MAGNE & ... Commissioners
No. 62 CHARTRES STREET.

OF THE BEE.

FOR GOVERNOR,
ALEXANDER DE CLOUET.

FOR LIEUT. GOVERNOR,
BENJ. F. FLANDER,

For New-Orleans Daily Bee.

THURSDAY MORNING, Nov. 1, 1849.

MISCELLANEOUS NOTICES.

FOR GOVERNOR.
ALEXANDER DE CLOUET.

FOR LIEUT. GOVERNOR,
BENJ. F. FLANDER,

The Memphis Convention.

THIRD DAY.—Nearly the entire sitting of the Convention was occupied by a debate on the merits of the various railroad projects submitted. Hon. S. Borland, of Arkansas, opened the discussion by advocating the Arkansas resolutions, and was followed by Alexander Walker, of Louisiana, in opposition. The resolutions were referred to the Committee on Resolutions, after long and earnest discussion, a resolution was offered by Mr. DeBow for the appointment of a Committee to memorialize Congress. This was adopted, and the Convention adjourned.

FOURTH DAY.—Various speeches were made by Messrs. Lea, Forshay, Campbell, and other gentlemen, in favor of particular routes. The Chairman then announced the names of the Committee to memorialize Congress, as follows: Mr. DeBow, of Louisiana; Gov. J. C. Jones, of Tennessee; J. A. Campbell, of Alabama; G. Darsie, of Pennsylvania; and, on motion, the President of the Convention, Lieut. Maury, was added to the committee; and also C. C. Mills, of Texas.

The report of the General Committee on the subject of giving the proceeds of the public lands in the States to the States for purposes of internal improvement, was adopted.

A resolution was offered by Mr. Campbell to adopt a special report in favor of the Gila route, beginning at San Diego and terminating at the Mississippi, at some point between Cairo and the mouth of Red River. A motion to lay on the table was lost, and after much debate, the Convention adjourned to 4 P. M.

The Convention adjourned sine die, on the evening of the 25th October. The final proceedings were highly satisfactory. Among the resolutions adopted, was the one relative to the Gila route, alluded to above, and another recommending a ship canal or railroad across the Isthmus of Tehuantepec.

INDIAN BATTLE.—The Minnesota Chronicle gives an account of a battle between a family of Half Breeds named La Prairie, and the band of Chippewas who acknowledge Shumia (Silver) as their chief. There were five Half Breeds—three men and two boys—and ten or twelve of the Indians. The battle was fought at Pocagomon Lake, one hundred and twenty miles northeast of St. Paul. A small stream divided them: the Half Breeds on the timber's side, and the Indians on the prairie. The fight lasted two or three hours. The Indians had one man killed, two mortally, and three or four slightly wounded. The Chief was badly wounded, in attempting to restore peace. The Half Breeds were connected in selling whiskey to the Indians. One of the ears of Louis Le Prairie was taken off by a rifle ball.

Mass Meeting on Lafayette Square.

We are glad that Lafayette Square will hardly be spacious enough to contain the throng of Whigs which will crowd it this evening. But supports—all our friends all RALLY in the good cause, and we shall serve to find them comfortable quarters. The gathering this evening will, if the weather continue bright, be the MONSTER MEETING of the campaign. The staunch Wing Coons will be there, with their banners and transparencies, and the great square will be illuminated by the light of a thousand torches. We hold it superfluous to appeal to our Wing brethren to be there, for we know they need no admonitions to prick the sides of their intent. THEY WILL RALLY, AND THAT BY THOUSANDS!

All Saints' Day.

This is a day fondly cherished in the memory and sacred to the repose of every one of the Catholic church. It is a day consecrated to the dead by the living who mourn for them. At each period of the year, they visit the scene, care and resting place of the sunbeams, and strew their mementoes over the humble mounds with flowers; while perfumed lights are kindled around, and piety and affection weep over the mouldering relics of the departed. It is a custom as consolatory as it is touching, but like other customs that have their origin in the kindlier and gentler feelings of humanity, it is gradually worn away by attrition with the hard material-dust realities of existence; and though in the spots of ancient and primitive simplicity that formerly encompassed our churches, it was universally prevalent, it is now cherished and honored more by that rare which ever clings fondest and longest to affection, and as it is to some degree the privilege of making an obeisance to custom.

The Catholic communities will present to-day a more and attractive spectacle, and we counsel all strangers to pay them a visit. They will be gratified at the evidences of tenderness and piety which they will every where discover.

THE LEGISLATURE OF OHIO.—The Cincinnati Gazette gives the following as the political divisions of parties in the next Legislature of Ohio. We believe there is little or no difference as compared with last year:

The Senate—16 Whigs, 16 Locofocos, and 4 Free-Soilers, three of whom, Beaver, Blake, and Rankin, are Whigs on the fourth Swing in a Locofoco. In the Senate, therefore, although the Free-Soilers vote on political questions in combination with the Whigs, their original political affinities, and upon this subject there can be no doubt, the Whigs will have two majority.

The House—31 Whigs to 28 Locofocos, 2 Independent Democrats, and 6 Free-Soilers. On the Hamilton county apportionment, the House will probably stand 39 for classification, 39 against it, and one neutral.

The Columbus Journal says that the Democrats cannot count a majority in either branch of the Legislature, without including the members-elect from Hamilton county contrary to the apportionment law; but, if the Gazette be correct in representing thirty-eight of the members-elect to be in favor of nullifying that law, there can be no question that the Democrats will finally obtain a majority in the House.

The Meeting at the St. Louis Ball Room.

The Whig assemblage last evening at the St. Louis Ball Room was one of the most brilliant and enthusiastic gatherings of the campaign. The spacious hall was densely packed with the ardent Whigs of the city, while hundreds on the other town or hear, filled the rotunda and the lower floor. The gallery of the Ball Room was thronged with an array of ladies and beauty. Col. McALEER, the chivalrous commander of the Fulmore Rangers, was ushered in and seated on the stage, and CHARLES DEBLANC, Esq., acted as President. The meeting was successively addressed by Messrs. DUPUIS on French, ELLIOT and KENNER, in strains of effective and vigorous eloquence that thrilled through the immense audience. Several highly spirited and entertaining Whig songs were executed by Pere OLIVIER and his efficient chorus; and at a late hour the meeting adjourned and formed a procession which paraded the streets of our city, making the welkin ring with joyous shouts for DECLOUET, KENNER and FELIET.

THE HUNGARIAN PATRIOTS.—The Paris correspondent of the New York Tribune, says:

You may expect, Bem and Dembinski, and, probably, Mozzini, in New York by the middle of November.

I have seen the Hungarian ministers to Constantinople, France, England and Italy, and they are now awaiting the arrival of Kossuth to go to America, of course they have not conferred with Kossuth on the subject, but they have no doubt of his accompanying them.

If immediate hostilities should break out between Russia and Turkey, their plans may be changed, and I dare say many of them make their way back into Hungary to renew the war.

MINTS WANTED.—There is said to be more California gold at the mint in Philadelphia than can be coined in six weeks, working night and day. In consequence of this delay, the New York Sun is informed, parcels of California gold have been forwarded to England, by New York merchants, for the purpose of having it coined there, and of saving the interest on money which would otherwise be lying idle in the Philadelphia mint.

☞ The slaves Cyrene and John have been tried and convicted in the parish of Caddo, of poisoning Ezycnah Crawford.

The Connecticut River Damned.

SPRINGFIELD, Oct. 22, 1849.

The newly constructed dam across the Connecticut, at the new city at Hadley Falls, was closed at noon, to-day, the storm rendering it expedient to anticipate the period which had been assigned for the event. Thousands of people were on the spot to witness the completion of this magnificent work. Everything went off satisfactorily. The dam, it is supposed, will not fill before midnight. It is built in the most substantial manner, and no fears are entertained of its giving way.

☞ DR. RAPHAEL, the best Hebrew scholar in the world, is supposed to be on board the Sarah Sands, which vessel left Liverpool on the 4th instant. The Tribune says he is the editor of a new edition of the Hebrew Scriptures, and to be the most correct ever published; it is not yet finished.

☞ BLAIR AND RIVES, of the Washington Globe, have dissolved partnership. Mr. Blair retires, and will, it is stated, soon start a paper to advocate Mr. Benton's claims to the Presidency.

☞ M. CABET, the celebrated Socialist, and the founder of the settlement called Icaria, was sentenced, by default, by the Parice-court of Paris, on the 25th ult., to imprisonment for two years, to pay a fine of 30f., and to be deprived of his civil rights during five years, for having, by false statements, induced a number of persons to deposit various sums, their hard-earned savings, with him, for which he made them no return, beyond initiating them in the mysteries of socialism. These unfortunate victims were forced to give up even their watches and rings, while they were left on the vessel in which they sailed to America without a morsel of food and they would have perished of hunger but for the humanity of some Dutch passengers on board. These facts were proved on the trial.

RUN AND MURDER IN ALBANY.—Between 9 and 10 P. M., on the night of Sunday 21st inst., a man named Robertson, connected with the circus of Mann, performing in Albany, went into a refectory, and offered for twenty cents to whip any one of the waiters in the city. A man named Joslyn became involved in a dispute with him, and sundry hard words and blows were passed. About fifteen minutes afterwards Joslyn and a friend named Hays passing up the street were beaten mercilessly by a band of men with sticks, clubs, etc. Hays escaped and told what had happened and that his companion had been badly beaten, on which search was instituted and Joslyn was found in a dying condition, and soon after died. A search was made for the perpetrators and after a long time Robertson was found secreted in a barn of Albany, yesterday afternoon. There was great excitement in Albany on Monday and a riot was expected. The Evening Journal calls on the authorities to protect the city from such scenes as have occurred in "other cities."

FIRE ON SHIP BOARD.—The bark Jane Gunn, Capt. Mathews, lying at Pier No. 5, Second Municipality, and bound for Barcelona, was discovered to be on fire in the hold, yesterday morning about forbreak. The bark being partly loaded (having on board 310 bales of cotton, and a quantity of staves, some 30 or 40 bales of cotton, being more or less damaged by fire, and burning off 3 or 4 beams and injuring the decks of the vessel. There had been no cargo put in the vessel for three days previous to the fire. There was no insurance on he cargo. The vessel was insured to one third of her value.

☞ We are indebted to the obliging officers of the steamer Autocrat, for late Memphis papers.

HORRID DEATH.—A man by the name of John England, who used to drive stage between Cadiz and Cadiz ville, Hunoge, met with his death on last Monday 15th by attempting to ascertain if a gun was loaded, by looking into the muzzle, and at the same time raising the hammer on the cock with his foot, when his foot came in full contact, and the whole load was discharged into his mouth, killing him instantly.

DESPERATE MURDER.—A friend writing us from Hawkinsville, the 22d inst., says "Mr. John L. Ponder, a negro trader, (with some sixty negroes,) was murdered on his stage with a sweep in his tent this morning, about 5 o'clock, a few miles below this place, on the road to Cedar Hill, Sidell's. His home is in Thomas county. I have just returned from holding an inquest over the body. The evidence, and circumstances and negro tales hash-on-a-rush, not yet, but I think the perpetrator will be found out."

We understand that Mr Ponder is one of the traders who were taken up in Thomas by last winter.—Savannah Republican.

☞ A curious circumstance came to our knowledge on Saturday. We learned that Dr. Lehman, our late postmaster, had just gotten a receipt in full for a complete and an unqualified settlement of all his accounts as a public officer with the General Government. It appears by their settlement that during the doctor's four years in our post office, the sum of six hundred and odd thousand dollars were received by him for postage, and passed over to the credit of the United States. Of this vast sum, four hundred thousand dollars were allowed as profits to the department. The Doctor retained about seventy-two thousand dollars as his share for his personal services.—Philadelphia Times, 23d inst.

☞ Persons desirous of purchasing a delightful summer residence, would find to their interest to visit the elegant village of Belleville, previous to the extensive sale of Mr. Gayoso de Lemos' property, which takes place next Saturday, without reserve.

City Intelligence.

HONORARY DISTINCTION.—H. Kloppenburg, respected citizen, Councilman yesterday, in the chance of ticking, was the recipient of the gift of cotton from the Merchants' Exchange, as mentioned in our columns; but the Councilman's independence having been proof against the accustomed, he was dropped overboard, to the delight of his promises to return to his constituents, and entirely without the knowledge of Kloppenburg, the fact was communicated to the authorities of the Third Municipality, and the Councilman, as soon as he ascended, had been made the victim of some malicious dream.

LARCENY.—Gen. McNeil made an affidavit yesterday, before Recorder Genois, setting forth that he took a night's lodging with Bridget Lowe in Rampart street, was there robbed of $10. A warrant was issued.

SENT DOWN FOR TRIAL.—Isaac Slaule was sent yesterday by Recorder Genois, before the First District Court, on the charge of having entered the premises of L. Desaulles on the Levee, in the night time with felonious intent.

RECORD MISCELLANEA.—The business transacted yesterday in Recorder Baldwin's Court, was of a light nature, and confined to a few unimportant charges which it is not necessary to particularize.

COMMERCIAL.

The Markets.

WEDNESDAY EVENING, October 1, 1849.

The heavy operations in Cotton yesterday amounting to 11,000 bales, left the market with less offering to-day, and as factors stiffened in their demands, the sales did not exceed 2,000 bales. SEASONABLE INFORMATION.

It is a matter of notoriety that for some weeks past, immense numbers of foreigners are taking out their naturalization papers at the several Courts, and that a still larger proportion are making declarations of their intention to become citizens of the United States. There is no doubt that many of these individuals are acting under the honest belief that this process will make them qualified voters at the coming election; and it is to be apprehended that some of them, with a full cognizance of the qualifications prescribed by the Constitution, are boldly and deliberately preparing to exercise the right of suffrage through FRAUD and PERJURY.

Every man who has been naturalized since the 5th November 1847, or who has taken out his declaration, and who expects to vote, or will offer to vote at the approaching State election, may protect himself from certain and severe punishment, and will conform to the Constitution and Laws of the State of Louisiana by giving careful heed to the annexed information, which, for the benefit of all concerned, we shall keep standing in our columns until the election is over:

The Constitution of Louisiana, in the plainest and most emphatic terms, bestows the right of suffrage upon those citizens of foreign origin who have been TWO YEARS citizens of the United States. A foreigner may have resided here forty years, and is NOT entitled to a vote. He must take out his naturalization papers, and then reside TWO consecutive years following the date of his citizenship, before he can acquire the right of suffrage. It is then palpable and incontrovertible that NOT A MAN of all those who have been naturalized within the last few weeks, or at any time within two years preceding the election, CAN VOTE.

In order that all attempts at false swearing may be detected, baffled, and punished, the Central Whig Executive Committee have had transcribed from the registry of the courts, the name of every individual who has been naturalized, or has filed a declaration of his intention to become a citizen within the last two years. These lists are being printed, and will be extended to the day before the election. They will be placed in the hands of the Inspectors of Elections at the polls, and of the Challenging Committees, so that it will be utterly impossible for any man to attempt to vote, whose name may appear on these lists without instant discovery, and the consequent exposure to the severe penalty imposed by law upon the PERJURER.

The act of 25th January 1847, entitled "An Act to regulate Elections in the Parishes of Orleans and Jefferson," prescribes that any person who shall knowingly vote without the legal right to do so, shall be liable to prosecution, and on conviction shall be punished by a fine of five hundred dollars, and imprisonment in the parish jail or in the Penitentiary for one or more terms.

We therefore warn all persons concerned that it is the intention of the Committees of Election to carry out in full the provisions of the law. The very least man who offers to vote illegally, or who swears in order that he may vote illegally, will be COMMITTED to prison, and will be prosecuted in the utmost rigor of the law. The honest foreigner who shall have been naturalized within two years, and who really believes himself entitled to vote, and the dishonest one, who, knowing that he does not possess that right, may yet seek to place a spurious vote within the ballot box, are alike forewarned. Let them be wise in season and avoid the penalties, the gaol and the terrible retribution that must assuredly follow such crimes.

We place these plain facts before many of the honest foreigners, instead of the concerted efforts that are being made to impose an ENORMOUS FRAUDULENT VOTE at the coming contest. Those engaged in this foul machination are closely and vigilantly observed, and they may feel certain that their every move will be circumvented and defeated; and that more than we be the first to suffer the penalty of a crime.
