The Oregon Question in Parliamment [From Wilmer's Times, May 19.]
Incidentally, the state of our relations with America was brought under the notice of the House of Commons on the evening of Friday, the 15th oft.
Lord John Russelt made a pointed altimon to the subject, and in doing so, delivered himself in the tolowing graceful and happy terms.

Looking at one of the greatest nations of the Gobe, I am happy to find there are symptoms of returning termings of annity and good win. When I read the speeches of Webser, Caihoun, and others, I torget all the idle menare waited from the other side of the Atlantic. I russ her Majesty's Government who be able to fix finally the limits which divide the dominions of her imagesty from those of the United States and I trust the convention or treaty which shall settle that boundary will be but the prebudy of a more infimite connection between us and that great commonwealth of a free people; that we shall carry on together our manufactures and our agraculture, vying with each other, if you will, to make our production more and more perfect, striving, in the neutral markets of the world, for pre-eminence; striving also, in our respective branches of production, that we may could be world, for the may be due, but hoping into them and they may keed us, but hoping inductive them and they may keed us, but hoping show, in our respective branches of production, that we may could be consulted to the bar, to which I trust the other House of Parliment, should it pass by a great major, the prediction of the motion for the third reading. support to the monon for the third reading. Great cherring.

Towards the close of this speech on the corn question, the same evening, Sir Robert Peel, determined not to be outdone in politeness by the leader of the opposition, spoke as tollows——

The noble lord J. Rossell, says he hopes that the discussions which have been despread to the politeristic of the control of the contr discussions which have threatened the maintenance of amicable resistions with the United States, will be brought to a fortunate close. Sir. I think I can appeal to the course which we have pursued, against some obloquy, some misconstruction, some insinuations, that we were abandoning the honor of this country. I think I can appeal to the past experience of this Government, that it has been our earnest desire, by every effort consistently with the national honor, to maintain friendly relations with every country on the face of the globe. This principles to long as we are intrusted with the government of public affairs, will continue to influence us in respect to the articlement

It attaches no importance to the slight difference in the form of the Resolutions made by the Committee of History of the Captivity of Napoleon, at St. Helena. There appears to be an evident desire on the part of Great Britain to settle the Oregon question in the most amineble manner. The tone of the Notice Resolutions, as they passed the Senate, is deemed of a very favorable character. The question was incidentally brought up in the House of Commons on the 15th uit., and both Lord John Russell and Bir Robert Peet referred to it in conclitatory terms.

Pans, May 15.

An arrival at Havre brought intelligence of the vote of the Senate on the Oregon question, before it reached you in England. The news created remarkably inthe senantion, considering its momentions importance.

Just before the receipt of the intelligence of the vote of the Senate, a statement was current on the Bourse, and actually beheved, that the Englash Government had become so thoroughly dargusted with the Oregon debates and the American Legislature, that is cut the matter short, it had sent a feet to bombard New York.

The state of affairs between the United States and Measo excites considerable internst here, but hule is said thereon, either in convensation or by the newspapers. The latter, however, carefully translate all intelligence they can find in the American of English papers bearing upon the subject. Of course there is but one opinion, that if the poor devise of Mexicans go to war with the United States, they will get a most infernal licking.

M: Hagan, presented the following resolution which on motion, and the rules being dispensed with, was adopted **Anotherd**. That the Surveyor be required to examine and accept much portion of Canal street, as may be completed and accepted by him, be at once thrown open to the use of the public.

Merey Herman and Formall took their seat.

A setter was read from Mr Texier Dupaty, contesting; se election at Mr A. Labourdette, appointed wharfinger.

Mr Hermann, moved that said letter be laid on the tabe subject to the call of the Council. The yeas and may being called for, it appeared that Messes Hermann, Formall, Breake, had voted in the affirmative 3 and Merey Hermann and Latour had voted in the negarity 8. Said motion was sherefore rejected.

Mr. Hagan missed that wad letter be referred to a special committee, who shall report at the next meeting distinguishment of the modern of the committee, who shall report at the next meeting and service of the modern of the committee, who shall report as the next meeting and service of the committee of the control should dispense with its rules, that it might be allowed to the majority of the Committee to present its report. Said motion being adopted, Mr. Hagan, precedual colored. That the letter of Mr. A. Texier Dupaty
