The New Orleans Bee.

NEW ORLEANS, THURSDAY MORNING, FEBRUARY 16, 1865

Vol. XVI.—NEW SERIES.
Whole Number 7873

THE DAILY BEE.

Thursday Morning, Feb. 16th, 1865.

By Telegraph!

Reconstructed by the New Orleans Bee.

Special Dispatch to the Bee.

Rebel Movements and Navy Work.

CHARLESTON, Feb. 15.—The enemy opened his fire furiously at daylight this morning from the Stono batteries on Fort Johnson, and the fire was promptly returned from Cole's Island by the Empire City Battalion of Artillery.

At Key West the weather was pleasant. There is a good deal of excitement on the Gulf for several days past, in consequence of the

The U.S. Steamer Pelgrim Princeton sailed on the 9th for Pensacola.

The Iris, Tennessee ran ashore at Long Key on the 1st, but was expected to get off unassisted.

OUR WASHINGTON CORRESPONDENCE.

WASHINGTON, February 6, 1865.

MR. STARKE, of Michigan, presented yesterday morning in the House, from the Legislature of that State, resolutions condemnatory of the passage of the Nebraska bill, and the repeal of the Missouri Compromise, and of course, disapproving of the votes given by him and his colleagues, Gen Conn, upon that occasion. Also expressing disapprobation of the Fugitive Slave law.

Mr. CRISP, in reply to these resolutions, stated that some years ago the Legislature of Michigan instructed her Senators to vote for the Wilmot Proviso, and believing in the doctrine of "got Proviso, and believing in the doctrine of "got instructions he had determined to resign rather than obey, but the necessity for doing so was obviated by the repeal of those resolutions by the same body. He was not instructed to do the same body. He was not instructed to do the same body. He was not instructed to do