

Mr Antonio J Robinson (Music A&R Executive) is an award-winning producer, born in 1971, educated at the prestigious Collegio “Alla Querce” in Florence (Italy). After 2 years of studying psychology he left Italy for London to pursue a music career.

He joined Columbia Records working his way through the different parts of the business, but ultimately settled on producing and developing new Artists. This brought him to work alongside Artists such as Beverly Knights, All Saints, Destiny Childs and Pink which earned him 3 gold and 4 platinum disks making him one of the best spotters of outstanding talent. In the late 1990’s he was instrumental in bringing Puff Daddy and Faith Evans to the UK for their very first UK concert at Sound Republic and promotion of tours for Artists such as Mettlica, The Red Hot Chili Peppers and Gwen Stefani.

In 2007 he became the A&R Music Executive for Jar Music Group and A&R Executive of Sign Records.
