred in said decision.

Mr flox moved to take up the bill to incorporate th Umon Insurance company; but the motion was outstoted. On motion of Mr Jonnson, the resolution from the house appointing a joint committee to visit the college of Louisians at the annual examination of the pupils, was considered amended and adopted.

Mesers Johnson, Reid and Labause were appointed on the part of the senate.

On motion of Mr Bossies, the bill to incorporate the Nat. chitoches steamboat company, was considered and adopted. Mr Nicholas moved to-consider the amendments made by the house in the bill making further appropriations for th state penitentiary. Another sum of $900 was granted to perchase two squares of ground adjoining the penitentiary; $1100 to cover the sarplus expenditures of last year; and a third of $1000 annually for a clerk of the establishment. These amendments were adopted; and she bill was sent to Mr Tenney moved to take up the bill relative to granting hoesees to hawkers and pediars, and fining those unlicensed. A short discussion secured business. Merers Johnson, Tenney, Efficient and Nicholas; and the bill was passet without any alterations. On motion of Mr Dupré, the senate sat with eleved doors on executive business. Tue theatrical correspondent G. A. M. of the Courier has math some unjustifiable animadversione on the opera of Roher to Diable as performed at the American theatre; but an he had dealt out wholesale censures, few of them will be

The bill imposing a tax on all travelers arriving in this am about to relate, has induced me to request you to put is it is unpopular and unjust. Had the measure been immay lead to the detection of the perpetrators of these rob-

A few days since whilst sitting in my office, a person apparently a countryman entered, and asked if I was a lawyer and stated that he had that morning arrived from Alabama by the lake and the sail read, and that on arriving at the head of the rail road, he was proceeding up the Levee to the sleamboat landing, to seek employment on board some one of them, that just help with the market he met a well dressed man who where he was the country in the country of the market he met a well dressed man who recased;—when the freedom of travel and trade necessary and guarranteed to all citizens of the union, is thus assaid to discuss the total him; and the man who asked him where he was going. He told him; and the man strate him is passed only in Louisiana, and she is deprived of the credit of supporting institutions that are that providentially the result of her commerce; when travelers are compelled to support the parish schools of N. Orleans—that it is as contemptible as unjust; and ungenerous as ungrateful.

The measure will produce many a hearty and heavy curse for our Legislature. It is an evidence of precipitous and the had no stakes or he would win all his money, and asked the news or he would win all his money, and asked the news or he would win all his money, and asked the news or he would win all his money, and asked the news or he would win all his money, and asked the news or he would win all his money, and asked the news or he would win all his money, and asked the news or he would win all his money, and asked the news or he would win all his money, and asked the news or he would win all his money, and asked the news or he would win all his money, and asked the news or he would win all his money. the newly arrived to lead him a few dollars to begin with, saying he could soon win all that the other had.
