Third District, 250 barrols mess pork. All the above articles will positively be disposed of as advertised in our columns, and at prices and lots that cannot fail to sais those desirons or disposed to the enemy while a magazine or a match remains on board.

Everybody volunteered: so Capt. C. had to select five men from the erew.

This volunteering to remain with Captain C. was no ordinary thing. At the time it was almost secrificing one's self to certain death; and for the reas-n—the magazine of the Ellie was entirely unprotected. A shot from the seemy; a gune was as likely to take effect in the magazines as any where else.

Among those selected to remain on board the Ellie were Master's Mater Valentine and Barton; and, in accordance with the Captain's instructions, the prize schooner dropped down the channel.

Journal of the 6th says the following of Mor-

There is every reason to believe that John Morgan with a presty strong force is on this side of the Green river. MR. SLIDELL'S INTERVIEW WITH THE EM-PEROR.—The Paris Patric of November 17th states the following:

We had announced that Mr. Slideli was hos-ored with an interview with the Emperor at Compèligne. The fact concerning the interview is correct, but Mr. Slideli was received at St. Clond on the 30th of October, and not at Com-riders.

THE HARDOR DEFENSES OF THE NORTH—
The New York Hereld of the 14th instant pablishes the following paragraph:
Secretary Welles, in his report, appears to think that the fortifications of our principal seaports are sufficient for their purposs. The report of the Ordance Bureau of his own department expresses a different opinion. Which are we to credit?

The National Intelligencer of the 5th publishes the following paragraph:

Commander Worden, whose services on the Monitor have been so highly appreciated by his country, is again ready for solve satiry, and is expected to sail part week from New York in command of the new irot-sidenmen Montalitant, now nearly ready for see idenmen Montalitant, now nearly ready for see

GER. BLAIR.-The St. Louis Democrat of th GEN. BLAIR.—The St. Louis Democrat of the 4th inst publishes the following regarding the movements of Gen. Blair:
General Blair and staff, we are informed, will leave this city to-day or to-morrow for Memphie, at which pisce, or at Helena, he will be put in command of a brigade to operate under General Edification against Victiburg. The report that General Blair is to be appointed Major-General has, we learn, no foundation in face.
