and China, have the honor to inform their friends of No.
41 Canal street, that they have omitted their offices of No.
41 Canal street, and have removed them to No.
43 Canal street, where they will be found.

They are under the same management, and the convenience of their friends, with whom they will be in full communication.

There were six passengers, four children, and two in families among the passengers. All were found drowned or crushed to death. Only one of the children, a boy, was saved, and he was the only son
of one of the family of which he was master.

He had been missing since Friday evening.

It is impossible to arrive at a full list of the passengers saved and lost. We give below the names of all we have heard of.

Officers and passengers of the Boat Lost:

Capt. Daniel of the Atlantic.

John Gordon, Army.

Sarah Johnson, chambermaid.

John Walton, Mrs. Jane Walton, and their children.

John, James, and Eliza Jane, all of one family.

John, who was young, who was on board. The two men were drowned, frayed, or crushed to death.
