OFFICE 78 CHARTRES STREET.

NEW ORLEANS: FRIDAY MORNING, FEB. 2, 1871.

1. Maladministration of Registration and Election laws, in that he neglected and failed to appoint the Supervisors of Registration at the time prescribed by law; that when finally appointed, a manority of the Supervisors sout to the various parishes were residents of and appointed from the city of New Orleans, were personally unknown to the residents of the parishes to which they were sent, and not acceptable to the adherents of either political party, and in some instances, were agen of notorously bad character; and that by many of the Supervisors so appointed, grose frauds ing two hundred or mere, and the new administration of the paper begun yesterday. In the selumbery address of the new candustees at the super they promise to make it the exponent and representative of the best thought of the community. They lay down the rules which should regulate the conduct of journalists devoted to the public interest, and pledge thermselves to an adherence thereto. These rules embrace all the principles which should guide the conductors of a respectable newspaper, and we heartily approve of them. The Picaysse, under the new regime, will continue to be a journal independent of political parties, and a vehicle for the utterance of sound doctrines entirely untrammelled by party control. The present conductors of the paper repudiate neutrality in emergencies involving the interests of the people of the State and city, and promise to tors of this popular journal, and with its them a long career of prosperity.

We regret to observe the death, on Tuesday last, of Mr. Francisco Navas, of the Meridian Salcon, in Exchange Place, and offer duraympathics to the family of the decased on the occasion of so sorrowful and event.
