NUEVA ORLEANS, 11 DE ENERO 1830.

MEXICO.

DISCURSO pronunciado por el Exmo. Sr. presidente el dia 13 de diciembre al abriri las sesiones extraordinarias del congreso general.

S. dores diputados y senadores—Investido por vuestra autoridad con el poder ejecutivo de facultades extraordinarias, con el fin de salvaguardia pàtria, me presento en vuestro recinto a denunciar este terrible cargo, de-pues de haberle ejercido con la más dedicación que se es constante; pues uno confia un principio, que la moderación prima un carácter auguste à los pueblos, y se asocia admirablemente à la virtud y estabilidad de las instituciones republicanas.

Yo esperaba tener la satisfacción de hablarlo en términos laconicos & la pública felicidad, en consecuencia del triunfo del valor mexicano contra la agresión de nuestros invasores en Tamaulipas. Estaba persuadido que después de suceso tan decisivo para nuestras armas, seguiríamos por la senda di bosa de la concordia y unión de sentimientos, y nos haríamos sumidables á nuestros enemigos, con aquella generosa emulación que reúndiza las artes, amplifica el comercio, y hace opulentas las naciones; pero lejos de ser así, parece que el destino nos prepara nuevos males y mayores desastres que combatin, si la sabiduría del congreso nacional y la prudencia y energía de las legislaturas de los estados, no presentan una barrera insuperable contra los que osan subvertir el orden público.

¡Ah padres de la patria! Si no fuese ya notorio que el vice-presidente de la república, y otros ilustres generales, á quienes la patria confió su defensa y seguridad, se hallan al frente de la revolución, jamás, nunca jamás prenunciaria sus nombres, tanto para hacer el elogio de sus personas. Mas la suerte me pone en el caso repugnante de presentarlos los datos de su infamia, á título de reformar abusos, que aunque existiesen, no son ellos á quienes nuestro derecho público comete la facultad de corregir.

S. dores senadores y diputados: Mis secretarios del despacho os presentaran oportunamente las operaciones del gobierno en sus respectivos departamentos, y el congreso formará el juicio de que sea digna mi administración.

Si la federación requiriere mi presencia en el campo del honor, yo soy tan ciudadano como soldado de la patria. La constitución provee para semejantes conflictos en la república. La nación espera de vueltas tareas medidas eficaces, que demuestren la vanidad de atañá su gloria y sus santas leyes.—Dijo.

Contestación del presidente de la cámara de diputados.

Triste y lamentable situación es la verdad, en la que vuelve á reponerse para extraordinarias el congreso general de los Estados Unidos Mexicanos! Cuando éstos han celebrado con festivas demostraciones el triunfo de la libertad patrícia contra los antiguos tiranos: cuando se escuchaban todavía los aplausos de los pueblos, encendiéndose á los demandados gobernadores y soldados vencedores de los hijos de Pelayo, sobre las márgenes del Panuco y cuando se esperaba que en medio de la serenidad y calma procediera esta augusta asamblea ó ocuparse del arreglo de los ramos importantes de la administración pública, y de otras reformas salutables, entonces es que un tremendo grito de alarma se desató en las extremidades de Campeche y Jalapa, lanzado por las guarniciones militares de aquellas plazas, pidiendo una el gobierno central, y solicitando la otra las reformas y providencias que todo México ha visto en su plan.

Esta ocurrencia inesperada, por lo menos ha agitado los ánimos fuertemente con el estruendo de las armas; y de aquí es que el ejecutivo, usando de las facultades con que fué investido en agosto último, ha convocado estas sesiones para asegurar con las leyes que sean indispensables nuestra independencia adorada, el sistema de gobierno actual, y la pública tranquilidad de los estados.

En vuestras manos, pues, está j. legisladores! La futura felicidad ó la eterna desgracia del soberano pueblo mexicano. Todos los habitantes de la república tienen á esta hora los ojos clavados en sus representantes, esperando el remedio de los males que les amenazan.

Vosotros con la misma celeridad con que habeis acudido al llamado del ejecutivo, es preciso que os ocupéis de las medidas libertadoras que demandan imperiosamente las presentes circunstancias para salvar la patria, no perdiendo de vista para nada el tesoro de nuestra carta sagrada que los amigos de los señados derechos de la legitimidad pueden querer robarnos, ni oviendo jamás que la nación que una vez jurado ser libre, no sabe ni puede proceder para ser esclava, si no consiente ciegamente en ser engañada.—Dijo.

THE NEW ORLEANS BEE.

PRINTED BY F. DELAUP.

NEW ORLEANS:
MONDAY, JANUARY 11, 1830.

We have received Mexico papers up to the 12th December. We are sorry to observe that a CIVIL WAR will be the consequence of the contest existing between the Centralists and Federalists. Gen. Bustamante, vice-president of the Republic, and chief-general of the army of reserve, has declared himself in favor of the system of a Central government, in the city of Jalapa. Besides the insurrection of Campachay, some disturbances have taken place at Mérida. The Congress has been extraordinary convoked; and in their first sitting, on the 11th December, President Guerrero renounced the extraordinary faculties of which he was invested.

NEW YORK, December 19.
LATE FROM EUROPE.

The packet ship Charlemagne, Capt. Robinson, arrived yesterday, sailed from Havre on the 22d ult. and we have papers to that date, with Paris papers to the 20th inclusive. These contain London dates to the evening of the 17th.

By the packet ship Wm. Thompson, from Liverpool, we have regular advices to the 16th ult., inclusive. These are annually late for this season of the year.

Capt. Robinson informs, that the government had concluded to make a large basin at Havre, for the convenience of vessels entering the port in bad weather, and have laid a tax on foreign vessels to pay for it, of about 10 per cent. on port charges. This is something new.

Gen. Lafayette was at Lagrange confined with a bad cold.

Foreign Intelligence.—France is far from tranquil in regard to the Ministry, and it is said that the King will dissolve the Chamber of Deputies if the opposition continues. Affairs in the East are not settled, new difficulties constantly presenting themselves as to the ratification between Russia and the Porte, which from the Constantinople article of the 18th October, appears had not taken place on that day. Rumors were current on the 14th, that England was desirous of entering into a close alliance with Turkey, and that Mr. Gordon's powers had been much enlarged. It was also said that the British Admiral, Malcolm, was apprised of the intention of his Government, and that the Mediterranean squadron was receiving constant reinforcements. The state of the Markets will be found in detail, in another part of our publication.

The Journal du Hayre says, that M. le Bourdonnayé entered the Ministry on the 16th August, and retired on the 16th November, and that he had thus like a certain great man his hundred days of power—the only resemblance that he ever had to genius!

Paris, Nov. 20.—By a royal ordinance of the 18th inst. the Baron de Montbel is appointed Minister of the Interior, in the room of the Count de la Bourdonnayé, resigned. M. Guérin de Ranville, Procureur General at the Royal Court of Lyons, is appointed Minister for Ecclesiastical Affairs, and Public Instruction, in the room of the Baron de Montbel.

The Augsburg Gazette contains the following, under date of Constantinople, Oct. 14:—"It is inconceivable why the Porte, whose want of force has been sufficiently proved by recent events, should always wish to appear capable of governing the conferences at Adrianople, and deriving from them the results which it desires. It says, 'that the peace is certainly signed,' but that the conditions of it are not fulfilled; that a more precise explanation of the articles of it must be given, they being couched in a general sense, and the Porte not being disposed to deliver itself bound and blindfold into the hands of Russia.' It is certain that a mis understanding has arisen between the Turkish and Russian Plenipotentiaries at Adrianople, and that the Porte is endeavoring to gain time for the fulfilment of the conditions of the Treaty. The cause and object of this conduct are incomprehensible.

Is it the boasting of the Pacha of Scutari, who has declared to Gen. Diebitsch that he would give him till October 15 to evacuate Adrianople, and that when that term had expired he would drive him out by force? Or is it the arrival of the English Admiral, who has succeeded in blinding the Sultan and his counsellors? It is true, the Reis Effendi has several times declared that he has the most strict instructions for the Treaty to be executed, and that he has several times given orders to the Pacha of Scutari to desist.

ESPANA.

Cartas de Madrid, de la fecha del 6 de Noviembre, dicen que hay en Andalucía un ejército de 4,500 hombres, sobre punto de embarcarse por la isla de Cuba, bajo el mando de D. José Velsido, que viene a reemplazar al general Loriza.

A VENDRE.—Une nègresse âgée de 35 ans, créole du pays, cuisinière et blanchisseuse, avec son enfant âgée de 3 ans et demi. S'adresser à MM. Guadiz et Fournier.

Si elle n'est pas vendue au 10 Janvier 1830, elle sera adjugée ce jour-là aux enchères, par M. Dutillet, eaucanteur. 26 déc.

It appears, however, that this conciliatory language will only last till the moment when the Porte can hope to avoid the fulfilment of the conditions stipulated. If the Sultan cannot rely upon foreign support, which is not probable, he exposes himself to be placed in a worse situation, than at present. All the ties of obedience seem broken in the interior of the empire.

The Pachas obey no orders given them, and the people are inclined in favour of the Russians, in Asia, many chiefs have endeavored to make common cause with the enemy, and several of them have conjured the Russians to keep the conquered provinces for ever. The Grand Vizier, who continues at Choumla, has refused to give up the Seals of the Empire, alleging that he has acted as a faithful and devoted servant, that he could not be made responsible for the disasters that occurred, and that he foresaw still greater evils if he should quit his post under existing circumstances. The Sultan is greatly perplexed by this refusal, for the Grand Vizier, who is held in high consideration, has many partisans."

According to recent accounts from Bucharest, nearly a fourth part of the town of Zyrwesztz had been destroyed by fire. At Bucharest also an uninhabited house, the ground floor of which was used by the Russians for depositing military stores, had been burnt to the ground, and stores to the value of 200,000 paper rubles destroyed.

Letters of the 6th instant from Madrid announce that in Andalusia there is a corps of 4500 men ready to embark for the isle of Cuba. Don Joseph Veloso, who is appointed successor of the late General Loriga at Havana, is to take the command of this corps, and go out with it. The wounds which general Egua received by the explosion of the infernal machine contained in a packet of dispatches addressed to him are eleven in number. The General has been obliged to submit to the amputation of the righthand and two fingers of the left.

M. Vanquelin, Deputy of the department of Calvados, Member of the Institute, Professor of the Garden of Plants, and one of the most distinguished chemists of France, died a few days ago, of 67 years. Thus the four most celebrated chemists in Europe, namely, Dr. Wollaston, Sir Humphrey Davy, M. Vanquelin, have within less than a year been consigned to the tomb. England has now the honor of possessing, in the person of Michael Faraday, the first chemist of the age.

Intelligence has just been received at Paris, from the French scientific men and artists sent out by the government to make researches in Egypt. According to letter from M. Champollion Jr. they left Thebes on the 4th of September after a stay of six months, arrived on the fifth at Denderah; on the 11th at Antinoe and on the 15th. at Cairo. One of the party, Dr. Raddi, natural philosopher well known by his researches in Brazil, had died of a violent dysentery.

Accounts from the Mediterranean states that the English fleet there will return to England early in December, and that the Russian squadron will winter either at Portsmouth or Plymouth. In the present state of affairs in the East, we think both statements highly improbable.—London Sun.

The Mars, Bristow, has arrived in England, from Coquimbo, with a cargo of copper ore and bullion, being the second cargo imported by the Chilean Mining Company.

The French papers state, there is no doubt that the English government intend to get possession of Madeira, and to keep it as a security for the loans to Portugal.

COMMERCIAL.

From the New-Orleans Price Current of Saturday.

COTON.—Arrived since the 4th inst. from the interior and Mississippi, 7436 bales; Tennessee and North Alabama, 3678; Florida, 132; Mobile, 67; beyond Lake Pontchartrain, 413; together, 11724. SUGAR.—On the Plantation.—The season having been particularly unfavorable to the planters, the quantity made has fallen for short of previous years; it has in consequence advanced to its present high price. Sales have been made on plantations at 7 cents for goods, and we are informed that 7 1/2 has been asked and is expected to be obtained, though we have not heard of a sale at that price.

MOLASSES.—Our remarks on Sugar may be applied to this article in all their extent. Some holders ask over 19 cents. We have heard of sales at that price, and continue last quotation.

TOBACCO.—The stock on hand is small—few arrivals, and little or no export of consequence. We have not heard of any change, and continue last quotations.
